Rural Governance in the UK Adrienne Attorp, Sean Heron, Ruth McAreevey, 2022-10-18 This book provides a multidisciplinary analysis of rural society in a post Brexit UK by examining the emergence of new environmental and rural policies and the implications of this transition for rural communities Through the Common Agricultural Policy Common Fisheries Policy the Birds and Habitats Directives the Water Framework Directive and a myriad of other legislations and institutions the EU has had a deciding role in how the UK's rural environment is governed Disentangling this policy legacy is a complex process and offers both opportunities and challenges for policy makers institutions organisations and stakeholders across the UK as they strive to create appropriate new governance structures With the Agriculture Bill the 25 Year Environment Plan and the founding of the Office of Environmental Protection the UK government has provided at least a degree of clarity on the future direction of environmental governance but much remains uncertain not least how this is engaged with by different stakeholders While Brexit is the lens through which rural policy and sustainability are interrogated this collection demonstrates the underpinning features of rural policy and society identifying opportunities for addressing deep seated policy weaknesses thereby creating a more sustainable and equitable rural society This book brings together academics established and early career to discuss the impact of Brexit on rural environmental governance and on the wider sustainability of rural society relating to three overall themes rural governance sustainable land use and sustainable rural communities In doing so it considers sectors beyond agriculture paying attention to social relations community infrastructure the environment rural development and broader issues of land use This book will be of interest to students and scholars of rural development rural entrepreneurship rural digital inclusion environmental policy sustainable development land use agrarian studies and environmental geography The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Community Empowerment through Research, Innovation and Open Access Joko Sayono, Ahmad Taufiq, Luechai Sringernyuang, Muhamad Alif Haji Sismat, Zawawi Isma'il, Francis M. Navarro, Agus Purnomo, Idris, 2021-07-20 ICHSS is an international seminar that is held every two years organized by the Research and Community Service Institute of the State University of Malang The meeting aims to discuss the theoretical and practical developments of Social Sciences and Humanities in Indonesia and other countries with a view to build academic networks by gathering academics from various research institutes and universities Community empowerment serves as a trigger to increase community independence and to cope with the challenges resulting from the rapid development of technology. An important aspect of the community empowerment effort is to link the results of innovation research for the benefit of community. The results of research should not only be limited to publications in the academic environment. Open Access to various forms of the existing literature is one of the requirements for innovative research to develop optimally. Therefore, this seminar has also served as a place for field researchers from various geographical areas to socialize, to discuss, and to find solutions to current issues in the field of social sciences and humanities as well as to build cooperation and synergy in creating ideas for mutual collaboration and to create joint research.

Community as Partner

Elizabeth T. Anderson, Judith M. McFarlane, 2010-09-22

This user-friendly text is presented as a handbook for students and practicing nurses who work with communities to promote health. Community as Partner focuses on the essentials of practice with the community. Students will find this text helpful for the many examples of working with the community as partner. For over 20 years and five editions, this textbook has served undergraduate RN to BS and RN to MS students and graduate students alike as a framework for professional nursing practice in the community. Our intention is to keep the text basic and accessible to all who practice in the community. Using this text with distance education and virtual learning with Internet resources will enrich practice in any community. This sixth edition continues the philosophy of the authors by strengthening the theoretical base with new chapters on globalization and rural health. All other chapters have been revised and updated from the fifth edition. We continue with a series of chapters that takes the reader through the entire nursing process by using a real-life community as our example. The urban example is enhanced and expanded throughout the remainder of the book by selected aggregates which serve as exemplars of working with the community as partner as well. Provided by publisher.
