Strategic Survey 1993-1994 International Institute for Strategic Studies, 1994 Provides the Institute's annual analytical review and assessment of security related events around the world

Strategic Survey International Institute for Strategic Studies, 1994

Intelligence Analysis and Assessment David Charters, Stuart Farson, Glenn P. Hastedt, 2013-11-05 These essays cover assessment systems now in place in Britain the USA Germany and Australia the bureaucratic dynamics of analysis and assessment the changing ground in intelligence and the impact of new technologies and modes of communication on intelligence gathering and analysis

The West's Road to 9/11 D. Carlton, 2005-09-08 The West's Road to 9/11 offers a detailed explanation of the handling of the challenge of terrorism by the USA the UK and the West over the last thirty years David Carlton contends that anti terrorist rhetoric by the Governments of the West frequently masked indifference to the activities of many practitioners of non state violence and that in the case of the United States it did not hesitate even to sponsor those terrorist movements if deemed supportive of its wider geopolitical objectives

Common Security and Strategic Reform Andrew Butfoy, 2016-07-27 This is the first study of the strategic dimensions of common security which is set in a post Cold War context The book explores both common security and more recent additions to the debate such as the related idea of cooperative security Separate chapters deal with conceptual issues and pivotal aspects of the contemporary security agenda the amelioration of the security dilemma cooperative defence planning arms control and peace enforcement The book will interest anyone concerned with the reshaping of the international landscape

Monitoring Surveys of the New Haven Capping Project, 1993-1994 John T. Morris, 1996

The Reluctant Superpower W. Bert, 1997-07-07 This book examines the nature of the war in the former Yugoslavia US interests there and US perceptions of the conflict The policies of the Bush and Clinton administrations toward the war and the factors discouraging US intervention are examined and evaluated in the context of a post Cold War international system Finally the lessons for future decisions on international intervention in a post Cold War where old policy guidelines are obsolete are discussed and critiqued

The Politics of Positive Incentives in Arms Control Thomas Bernauer, Dieter Ruloff, 1999 They define positive incentives as transfers of positively valued resources such as money technology or know how from one actor to another with the aim of driving the behavior of the recipient in a direction that is desirable from the viewpoint of the provider

The Muslim-Croat Civil War in Central Bosnia Charles R. Shrader, 2003-06-12 In The Muslim Croat Civil War in Central Bosnia 1992 1994 Charles R Shrader offers the first full scale military history of a crucial conflict in Bosnia between two former allies When the Bosnian Serbs and their Serbian allies attacked Bosnia Herzegovina in March 1992 the Bosnian Croats and Muslims collaborated to defend themselves As Serbian pressure increased and it became clear that the West would not intervene the two allies began to stake out their own claims Drawing on testimony and exhibits from cases presented before the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia Shrader describes the organization and tactical doctrine of the Croatian Defense Forces and the Muslim led Army of Bosnia Herzegovina He analyzes the strengths and weaknesses of the two sides in such fields as communications training and logistics He assesses not only the problems of command and control in the newly formed armies but also the impact of criminal activity the mujahedeen and the intervention of peacekeeping forces What looked to many like aggression by the Bosnian Croats Shrader views as the adoption of an active defense a doctrine embraced by U S forces against a predatory Muslim force He believes UN and European observers rushed to judgment regarding the aggressive intent of the Croatian command Far from being the attackers Shrader concludes the Bosnian Croats in Central Bosnia were clearly outnumbered outgunned and on the defensive Surrounded by superior Muslim forces they barely held out in their enclaves in the Lasva Valley until a cease fire was achieved in February 1994 Although Shrader s work is a detailed meticulous analysis by a neutral expert not everyone will find his conclusions comfortable But every serious student of the conflict in Bosnia will have to take his history into account Enhanced by maps useful appendices and a glossary this should become the standard work on military operations in Central Bosnia and a useful case study of internal warfare and ethnic conflict      Dangerous Flashpoints in East Asia: The Military Build-up Saghir Iqbal,2018-01-16 Major changes in East Asia have placed the region near the top of the World s strategic agenda East Asia has until recently experienced the fastest regional economic growth rate in the world for many years Economic co operation has been flourishing and economic interests have become the major reason in reshaping East Asian international relations However there have also been changes in the security environment due to many factors such as the reduction of US forces in East Asia the disintegration of the Soviet Union the decline of the Soviet Union s presence in the region had led to renewed attention to traditional and potential rivalries among the major East Asian powers and the concern of China s hegemonistic ambitions      Verification 1996 J. B. Poole,2019-09-18 This sixth issue of Verification on the aspects of international arms control and disarmament agreements documents the developments in the field during 1995 It discusses the anniversaries of the Second World War the atomic bombing on Hiroshima and Nagasaki and the United Nations

