Sothebys Inside Story:

Sotheby's Peter Watson, Rosie Watson, 1998 Peter Watson tells the story of his five year investigation into Sotheby's and his discovery of practices that include the facilitation of smuggling the sale of antiquities known to have been stolen from tombs and the rigging of the Art Index Market Sotheby's Peter Watson, 1997-01-01 Ritchie's: The Inside Story David F. Ritchie, 2016-02-24 This insider's guide tells how David F Ritchie founded and developed Ritchie's achieving national and international recognition for skill reliability and service as auctioneers and appraisers Ritchie reminisces about the firm's struggles and successes and about prominent Canadians whose collections his firm sold In this business one never graduates

Investigative Reporting David Spark, 2012-11-12 This important book defines what investigative reporting is and what qualities it requires Drawing on the experience of many well known journalists in the field the author identifies the skills common factors and special circumstances involved in a wide variety of investigations It examines how opportunities for investigations can be found and pursued how informants can be persuaded to yield needed information and how and where this information can be checked It also stresses the dangers and legal constraints that have to be contended with and shows real life examples such as the Cook Report formula the Jonathan Aitken investigation and the Birmingham Six story David Spark himself a freelance writer of wide experience examines how opportunities for investigations can be found and pursued how informants can be persuaded to yield needed information and how and where this information can be checked He also stresses the dangers and legal constraints that have to be contended with and shows investigators at work in two classic inquiries The mysterious weekend spent in Paris by Jonathan Aitken then Minister of Defence Procurement The career of masterspy Kim Philby Investigative Reporting looks at such fields for inquiry as company frauds including those of Robert Maxwell consumer complaints crime police malpractice the intelligence services local government and corruption in Parliament and in overseas and international bodies The author believes that the conclusions that emerge from this far reaching survey are of value not only in investigative journalism but to practitioners in all branches of reporting The Art of the Steal Christopher Mason, 2005-05-03 The Art of the Steal tells the story of several larger than life figures the billionaire tycoon Alfred Taubman the most powerful woman in the art world Dede Brooks and the wily British executive Christopher Davidge who conspired to cheat their clients out of millions of dollars It offers an unprecedented look inside this secretive glamorous gold plated industry describing just how Sotheby's and Christie's grew from clubby aristocratic businesses into slick international corporations And it shows how the groundwork for the most recent illegal activities was laid decades before the perpetrators were caught by federal prosecutors Artwashing the Past David W.J. Gill, 2024-10-01 Artwashing the Past Context Matters contributes to the wider discussion about the appropriate due diligence process that should be conducted prior to the acquisition of cultural objects The chapters were written as museums in Europe and North America were facing a series of claims on recently acquired objects in their collections in the light of the photographic dossiers that had been seized from dealers in Switzerland and Greece They engage with some of the recent debates over cultural property that include the Ka Ka Nefer mummy mask currently in the St Louis Art Museum and the Leutwitz Apollo acquired by the Cleveland Museum of Art Two of the essays reflect on the recent and controversial metal detecting finds in England the so called Crosby Garrett helmet and the Lenborough Hoard The Dynamics of Auction Christian Heath,2013 Addresses how social interaction forms the foundation to sale of art and antiques worth many billions of pounds each year The Modern Neighbors of Tutankhamun Kees Van der Spek,2011 Examines the lives of people of al Qurna prior to the demolition of their village in order to promote tourism in the area of Thebes and Luxor The Faustian Bargain Jonathan Petropoulos,2000 This book follows the careers of five prominent individuals who chose to pursue artistic ends through collaboration with Nazi Germany and put their talents to work for Hitler 50 halftones Sharing Archaeology Peter Stone,Zhao Hui,2014-08-13 As a discipline Archaeology has developed rapidly over the last half century The increase in so called public archaeology with its wide range of television programming community projects newspaper articles and enhanced site based interpretation has taken archaeology from a closed academic discipline of interest to a tiny minority to a topic of increasing interest to the general public This book explores how archaeologists share information with specialists from other disciplines working within archaeology other archaeologists and a range of non specialist groups It emphasises that to adequately address contemporary levels of interest in their subject archaeologists must work alongside and trust experts with an array of different skills and specializations Drawing on case studies from eleven countries Sharing Archaeology explores a wide range of issues raised as the result of archaeologists communication both within and outside the discipline Examining best practice with wider implications and uses beyond the specified case studies the chapters in this book raise questions as well as answers provoking a critical evaluation of how best to interact with varied audiences and enhance sharing of archaeology
