Stravinskys Lunch:

Stravinsky's Lunch Drusilla Modjeska, 1999 Biography of Grace Cossington Smith and Stella Bowen two women artists born in Australia in the 1890s Compares their very different lives and how their lifestyles affected their work Discusses the people who influenced them and the ways in which their art developed Copiously illustrated including colour plates Includes references and index Author's other publications include Poppy The Orchard and Exiles at Home Australian women writers 1924 1945

Stravinsky's Lunch by Drusilla Modjeska Llewellyn Johns, 2002 A Writing Life Bernadette Brennan, 2017-04-03 This is literary critique and biography at its finest Australian Financial Review Helen Garner is one of Australia's most important and most admired writers She is revered for her fearless honesty in the pursuit of her craft But Garner also courts controversy not least because she refuses to be constrained by the rules of literary form She has never been afraid to write herself into her nonfiction and many of her own experiences help to shape her fiction But who is the I in Helen Garner's work Bernadette Brennan's A Writing Life is the first full length study of Garner's forty years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Brennan has had access to previously unavailable papers in Garner's archive and she provides a lively and rigorous reading of the books journals and correspondence of one of Australia's most beloved women of letters Dr Bernadette Brennan is an academic and researcher in contemporary Australian writing literature and ethics She is the author of a number of publications including a monograph on Brian Castro and two edited collections Just Words Australian Authors Writing for Justice UQP 2008 and Ethical Investigations Essays on Australian Literature and Poetics Vagabond 2008 She lives in Sydney Garner has always been a boundary crosser Refusing the constrictions of literary genre she has sought to write across and craft her own versions of them She readily admits to a me character in all her work That character is a carefully constructed self In her fiction she unsettles her readers assumptions about protagonists by creating Helen characters most blatantly in Little Helen's Sunday Afternoon Habe Dank and The Spare Room In so doing she demonstrates the complexity of a constructed fictional self Billed as the first full length study of Garner's 40 years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Well who wouldn't want to read that Australian Bernadette Brennan's ingenious A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which gets around the subject's resistance to biography by viewing her life through her writing as Garner herself does Susan Wyndham Best Books of 2017 Australian Book Review Brennan's depiction of Garner's fearless approach to the very difficult subjects of The First Stone Joe Cinque's Consolation and This House of Grief is beautifully modulated and a real triumph She has captured and interpreted an important writer and her work beautifully Books Publishing Brennan has produced a literary portrait that more than does its subject justice It is not a biography Garner was quite clear that she didn't want that but because Garner is so often present in her own writing it's inevitable that her life is reflected in the discussion of her works This helps put her works in context and a picture emerges of an amazing writer

