Songs Of The Irish:

Ancient Irish Music Patrick Weston Joyce,1873 Songs of Irish Rebellion Georges Denis Zimmermann,2002 This classic collection is a discussion of songs that gave utterance to the opinions and feelings of an important part of the Irish people in political social and religious feelings First published in 1966 this is a new edition with corrections and additional notes The songs which were within the reach of all strands of society were not only an expression of the singers and listeners feelings or opinions but also a form of propaganda And when printers invested in them with the production of broadsheets and booklets they became an industry Thus as the author states in his introduction they are a curious melting pot for different kinds of literature or sub literature Singing in Irish Gaelic Mary McLaughlin,2002-03-01 Gaelic songs are beautiful to listen to and to sing but until now it has been extremely difficult for anyone without knowledge of the Irish language Gaelic to sing the songs of that tradition A must for anyone who has always longed to sing the old songs of Ireland this book and CD decodes the Irish language for those who aspire to sing these songs without them having to undertake an Irish language course The fourteen songs are presented in an accessible fashion On the CD the author speaks each phrase slowly leaving a pause for the student to imitate the pronunciation The author then sings each song in a simple plain style conducive to learning The book has the sheet music guitar chords phonetics Irish lyrics and a translation and background to each song There is an introduction which gives information on traditional singing in Irish as well as a guide to the phonetic system used The songs are graded linguistically and musically so that the student can build up skills as she or he progresses through the book Ancient Irish music, comprising one hundred Irish airs hitherto unpublished, many of the old popular songs, and several new songs. Collected and edited by P. W. Joyce. The harmonies by Glover Patrick Weston Joyce,1912
