Stratford On Avon From The Earliest Time:

Early Modern Histories of Time Kristen Poole, Owen Williams, 2019-09-13 Early Modern Histories of Time examines how a range of chronological modes intrinsic to the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries shaped the thought worlds of those living during this time and explores how these temporally indigenous models can productively influence our own working concepts of historical period This innovative approach thus moves beyond debates about where we should divide linear time and what to call the ensuing segments to reconsider the very concept of period Bringing together an eminent cast of literary scholars and historians the volume develops productive historical models by drawing on the very texts and cultural contexts that are their objects of study What happens to the idea of period when English literature is properly placed within the dynamic currents of pan European literary phenomena How might we think of historical period through the palimpsested nature of buildings through the religious concept of the secular through the demographic model of the life cycle even through the repetitive labor of laundering From theology to material culture to the temporal constructions of Shakespeare and from the politics of space to the poetics of typology the essays in this volume take up diverse complex models of sixteenth and seventeenth century temporality and contemplate their current relevance for our own ideas of history The volume thus embraces the ambiguity inherent in the word contemporary moving between our subjects sense of self emplacement and the historiographical need to address the questions and concerns that affect us today Contributors Douglas Bruster Euan Cameron Heather Dubrow Kate Giles Tim Harris Natasha Korda Julia Reinhard Lupton Kristen Poole Ethan H Shagan James Simpson Nigel Smith Mihoko Suzuki Gordon Teskey Julianne Werlin Owen Williams Steven N Zwicker British Columbia from the Earliest Times to the Present Ethelbert Olaf Stuart Scholefield, 1914 Stratford-upon-Avon From the Earliest Times to the Death of Shakespeare Sir Sidney Lee, Herbert 1857-1910 Railton, Edward Illus Huil, 2023-07-18 This beautifully illustrated volume offers a comprehensive history of Stratford upon Avon from its earliest days as a Saxon settlement to the height of cultural and artistic achievement embodied by William Shakespeare With contributions from leading scholars and historians and featuring dozens of full color illustrations and photographs this book is an essential reference work for anyone interested in the history of English literature and culture This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant
