Powell Doctrine and US Foreign Policy Luke Middup, 2016-03-03 The Vietnam War is one of the longest and most controversial in US history This book seeks to explore what lessons the US military took from that conflict as to how and when it was appropriate for the United States to use the enormous military force at its disposal and how these lessons have come to influence and shape US foreign policy in subsequent decades In particular this book will focus on the evolution of the so called Powell Doctrine and the intellectual climate that lead to it The book will do this by examining a series of case studies from the mid 1970s to the present war in Afghanistan Mailing List (Infantry School (U.S.)), 1980 Air Force Magazine, 2014-07 Fortitudine, 1992 Naval Air War: The Rolling Thunder Campaign Norman Polmar, Edward J. HEARINGS BEFORE THE SPECIAL SUBCOMMITTEE ON WAR POWERS OF THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS UNITED STATES SENATE ONE HUNDREDTH CONGRESS SECOND SESSION, 1989 Parameters, 2001 The Marine Corps Gazette, 1979 The Dynamics of Military Revolution, 1300-2050 MacGregor Knox, Williamson Murray, 2001-08-27 The Dynamics of Military Revolution aims to bridge a major gap in the emerging literature on revolutions in military affairs suggesting that there have been two very different phenomena at work over the past centuries military revolutions which are driven by vast social and political changes and revolutions in military affairs which military institutions have directed although usually with great difficulty and ambiguous results By providing both a conceptual framework and a historical context for thinking about revolutionary changes in military affairs the work establishes a baseline for understanding the patterns of change innovation and adaptation that have marked war in the Western World since the thirteenth century beginning with Edward III s revolutionary changes in medieval warfare through the development of modern Western military institutions in seventeenth century France to the cataclysmic changes of the First World War and the German Blitzkrieg victories of 1940 This history provides a guide for thinking about military revolutions in the coming century which are as inevitable as they are difficult to predict Bloody Sixteen Peter Fey, 2018-05 Strategy and reality collide in Peter Fey's gripping history of aircraft carrier USS Oriskany's three deployments to Vietnam with Carrier Air Wing 16 CVW 16. Its tours coincided with the most dangerous phases of Operation Rolling Thunder, the ill-fated bombing campaign against North Vietnam and accounted for a quarter of all the naval aircraft lost during Rolling Thunder, the highest loss rate of any carrier air wing during Vietnam. The Johnson administration's policy of gradually applied force meant that Oriskany arrived on station just as previous restrictions were lifted and bombing raids increased. As a result, CVW 16 pilots paid a heavy price as they ventured into areas previously designated off limits by Washington, DC. Named after one of the bloodiest battles of the Revolutionary War, the Oriskany lived up to its name. After two years of suffering heavy losses, the ship caught fire, a devastating blow given the limited number of carriers deployed. With only three months allotted for repairs, Oriskany deployed a third and final time and ultimately lost more than half of its aircraft and more than a third of its pilots. The valor and battle accomplishments displayed by Oriskany's aviators are legendary, but the story of their service has been lost in the disastrous fray of the war itself. Fey portrays the Oriskany and its heroes in an indelible memorial to the fallen of CVW 16 in hopes that the lessons learned from such strategic disasters are not forgotten in today's sphere of war-bent politics. A Study of Strategic Lessons Learned in Vietnam: The enemy, 1981 The Vietnam War: Vietnamese and American Perspectives Jayne Werner, Luu Doan Huynh, 2015-02-18 This volume derives from an unprecedented seminar held at Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs in November 1990. At the seminar, leading Western diplomatic and military historians and Vietnam scholars met with prominent Vietnamese Communists to reflect on the Vietnam War. The book contains four parts: The Vietnamese Revolution and Political Military strategy; the war from the American side; the war in the South and Cambodia; and retrospective and postwar issues. In addition to Jane Werner and Luu Doan Huynh, the contributors are Mark Bradley, William Duiker, David Elliott, Christine White, George Vickers, James Harrison, George Herring, Ronald Spector, Paul Joseph, Jeffrey Clarke, Ngo Vinh Long, Benedict Kiernan, Marilyn Young, Keith Taylor, and Tran Van Tra. General Tra was Commander of the People's Liberation Armed Forces of South Vietnam from 1963 to 1975. His eye-opening analysis of the Tet Offensive has never before been available in English. Air Force Journal of Logistics, 1990
