The Hearth Eagle:

The Hearth and Eagle Anya Seton, 1948 The Hearth & Eagle Anya Seton, 1948 The Hearth and Eagle Anya Seton, 2012-04-26 A saga set in the coastal town of Marblehead Massachusetts by the New York Times bestselling author of Katherine and other acclaimed historical novels Inspired by research into her own family history novelist Anya Seton created this compelling tale of New England set in a sea girdled town of rocks and winding lanes and clustered old houses It is not only the story of Marblehead dating back to its earliest settlement and of a family who stayed there in the Hearth and Eagle Inn it is also the story of Hesper Honeywood a passionate young woman whose long and dramatic life full of triumph and tragedy was interwoven with the history of both Miss Seton handles her clan cleverly In all this the house itself stands as an eloquent reminder of Yankee staunchness Saturday Review of Literature Skillfully weaves the events of the time an excellent read The Historical Novels Review The Black Eagle George Payne Rainsford James, 2018-09-20 Reproduction of the original The Black Eagle by George Payne Rainsford James The Black Eagle: Ticonderoga George Payne Rainsford James, 2020-09-28 Among the minor trials of faith few perhaps are more difficult to contend against than that growing conviction which commencing very soon after the holiday happiness of youth has been first tasted becomes stronger every year as experience unfolds to us the great dark secrets of the world in which we are placed the conviction of the general worthlessness of our fellow men A few splendid exceptions a few bright and glorious spirits a few noble and generous hearts are not sufficient to cheer and to brighten the bleak prospect of the world s unworthiness and we can only reconcile to our minds the fact that this vast multitude of base depraved tricky insincere ungrateful beings are the pride of God s works the express images of his person by a recurrence to the great fundamental doctrine of man s fallen state and utter debasement from his original high condition and by a painful submission to the gloomy and fearful announcement that strait is the gate and narrow is the way and few there he that find it If man s general unworthiness be a trial of our faith and of our patience the most poignant anguish of the torture is perhaps the keen conviction of his ingratitude and his injustice not alone the ingratitude and injustice of individuals but those of every great body of every group of so called friends of governments of countries of people Vainly do we follow the course of honour and uprightness vainly do we strive to benefit to elevate to ennoble our fellow men vainly do we labour to serve our party or our cause or our country Neither honour nor distinction nor reward follows our best efforts even when successful unless we possess the mean and contemptible adjuncts of personal interest pushing impudence crooked policy vile subserviency or the smile of fortune Here am I who for many arduous years laboured with zeal such as few have felt at sacrifices such as few have made and with industry such as few have exerted to benefit my kind and my country That I did so and with success was admitted by all even while others starting in the career of life at the same time with myself turned their course in the most opposite direction pandered to vice to folly and even to crime and trod a flowery and an easy way with few of the difficulties and impediments that beset my path And what has been the result Even success has brought to me neither reward nor honour nor gratitude On those who have neither so laboured nor so striven whose objects have been less worthy whose efforts have been less great recompenses and distinctions have fallen thick and fast a government s patronage a sovereign s favour a people s applause And I am an exile on a distant shore unthought of unrecompensed unremembered The Dove in the Eagle's Nest Charlotte M.
