The Neo Impressionists:

Pissarro, Neo-Impressionism, and the Spaces of the Avant-Garde Martha Ward, 1996-07 Martha Ward tracks the development and reception of neo impressionism revealing how the artists and critics of the French art world of the 1880s and 1890s created painting's first modern vanguard movement Paying particular attention to the participation of Camille Pissarro the only older artist to join the otherwise youthful movement Ward sets the neo impressionists individual achievements in the context of a generational struggle to redefine the purposes of painting She describes the conditions of display distribution and interpretation that the neo impressionists challenged and explains how these artists sought to circulate their own work outside of the prevailing system Paintings Ward argues often anticipate and respond to their own conditions of display and use and in the case of the neo impressionists the artists relations to market forces and exhibition spaces had a decisive impact on their art Ward details the changes in art dealing and chronicles how these and new freedoms for the press made artistic vanguardism possible while at the same time affecting the content of painting She also provides a nuanced account of the neo impressionists engagements with anarchism and traces the gradual undermining of any strong correlation between artistic allegiance and political direction in the art world of the 1890s Throughout there are sensitive discussions of such artists as Georges Seurat and Paul Signac as well as Pissarro Yet the touchstone of the book is Pissarro's intricate relationship to the various factions of the Paris art world The Neo-Impressionist Portrait, 1886-1904 Jane Block, Ellen Wardwell Lee, ING Cultuurcentrum, Indianapolis Museum of Art, 2014-03-25 Published on the occasion of the exhibition Face to Face Neo Impressionist Portraits 1886 1904 ING Cultural Centre Brussels February 19 May 18 2014 Indianapolis Museum of Art June 13 September 7 2014 Neo-Impressionism and Anarchism in Fin-de-Siècle France Robyn Roslak, 2017-07-05 In Neo Impressionism and Anarchism in Fin de Siècle France Robyn Roslak examines for the first time the close relationship between neo impressionist landscapes and cityscapes and the anarchist sympathies of the movement's artists She focuses in particular on paintings produced between 1886 and 1905 by Paul Signac and Maximilien Luce the neo impressionists whose fidelity to anarchism to the art of landscape and to a belief in the social potential of art was strongest Although the neo impressionists are best known for their rational and scientific technique they also heeded the era's call for art surpassing the mundane realities of everyday life By tempering their modern subjects with a decorative style they hoped to lead their viewers toward moral and social improvement Roslak's ground breaking analysis shows how the anarchist theories of Elis Reclus Pierre Kropotkin and Jean Grave both inspired and coincided with these ideals Anarchism attracted the neo impressionists because its standards for social justice were grounded like neo impressionism itself in scientific exactitude and aesthetic idealism Anarchists claimed humanity would reach its highest level of social and moral development only in the presence of a decorative variety of nature and called upon progressive thinkers to help create and maintain such environments The neo impressionists who primarily painted decorative landscapes therefore discovered in anarchism a political theory consistent with their belief that decorative harmony should be the basis for socially responsible art

Neo-Impressionism and the Dream of Realities Cornelia Homburg, Paul Smith, Christopher Riopelle, 2014-01-01 A beautifully illustrated investigation of Neo Impressionism in late 19th century Paris and Brussels This stunning catalogue explores the creative exchange between Neo Impressionist painters and Symbolist writers and composers in the late 1880s and early 1890s Symbolism with its emphasis on subjectivity dream worlds and spirituality has often been considered at odds with Neo Impressionism s approach to portraying color and light This book repositions the relationship between these movements and looks at how Neo Impressionist artists such as Maximilien Luce Georges Seurat Paul Signac and Henry van de Velde created evocative landscape and figural scenes by depicting emptiness contemplative moods Arcadia and other themes Beautifully illustrated with 130 color images this book reveals the vibrancy and depth of the Neo Impressionist movement in Paris and Brussels in the late 19th century

Paul Signac and Color in Neo-impressionism Floyd Ratliff, 1992 Paul Signac and Color in Neo Impressionism is a groundbreaking examination of the artistic technique of divisionism in terms of modern scientific theory of color Truly interdisciplinary in his approach Floyd Ratliff treats the evolution of both color theory and artistic practice in an integrated way Signac was the principal advocate for the new movement launched by Georges Seurat in the 1880s The book is handsomely illustrated with both Neo Impressionist paintings and scientific drawings and diagrams Ratliff s five part essay provides an extended introduction to a translation of Signac s monograph From Eugene Delacroix to Neo Impressionism widely regarded as the basic document of the movement but never before available in English This will be an invaluable reference for scholars in art and design as well as students of the psychology and neurophysiology of color vision and those interested in the relation between the arts and the sciences Its clarity of style also makes it accessible to the general reader interested in art history painting or the perception of color particularly with its glossary of technical and art terms index and bibliography

Neo-Impressionism and Anarchism in Fin-de-Si?e France Robyn Roslak, 2007 In Neo Impressionism and Anarchism in Fin de Si e France Robyn Roslak examines for the first time the close relationship between neo impressionist landscapes and cityscapes and the anarchist sympathies of the movement s artists She focuses in particular on paintings produced between 1886 and 1905 by Paul Signac and Maximilien Luce the neo impressionists whose fidelity to anarchism to the art of landscape and to a belief in the social potential of art was strongest Although the neo impressionists are best known for their rational and scientific technique they also heeded the era s call for art surpassing the mundane realities of everyday life By tempering their modern subjects with a decorative style they hoped to lead their viewers toward moral and social improvement Roslak s ground breaking analysis shows how the anarchist theories of Elis Reclus Pierre Kropotkin and Jean Grave both inspired and coincided with these ideals Anarchism attracted the neo impressionists because its standards for social justice were grounded like neo impressionism itself in scientific exactitude and aesthetic idealism Anarchists claimed humanity would reach its highest level of social and moral development
