Real Sadhus Sing to God Antoinette Elizabeth DeNapoli, 2014-04-01 Drawing on ethnographic research spanning ten years Antoinette Elizabeth DeNapoli offers a new perspective on the practice of asceticism in India today Her work brings to light the little known and often marginalized lives of female Hindu ascetics sadhus in the North Indian state of Rajasthan Examining the everyday religious worlds and practices of the mostly unlettered female sadhus who come from a number of castes Real Sadhus Sing to God illustrates that these women experience asceticism in relational and celebratory ways They construct their lives as paths of singing to God which the author suggests serves as the female way of being an ascetic Examining the relationship between asceticism sannyas and devotion bhakti in contemporary contexts the book brings together two disparate fields of study yoga asceticism and bhakti using the singing of bhajans devotional songs as an orienting metaphor This is the first book length study to explore the ways in which female sadhus perform and thus create gendered views of asceticism through their singing storytelling and sacred text practices which DeNapoli characterizes as their rhetoric of renunciation

Cosmo-Modernism and Theater in India Aparna Bhargava Dharwadker, 2025-08-05 Urban theater took shape in postindependence India as a large and complex field produced in more than sixteen major languages including Bengali Marathi Hindi Gujarati and Kannada The cosmopolitan engagement of leading playwrights with modernist and postcolonial literary movements around the world created distinctly new aesthetic and political approaches to Indian myth history and sociocultural experience which had become the most prominent subjects in modern Indian drama Yet even as critics and scholars of global modernism have increasingly turned their attention beyond North America and Europe they continue to focus on dominant world languages at the expense of multilingual cultures such as India's Despite their originality and significance modernist works written in Indian languages other than English remain neglected In Cosmo Modernism and Theater in India Aparna Bhargava Dharwadker develops a new framework for understanding non Anglophone Indian modernisms by recovering crucial theoretical concepts and using them to analyze the writing staging and reception of major plays in multiple languages She argues that the output of prominent mid to late twentieth century playwrights such as Dharamvir Bharati Mohan Rakesh Badal Sircar Vijay Tendulkar Girish Karnad and Habib Tanvir registers a decisive rupture from nineteenth century forms of colonial modernity In representing the ancient Indian past the postcolonial urban present and the rich repertoire of precolonial performance traditions these authors' works became highly inventive expressions of modernist classicism realism and traditionalism Dharwadker shows how a decommercialized performance economy and the incessant activity of translation further enhanced modernist production and she connects Indian modernisms to regional national and transnational networks Offering bold new insights into the theory and practice of modernist drama this book delivers a radical remapping of global modernisms De-Colonization, Heritage, and Advocacy Svanibor Pettan, Jeff Tilton, 2019-02-20 The nine ethnomusicologists who contributed to this volume present a diverse range of views approaches and methodologies that address indigenous peoples immigrants and marginalized communities Discussing participatory action research social justice empowerment and critical race theory in relation to ethnomusicology De Colonization Heritage and Advocacy is the second of three paperback volumes derived from the original Oxford Handbook of Applied Ethnomusicology The Handbook can be understood as an applied ethnomusicology project as a medium of getting to know the thoughts and experiences of global ethnomusicologists of enriching general knowledge and understanding about ethnomusicologies and applied ethnomusicologies in various parts of the world and of inspiring readers to put the accumulated knowledge understanding and skills into good use for the betterment of our world The Goddess as Role Model Heidi R.M. Pauwels, 2008-10-09 This book seeks to understand the major mythological role models that mark the moral landscape navigated by young Hindu women Traditionally the goddess Sita faithful consort of the god Rama is regarded as the most important positive role model for women The case of Radha who is mostly portrayed as a clandestine lover of the god Krishna seems to challenge some of the norms the example of Sita has set That these role models are just as relevant today as they have been in the past is witnessed by the popularity of the televised versions of their stories and the many allusions to them in popular culture Taking the case of Sita as main point of reference but comparing throughout with Radha Pauwels studies the messages sent to Hindu women at different points in time She compares how these role models are portrayed in the most authoritative versions of the story She traces the ancient Sanskrit sources the medieval vernacular retellings of the stories and the contemporary TV versions as well This comparative analysis identifies some surprising conclusions about the messages sent to Indian women today which belie the expectations one might have of the portrayals in the latest more liberal versions The newer messages turn out to be more conservative in many subtle ways Significantly it does not remain limited to the religious domain By analyzing several popular recent and classical hit movies that use Sita and Radha tropes Pauwels shows how these moral messages spill into the domain of popular culture for commercial consumption The Everyday Justin Derry, Martin Parrot, 2014-10-17 The Everyday Experiences Concepts and Narratives is an interdisciplinary book problematizing the slippery notion of Everyday Life Contributing to a tradition of 20th century scholarly work focusing on Everyday Life this book specifically attends to the multiple ways that the quotidian aspects of our day to day existence become knotted into situated narratives and concepts In their depth and breadth the chapters compiled here all work with an understanding of everyday life that is i Maithil Women's Tales Coralynn V. Davis, 2014-06-30 Constrained by traditions restricting their movements and speech the Maithil women of Nepal and India have long explored individual and collective life experiences by sharing stories with one another Sometimes fantastical sometimes including a kind of magical realism

these tales allow women to build community through a deeply personal and always evolving storytelling form In Maithil Women s Tales Coralynn V Davis examines how these storytellers weave together their own life experiences the hardships and the pleasures with age old themes In so doing Davis demonstrates they harness folk traditions to grapple personally as well as collectively with social values behavioral mores relationships and cosmological questions Each chapter includes stories and excerpts that reveal Maithil women s gift for rich language layered plots and stunning allegory In addition Davis provides ethnographic and personal information that reveal the complexity of women s own lives and includes works painted by Maithil storytellers to illustrate their tales The result is a fascinating study of being and becoming that will resonate for readers in women s and Hindu studies folklore and anthropology