Toward Responsibility in the New World Disorder John T. Fishel,Max G. Manwaring,2013-10-11 This volume commends itself to the reader to provoke thought about what governments and international organizations ought to do when faced with the responsibilities of a given peace operation Equally important it suggests what we as citizens in the world community ought to demand of our governments and that community in the current world disorder The intent is to help decision makers policy makers opinion makers and students understand the nature of the problem that is likely to provide the greatest challenge to international security management into the next century      The New Security Agenda in the Asia-Pacific Region Denny Roy,2016-07-27 The field of security studies is undergoing a major re evaluation in the post Cold War era and this has important implications for the region The security dangers of the 1990s and beyond are different and more complex than those of the Cold War and strategic thinkers both in the academic and policy making spheres must begin to understand the new environment lest they fall into the old trap of planning for the next conflict based on the conditions of the last conflict This book is designed to survey the new environment assessing what has changed and what remains the same and suggesting what types of demands future strategists will face

Peacemaking and Peacekeeping for the New Century Michael W. Doyle, Olara A. Otunnu, Nelson Mandela, 2000-01-01 The UN's record in peace operations is long various distinguished by both accomplishments and failures and most importantly innovative Unfulfilled expectations and escalating violence in Somalia Rwanda and Bosnia forced retrenchment upon UN peace operations but at the same time a new opportunity to enhance capacities review strategies redefine roles and reaffirm responsibilities has opened up Here a dynamic group of leading diplomats academics and journalists combines forces with UN policymakers and leaders including current Secretary General Kofi Annan and former Secretary General Boutros Boutros Ghali to explore how the international community can improve its practice in negotiating and implementing peace They look at what works and what doesn't in UN peacemaking and peacekeeping and then map out alternative futures for UN action in the 21st century

The Rebirth of Europe Elizabeth Pond, 2000-08-01 This revised and updated paperback edition covers the introduction of the euro the fall of Milosevic and the impact of September 11 in European integration The rejuvenation of Europe as a totalitarian century ends and a global century begins is a remarkable story This book brings together the three dynamics of Europe's position at this extraordinary moment European monetary union the deepening of intra EU cooperation and the widening of the EU and NATO to take in central European members It looks at the broad political and policy implications of EMU and shows how the United States views this integration Elizabeth Pond a longtime observer of events in Europe and Russia sees these developments as the beginning of a new postnational European system that is replacing the centuries old nation state system She shows how belligerence and anarchy have faded away on the European continent as compulsory cold war cooperation becomes a habit and as French German reconciliation becomes the pattern for reconciliation between other old enemies She follows NATO's transformation into a reluctant peacemaker in Bosnia and the United States decision to remain a European power She describes the leap of faith needed to create European monetary union and charts the magnetic attraction of both NATO and the EU in shaping the democratic economic and social revolutions in central Europe She warns about the strains that will face the transatlantic relationship when the euro is on a par with the dollar as a reserve currency And she concludes by agreeing with former Polish foreign minister Wladyslaw Barteszewski that we are witnessing after the original birth of European consciousness a millennium ago the rebirth of Europe

Towards A Nuclear-weapon-free World - Proceedings Of The Forty-fifth Pugwash Conference On Science And World Affairs Joseph Rotblat, Michiji Konuma, 1997-07-01 In this volume scientists write on the desirability and feasibility of eliminating nuclear weapons including reflections 50 years after the destruction of Hiroshima and Nagasaki by atomic bombs The following topics are discussed strategies for preventing the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction ways and means to monitor and control the arms trade the need for global governance specific aspects of security in the Asia Pacific region and interactions between the problems of meeting the world s energy demand reducing environmental pollution and promoting sustainable development

The United States and Europe in the Global Arena F. Burwell,I. Daalder,1999-08-26 This book examines cooperation between the United States and Europe on a range of global issues With the Soviet threat no longer a unifying factor the transatlantic partners have sought a new basis for acting together in the post Cold War era The conditions and strategies that determine the success or failure of cooperation in restructuring relations with the East countering the threat of weapons proliferation dealing with so called rogue states and managing the global economy are explored

Parameters ,2000

The Security, Foreign Policy and International Relationship of Kazakhstan After Independence Murat Turarovich Laumulin,2002

The European Community and the Security Dilemma, 1979-92 Holly Wyatt-Walter,2016-07-27 This book shows how the relationship between security and integration in Western Europe depends upon an enduring implicit bargain between the US and its European allies Despite internal and external pressures to develop a European security and defence identity distinct from NATO in the 1980s and 1990s EC member states have consistently rejected supranational integration in the areas of security and defence Despite considerable European dissatisfaction with American leadership of NATO Europe has continued to accept that leadership even after the end of the Cold War and the signing of the Maastricht Treaty
