emerged alive Now after decades of silence here is Israel s unwritten diary Nine people lived behind that false wall above the Dagnan factory in Tarnow Their stove was the chimney that went up through the attic their windows were cracks in the wall Survival depended on the food the adults leaving the hideout at night were able to forage Even at the end of the war however Jewish people emerging from hiding were still not safe After the infamous postwar Kielce pogrom Israel s parents sent him and his brother as orphans to France in a program called Rescue Children a Europe wide attempt to find Jewish children orphaned by the Holocaust When the family was finally reunited they lived a precarious existence between France as people sans pays and England until the immigration papers for Canada came through in 1951 In Montreal in the world described so well by Mordecai Richler Israel s father a co owner of a factory in Poland was reduced to sweeping factory floors At the local yeshiva Jewish high school Israel discovered chemistry and a few short years later he left poverty behind He had a stellar academic career married and raised a family in Fredericton New Brunswick The Unwritten Diary of Israel Unger is as much a Holocaust story as it is a story of a young immigrant making every possible use of the opportunities Canada had to offer

Genocide and Retribution R.L. Braham,2012-12-06 During the dark years of the Holocaust many of the millions of labor and concentration camp victims were sustained in their struggle for survival by the hope that their tormentors would not escape retribution This expectation was reinforced by the warnings issued by the statesmen of the anti Axis coalition and the declarations of the United States Great Britain and the USSR Shortly after the cessation of hostilities war crimes trials were indeed initiated in all parts of liberated Europe Many of the accused were indicted among other things for crimes committed against Jews People s tribunals for the prosecution of war crimes and crimes against humanity were also established in Romania a country that extricated itself from the Axis Alliance on 23 August 1944 The Romanian people s tribunals were set up and operated under the provisions of Law No 312 issued by the Ministry of Justice on 21 April 1945 One of these tribunals was established in Cluj Kolozsvár and entrusted primarily with the prosecution of those involved in the violation of the rights of people living in Northern Transylvania the part of the province that was transferred to Hungary under the terms of the Second Vienna Award August 1940 and which remained under Hungarian rule from early September 1940 until its liberation by Soviet Romanian forces in the fall of 1944 The crimes committed against the citizens of Northern Transylvania both within and outside the province were the subject of two major trials
