Sorcerers And Healing Spirits Continuity And Change Continuity In An Aboriginal Medical System:

Sorcerers and Healing Spirits Janice Reid, 1983 Published version of doctoral thesis Sorcery and healing 1978 q v for annotations field work at Yirrkala Indigenous Peoples And Religious Change Peggy Brock, 2005 Ten historians and anthropologists analyse religious change as it was experienced by Indigenous Peoples in and around the Pacific and southern Africa in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Mortality, Mourning and Mortuary Practices in Indigenous Australia Myrna Tonkinson, Victoria Burbank, 2017-03-02 Drawing on ethnography of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities across Australia Mortality Mourning and Mortuary Practices in Indigenous Australia focuses on the current ways in which indigenous people confront and manage various aspects of death The contributors employ their contemporary and long term anthropological fieldwork with indigenous Australians to construct rich accounts of indigenous practices and beliefs and to engage with questions relating to the frequent experience of death within the context of unprecedented change and premature mortality The volume makes use of extensive empirical material to address questions of inequality with specific reference to mortality thus contributing to the anthropology of indigenous Australia whilst attending to its theoretical methodological and political concerns As such it will appeal not only to anthropologists but also to those interested in social inequality the social and psychosocial consequences of death and the conceptualization and manipulation of the relationships between the living and the dead Indigeneous Australians & The Law Martin Hinton, 2012-10-02 This book concentrates on areas of the law which are currently of great importance to the indigenous Australians The subjects covered include the legacy of colonialism de racialisation empowerment sentencing and the criminal justice system native title public health law reconciliation and the constitution self determination common law and customary law and human rights The aim of this book is to familiarise law students with the culture of the indigenous people of Australia and to stimulate an appreciation of the impact of the law in its various forms upon the indigenous people the obstacles to their full participation in the community and the rocky road to reconciliation It is hoped that this book will in some small way contribute to reconciliation by placing students in particular in a position of greater understanding The Medical Revolution of the Seventeenth Century Roger Kenneth French, Andrew Wear, 1989-09-28 This consideration of the underlying forces which helped to produce a revolution in 17th century medicine sets out to show how in the period between 1630 and 1730 medicine came to represent something more than a marginal activity and was influenced by the current developments of the day Aboriginal Health and History Ernest Hunter, 1993-06-14 The Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody 1987 1991 focused attention on the behavioural dimension of Aboriginal health and the lack of appropriate services This book is a systematic analysis of the sociohistorical and intercultural aspects of mental health in one area of remote Australia the Kimberley The author shows how the effects of social disruption cultural dislocation and loss of power suffered by Aboriginal people have manifested themselves in certain behavioural patterns The book analyses rising mortality rates from suicide accidents and homicide amongst Kimberley Aboriginal communities and studies the economic impact of alcohol on these communities It also considers the role of alcohol in producing violent behaviour and affecting the general level of health

A World of Relationships Sylvie Poirier, 2005-01-01 Drawing on her three years of field work in the Balgo Hills during the 1980s and on recent ethnographic literature Poirier anthropology U Laval Quebec explains dialectical aspects of Australian Aboriginal social and cosmological realities She focuses on the relations among the ancestral order the land and human and non human agencies Ann

Aboriginal Peoples and Birds in Australia Philip A. Clarke, 2023-04-03 Australia is home to many distinctive species of birds and Aboriginal peoples have developed close alliances with them over the millennia of their custodianship of this country Aboriginal Peoples and Birds in Australia Historical and Cultural Relationships provides a review of the broad physical historical and cultural relationships that Aboriginal people have had with the Australian avifauna This book aims to raise awareness of the alternative bodies of ornithological knowledge that reside outside of Western science It describes the role of birds as totemic ancestors and spirit beings and explores Aboriginal bird nomenclature foraging techniques and the use of avian materials to make food medicine and artefacts Through a historical perspective this book examines the gaps between knowledge systems of Indigenous peoples and Western science to encourage greater collaboration and acknowledgment in the future Cultural sensitivity Readers are warned that there may be words descriptions and terms used in this book that are culturally sensitive and which might not normally be used in certain public or community contexts While this information may not reflect current understanding it is provided by the author in a historical context This publication may also contain quotations terms and annotations that reflect the historical attitude of the original author or that of the period in which the item was written and may be considered inappropriate today Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are advised that this publication may contain the names and images of people who have passed away
