Christology From Within and Ahead Mark

Chan,2021-10-01 Troeltsch's struggle with historicism sets the stage for a proposal that Christology be done from within and from ahead Gadamer's philosophical hermeneutics and Schleiermacher's experiential theology inform a Christology from within that is rooted in tradition and experience while Pannenberg's notion of proleptic eschatological fulfilment serves as resource for a Christology from ahead This volume develops a hermeneutical Christology that takes into account the historical contingency of knowledge and seeks a Christology beyond the objectivism of timeless truth and the relativism of absolutised contextuality The book is concluded with an examination of the convergence of critical traditionality experiential appropriation and eschatological prolepsis in the Christology of the apostle Paul The author explores how Christology might respond to the scandal of universality in postmodernity without defaulting on its claim to transcontextual referentiality

Zeikowitz,2016-04-30 Zeikowitz explores both affirming and denigrating discourses of male same sex desire in diverse fourteenth century chivalric texts and describes the sociopolitical forces motivating those discourses He attempts to dethrone traditional heteronormative views by drawing attention to culturally normative queer desire Zeikowitz articulates possible homoeroticized spectatorial interactions between male readers and imagined or actual model knights dramatized accounts of same sex unions and mutually stimulating or competing forces of homosocial and heterosexual desire in chivalric texts such as Charny's Book of Chivalry Sir Gawain and the Green Knight and Troilus and Criseyde He also examines how intimate male bonds are rendered sodomitically inflected dangerous attachments in chronicle narratives of the reigns of Edward II and Richard II
