Silverman, Madelyn Kelly, 2009-04-02 When children lose someone they love they lose part of their very identity Life as they knew it will never be quite the same The world that once felt dependable and safe may suddenly seem a frightening uncertain place where nobody understands what they're feeling In this deeply sympathetic book Phyllis R Silverman and Madelyn Kelly offer wise guidance on virtually every aspect of childhood loss from living with someone who's dying to preparing the funeral from explaining death to a two year old to managing the moods of a grieving teenager from dealing with people who don't understand to learning how and where to get help from friends therapists and bereavement groups from developing a new sense of self to continuing a relationship with the person who died Throughout the authors advocate an open honest approach suggesting that our instinctive desire to protect children from the reality of death may be more harmful than helpful Children want you to acknowledge what is happening to help them understand it the authors suggest In this way they learn to trust their own ability to make sense out of what they see Drawing on groundbreaking research into what bereaved children are really experiencing and quoting real conversations with parents and children who have walked that road the book allows readers to see what others have learned from mourning and surviving the death of a loved one In a culture where grief is so often invisible and misunderstood the wisdom derived from such first hand experience is invaluable Filled with compassion and common sense A Parent's Guide to Raising Grieving Children Rebuilding Your Family after the Loss of a Loved One offers readers a wealth of solace and sound advice and even where one might least expect it a measure of hope

are many books and questionable experts on caring for Children and bringing them up The recent programmes on television in many cases amount to child abuse and gross ignorance written by the utterly mindless but perhaps this again reflects on our society today I never knew the answer then as a young man just before leaving the forces But I had an opportunity to ask a spiritualist what my best job would be Filled with ambition I was open to suggestions be it a scientist lawyer doctor etc But the answer I got was as a Father and looking back some thirty plus years on I knew the answer to be right It may seem strange for a man to write on such a subject sadly still in today s society few really appreciate the thoughts of man and especially when it comes to the love and well being of their Children Having been blessed with 5 children and today beginning to read and hear about my expressed views in this book now being covered by the media and press I know the content of this book is invaluable when it comes to common sense love and care Beyond the superficial material nonsense of our society today if we all paused and looked around at all other life forms we would finally appreciate our life s purpose is to love and create life Such views are not romantic whims but a scientific fact in relation to Natural Law and Quantum Mechanics The biggest and most important job in our lives is being a parent It is rewarding and after time such an experience begins to put all other things and events into perspective I leave you with this Quote As Parents the best we can ever do is to always love our Children For regardless of our views they will always go their own way Alastair R Agutter I hope this book can be a unique and valuable reference resource and companion for you and found within the following key chapters INSIDE THIS BOOK Chapter One Preparing To Start Your Family Chapter Two A New Baby Arrives and How to Care as a Parent Chapter Three Those Great Fun Moments Begin Little Toddlers Chapter Four Starting Out in Life Infant School for Your Little One Chapter Five Building a Strong Relationship and Junior School Chapter Six Senior School and My Child Has Become an Alien Chapter Seven Further Education and Adulthood of Your Children Chapter Eight Being There As Parents in Their Relationships Parenting never ends it only begins
