Christ, Creation, and the Vision of God Kari Kloos, 2010-11-11 Why did early Christian authors interpret the biblical theophany narratives as manifestations of Christ And how was this interpretation challenged by Augustine This book explores the theological underpinnings of ancient Christian theophany interpretation tracing its development into two major exegetical strands Patristic exegesis of the theophanies involved polemic and the formation of Christian identity the relationship between vision and spiritual transformation and theological claims about knowing God through creation While the christological interpretation developed within particular early Christian beliefs and logic Augustine challenged it using similar logic and foundational beliefs Through Augustine s reconfigured reading one may see the critical and creative capacity of patristic authors to adapt challenge and transform exegetical traditions Tattuva-kattalei,
