Physiology and Healing Rudolf Steiner, 2013-12-10 The intention is to take a practical subject and show how our spiritual science with anthroposophical orientation truly can play an effective role in everyday life Rudolf Steiner Following his first major lecture course for medical practitioners Rudolf Steiner sought to elaborate and deepen his extension of the art of healing from a spiritual scientific perspective In this collection of addresses discussions question and answer sessions and lectures running parallel to his major medical cycles Steiner comments on contemporary medicine's emphasis on experimental materially based research and its subsequent lack of attention to therapy Steiner's intention is not to detract from developments in medical science but to build on them with spiritual science not quackery but a true art of medicine The medical practitioner has an important task diseases must be cured and it is wrong not to intervene and simply to allow karma to take its course Speaking to audiences ranging from members of the general public to small groups of medical professionals Steiner offers new insights into our understanding of human organs such as the brain kidneys and liver as well as the efficacy of healing substances including arsenic sulphur arnica and essential plant oils He studies a broad range of specific medical conditions giving advice on cancer hysteria rheumatism gout skin eruptions typhoid diabetes haemophilia syphilis gonorrhoea asthma glaucoma leukaemia smallpox insomnia and childhood diseases such as measles His commentaries on a raft of contrasting subjects such as psychiatry sexual maturity memory poisoning and detoxification present challenging perspectives for patients and medical practitioners Steiner's surprisingly non dogmatic advice on vaccination for example gives a refreshingly balanced and perhaps unexpected point of view This volume also includes a lecture on eurythmy therapy a comprehensive introduction index and notes and nine full colour plates of Rudolf Steiner's blackboard drawings The Healing Process Rudolf Steiner, 2000 Understanding Healing Rudolf Steiner, 2013-12-10

Rudolf Steiner's third great lecture course to physicians has a completely different character to his previous presentations. Delivered in response to a group of young doctors who approached Steiner with the specific request for a course that would be quite intimate but should not contain anything which appealed only to knowledge and the intellect, it offers unique ground-breaking insights into the practice and art of healing. Steiner speaks about the influence of cosmic and earthly forces, the periphery and centre on the human being. Proper understanding of these processes enables the physician to comprehend the actions of plants and minerals used in anthroposophic medicines and thus to prescribe appropriate and individually specific remedies. Steiner paints a picture of the human being as a complex confluence of the forces of heredity, forces from the cosmos, and an individual's unique spiritual nature. The physician has to understand these relationships in order to be able to help effectively when they are out of balance. Steiner stresses the importance of personal development for physicians and offers plentiful instructions for a meditative practice intrinsic to their work. Among a wealth of other topics, Steiner addresses inflammation and excessive growth, the nature of scarlet fever and measles, the importance of a child's food and breast milk, the functions of the liver, heart, head, and skeleton, the incarnation process, karma as a guide for the physician, morality as a force streaming in from the cosmos, the cosmic trinity of Saturn, Sun, and Moon in the healthy and sick human being, and the involvement of the heart in thinking. Included here are Rudolf Steiner's answers to questions and the first newsletter from the Medical Section with a key meditation for physicians. This volume also features 18 full-colour plates of Rudolf Steiner's blackboard drawings, a comprehensive introduction, index, and notes.

The Healing Process Rudolf Steiner, 2010-10-11

lectures Aug 28 1923 Aug 29 1924 CW 319 The anthroposophical approach to medicine and healing has been waiting in the wings of conventional Western medicine for more than seventy-five years. Now, with the burgeoning acceptance of alternative natural medicine in North America, anthroposophical medicine may finally take its rightful place at center stage. Why? Because it offers something that both alternative and conventional models lack: a spiritual model of the human encompassing states of health and illness. From the foreword: Rudolf Steiner, a scientist by training, lectured and wrote at different times on medical subjects and advised physicians on their work. His view of medicine was both unconventional and precise. He could describe, based on his highly developed powers of observation and his spiritual research, processes of health and disease that escape conventional methods of medical observation. In all his lectures to doctors and in his explanations of anthroposophic medicine, Steiner emphasized that his medical concepts are not intended to replace conventional Western medicine but to extend it: diagnosis and healing methods are expanded to include our soul and spirit. In these broadly ranging talks, Steiner introduces fundamental principles of anthroposophically extended medicine. Some of the most remarkable insights that anthroposophy brings to medicine are contained in this volume. For example, Steiner points out that the heart is not a pump and that its motion is a consequence, not the cause, of rhythmic movements in human beings. Rudolf Steiner's model of a spiritualized medicine could hold the key for the next growth phase in Western medicine if it is to survive flourish and become consistently and deeply therapeutic instead of merely palliative from the foreword Topics include Health problems such as hay fever migraine sclerosis cancer and childhood diseases The polarity between nerve and liver cells The functions of the spleen and the gallbladder The three basic systems sensory nervous rhythmic and metabolic limb Regenerative and degenerative processes The true nature of the nervous system Suggestions for the use of minerals plants and artistic therapies The Healing Process is a translation of Anthroposophische Menschenkenntnis und Medizin GA 319 What Can the Art of Healing Learn Through Spiritual Science? Rudolf Steiner, 2005 Fundamentals of Therapy Rudolf Steiner, Ita Wegman, 1983 Anthroposophical Medicine Victor Bott, 1978 Introducing Anthroposophical Medicine Rudolf Steiner, 2010 In these twenty lectures given to medical doctors and students Rudolf Steiner presents a new approach to the art of healing based on the insights of anthroposophical spiritual science Taking account of modern medical knowledge and practice and deeply versed in alchemical Paracelsian and naturopathic approaches as well as in homeopathy aromatherapy and of her alternative therapies Steiner demonstrates on the basis of his own researches how a truly integrated whole person medicine is possible one that understands the human as a being of body soul and spirit a microcosm in the macrocosm a mirror of the earth and of the heavens Many of the lectures arose directly in response to the questions of practicing physicians Specific organs and specific diseases are brought into new relations and connections The whole question of diagnosis health and treatment is viewed from different perspectives The result is a new vision of medicine one that is practical spiritual psychological and fully human Extending Practical Medicine Rudolf Steiner, Ita Wegman, 2013-04-16 In this classic introductory work on spiritual medicine Rudolf Steiner worked in unique literary collaboration with the physician Ita Wegman Their aim was to revitalise the art of healing through spiritual knowledge yet in so doing they did not underrate or dismiss modern scientific medicine but illumined it beyond its present materialistic outlook to a fuller realisation of the human condition As Ita Wegman wrote in her preface The aim was not to underestimate scientific medicine in an amateurish way it was given full recognition But it was important to add to existing knowledge the insights that can come from true perception of the spirit enabling us to understand the processes of illness and healing Today this new extension of practical medicine known as anthroposophical medicine is used and valued by many physicians and in many clinics around the world Dr ITA WEGMAN was born in the Dutch West Indies in 1876 and trained in gymnastics and massage and later medicine After founding the Institute of Clinical Medicine in Arlesheim she was made leader of the Medical Section of the Anthroposophical Society in 1923 Her last years were devoted to her work in the clinic where she died in 1943 The Earthwise Herbal, Volume II Matthew Wood, 2009-04-28 In this companion volume to The Earthwise Herbal A Complete Guide to Old World Medicinal Plants Matthew Wood an expert herbalist who has used medicinal herbs with tens of thousands of patients over a twenty five year career provides detailed descriptions of New World North American herbs and their uses
