many are simply set aside and disappear completely from the short term political agenda Why Because they are too difficult to solve From immigration to welfare reform from climate change to media regulation the biggest issues consistently fall foul of the adversarial short termism that afflicts our political culture Too often these seemingly intractable problems find their way into the too difficult box a burial ground for all the unpopular subjects that governments and their civil servants aren't prepared to confront directly The failure to address these fundamental issues however inevitably fosters cynicism about democracy itself Former Home Secretary Charles Clarke argues that although change is difficult it is sorely needed and in some cases time is not on our side In THE TOO DIFFICULT BOX he brings together a cast of heavy hitters from the worlds of politics academia and public service including Anthony Giddens Hayden Phillips John Hutton Shirley Williams Richard Dannatt Margaret Hodge Adam Boulton Trevor Phillips Patricia Hewitt and David Blunkett to write expansively and persuasively on some of society's most insidious problems too often kicked into the long grass because of their apparent insolubility Alligator Chain and Lake Gentry Extreme Drawdown and Habitat Enhancement Project, Osceola County, 1999