Bernadette Brennan has done us all a great favour in delivering this immensely enjoyable book Mark Rubbo Readings. Brennan is an astute and sensitive reader of Garner's work Big Issue. The writing is clear, measured and graceful throughout. The readings of the fiction are astute and straightforward, tracing Garner's development from the allegedly unstructured Monkey Grip which in fact offers a formal equivalent to the push-me-pull-you vagaries of love and junk through the perfection of The Children's Bach and the experiments in voice and style in Postcards from Surfers to the late style bareness and hardness of The Spare Room. Sydney Morning Herald. This book offers an illuminating discussion of Garner's boundary-crossing work. Its own magic lies in bringing elements of memoir and criticism into an absorbing conversation that begins with a rich contextualisation of Garner's work and extends into the literary and ethical questions with which Brennan has long been concerned. Australian Book Review. Absorbing, informative and engaging read. Conversation. Brennan examines both assumptions by tracing Garner's steps to becoming a full-time writer in a style that is both thoughtful and readable. Australian Book Review. Bernadette Brennan brings a calm eye and an easy grace to her descriptions of Garner's life, literature and impact on Australia's cultural and socio-political landscape. She draws a more complex picture of one of our best-known and most skilled writers than we've enjoyed in a full-length volume before. A Bigger, Brighter World. Probably my favourite book so far this year. A marvellous tribute to one of Australia's great writers. Mark Rubbo. The Best Books We've Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings. Bernadette Brennan's first full-length study of Helen Garner's work. A Writing Life has inspired me to pile Garner's books on my bedside table and to look at each of them again with fresh eyes. The Best Books We've Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings. A remarkably shrewd study of Garner's work, knitted with a tender representation of her personal life. Mascara Literary Review. Brennan performs a kind of call for literature: its criticism as well as creation. Sydney Review of Books. You might also include academic Bernadette Brennan's superb literary portrait of Garner. A Writing Life: Helen Garner and Her Work, which combines a close analysis of Garner's work with illuminating insights into her life. Garner gave Brennan unprecedented access to her archives and spent long hours in conversation with her. It shows. Sydney Morning Herald. Can't Put Down. Titles for Summer. A book for those who want to understand Garner's work more. But it is also a book which makes clear the significant contribution Garner has made to Australian literature. And in doing that, it is itself a significant book. Whispering Gums. How Shall We Sing? Aline P'nina Tayar, 2000. This autobiography deals with issues of identity and belonging. Traces the author's roots in the Eastern Mediterranean and describes the Jewish neighbourhoods of Tunis, Tripoli and Makhama where her family lived. Discusses the impact of the rise of Nazism, the creation of the state of Israel and the resurgence of Islamic fundamentalism as well as domestic and cultural details and interactions and the author's reactions to them. Includes a bibliography. Nora Heysen: A Portrait Anne-Louise Willoughby, 2019-04-01. Gwen Harwood Ann-Marie Priest, 2020-11-17 A masterful portrait of a major Australian writer her incandescent poetry and her battles to be heard in a male dominated literary establishment Winner of the 2023 National Biography Award The first biography of Gwen Harwood 1920 1995 one of Australia's most significant and distinctive poets Harwood is renowned for her brilliance but loved for her humour rebellion and mischief A public figure by the end of her life she was always deeply protective of her privacy and even now some twenty six years after her death little is known of the experiences that gave rise to her extraordinary poems This book follows Harwood from her childhood in 1920s Brisbane to her final years in Hobart in the 1990s It traces how a lively sardonic and determined young woman built a career in the conservative 1950s blasting her way into the patriarchal strongholds of Australian poetry Harwood refused to be bound by convention liberating herself to use her word before women's lib existed Yet she also struggled for much of her life to combine marriage and motherhood with her creative ambitions In this sense she is a twentieth century everywoman She is also a unique and powerful presence in Australian literary history a poet who challenged orthodoxies and spoke in a remarkable range of voices This illuminating moving biography reveals a deeply passionate figure both at odds with her time and deeply of it and reclaims and celebrates this important Australian writer Gwen Harwood that excellent poet and critic deserves a sympathetic and lively biography Ann Marie Priest to her credit has just written that book Ann Blainey winner of 2009 National Biography Award Read this meticulous biography with Harwood's poetry in hand and chase down every poem that Priest cites The Sydney Morning Herald Ann Marie Priest has captured completely the sprite like nature of one of Australia's finest poets Through these pages the great poet feels so alive Judges comments National Biography Award

Speculative Biography Donna Lee Brien, Kiera Lindsey, 2021-09-30 While speculation has always been crucial to biography it has often been neglected denied or misunderstood This edited collection brings together a group of international biographers to discuss how and why each uses speculation in their work whether this is to conceptualise a project in its early stages work with scanty or deliberately deceptive sources or address issues associated with shy or stubborn subjects After defining the role of speculation in biography the volume offers a series of work in progress case studies that discuss the challenges biographers encounter and address in their work In addition to defining the speculative spectrum within the biographical endeavour the collection offers a lexicon of new terms to describe different types of biographical speculation and more deeply engage with the dynamic interplay between research subjectivity and that which Natalie Zemon Davis dubbed informed imagination By mapping the field of speculative biography the collection demonstrates that speculation is not only innate to biographical practice but also key to rendering the complex mystery of biographical subjects be they human animal or even metaphysical
