known in its heyday for the enormous collection of relics housed in its churches bones even whole bodies and intimate possessions of holy men and women Almost all these objects had been imported from various parts of the Roman Empire between the late 4th to the 10th centuries They had been acquired because they were believed to have miraculous powers to ward off enemies to heal sicknesses and to ensure that the capital was indeed the God guarded Theophylaktos city it believed itself to be These studies examine the means by which relics were acquired the ways in which they were used and some of the reasons why for so long they were believed to be effective The role of relics in the development of the cult of the Mother of God Theotokos is discussed as well as the curious relationship between relics and icons The so called deviation of the

Fourth Crusade and the subsequent sacking of Constantinople in 1204 may also in part be explained by an unbridled yearning to possess her relics they were certainly pillaged and disseminated to the west thus concluding an era of relic history at Byzantium and initiating a different one in the west

Wolves in Sheep's Clothing Stephen Marshall,2007-01-01 Faced with the collapse of the American dream at home and the decline of their global empire abroad American liberals have dumped the 1960s era radicalism of their youth and become complicit in a complex game of bait and switch selling the world a vision of liberal democracy that is in reality a failed system on the verge of social and economic collapse In the tradition of Tom Wolfe and Hunter S Thompson Stephen Marshall a Sundance Award winning director and co founder of Guerrilla News Network hits the road and travels from the front lines of the Iraq war through the wasteland of the former Communist Eastern bloc into a coke dusted sex party of Britain's intellectual elite and into the minds of America's most influential liberal figures Marshall finds America's most powerful liberals all part of the same baby boomer generation that has dominated US political life since their voices broke in the 1960s pushing a new form of liberal interventionism that threatens to use force to bring political freedom to oppressed people But is the democracy they are exporting to the world really what they say it is Or have liberals buckled under the pressure of America's declining fortunes and taken on the role of good cop to the conservatives bad Featuring interviews with Christopher Hitchens Gore Vidal David Horowitz Lewis Lapham John Avlon The Economist's John Micklethwait Guardian Editor in Chief Alan Rusbridger and best selling authors Thomas Friedman Paul Berman and John Perkins Nineteenth Century and After, 1894

Empire's New Clothes Paul Street, 2015-12-03 As Obama nears the middle of his first term as president Paul Street assesses his performance against the expectations of his supporters While mainstream journalists have noted discrepancies between Obama's original vision and reality Paul Street uniquely measures Obama's record against the expectations of the truly progressive agenda many of his supporters expected him to follow Taken together the list of Obama's weakened policies is startling his business friendly measures with the economy the lack of support for the growing mass of unemployed and poor the dilution of his health reform agenda the passage of a record setting Pentagon budget and escalation of US military violence in Afghanistan Pakistan Yemen and Somalia Street's account reveals these and many other indications of how deeply beholden Obama is to existing dominant domestic and global hierarchies and doctrines
