Fetterman, 1998 This edition takes a step into a new frontier the Internet which is one of the most powerful resources available to ethnographers The book now provides insights into the uses of the internet including conducting searches about topics or sites collecting census data conducting interviews by chatting and video conferencing sharing notes and pictures about research sites debating issues with colleagues on listservs and in online journals and downloading useful data collection and analyses software The SAGE Handbook of Interview Research Jaber F. Gubrium, James A. Holstein, Amir B. Marvasti, Karyn D. McKinney, 2012-02-11 The second edition of this landmark volume emphasizes the dynamic interactional and reflexive dimensions of the research interview Contributors highlight the myriad dimensions of complexity that are emerging as researchers increasingly frame the interview as a communicative opportunity as much as a data gathering format The book begins with an overview of the history and conceptual transformations of the interview which is followed by chapters that discuss the main components of interview practice Taken together the contributions to the handbook encourage readers to simultaneously learn the frameworks and technologies of interviewing and reflect on the epistemological foundations of the interview craft The handbook has been updated to address recent developments especially in qualitative interviewing Twenty six chapters are completely new the remaining twelve chapters have been substantially revised to give readers access to the state of the art of interview research Three entirely new sections include Logistics of Interviewing Self and Other in the Interview and Ethics of the Interview Criminology Eamon Carrabine, Pam Cox, Isabel Crowhurst, Anna Di Ronco, Pete Fussey, Anna Sergi, Nigel South, Darren Thiel, Jackie Turton, 2020-03-24 Comprehensive critical and accessible Criminology A Sociological Introduction offers an authoritative overview of the study of criminology from early theoretical perspectives to pressing contemporary issues such as the globalisation of crime crimes against the environment terrorism and cybercrime Authored by an internationally renowned and experienced group of authors in the Department of Sociology at the University of Essex this is a truly international criminology text that delves into areas that other texts may only reference It includes substantive chapters on the following topics Histories of crime Theoretical approaches to crime and the issue of social change Victims and victimisation Crime emotion and social psychology Drugs alcohol health and crime Criminal justice and the sociology of punishment Green criminology Crime and the media Terrorism state crime and human rights The new edition fuses global perspectives in criminology from the contexts of post Brexit Britain and America in the age of Trump and from the Global South It contains new chapters on cybercrime crimes of the powerful organised crime life course approaches to understanding delinquency and desistance and futures of crime control and criminology Each chapter includes a series of critical thinking questions suggestions for further study and a list of useful websites and resources The book also contains a glossary of the criminological terms and concepts used in the book It is the perfect text for students looking for a broad critical and international introduction to criminology and it is essential reading for those looking to expand their criminological imagination The Collection and Interpretation of Data from Hidden Populations, 1990

Netnography Unlimited Robert V. Kozinets, Rossella Gambetti, 2020-12-29 Netnography has become an essential tool for qualitative research in the dynamic complex and conflicted worlds of contemporary technoculture Shaped by academic fields industries national contexts technologies and platforms and languages and cultures for over two decades netnography

has impacted the research practices of scholars around the world In this volume 34 researchers present 19 chapters that examine how they have adapted netnography and what those changes can teach us Positioned for students and researchers in academic and professional fields this book examines how we can better use netnographic research to understand the many ways networked technologies affect every element of contemporary business life and consumer existence Netnography Unlimited provides an unprecedented new look at netnography From COVID 19 to influencer empathy gambling and the Dark Web to public relations and the military AI and more than human netnography to video streaming and auto netnography there has never been a wider or deeper treatment of technocultural netnographic research in one volume Readers will learn what kind of work they can do with netnography and gain an up to date understanding of the most pressing issues and opportunities This book is a must read for those interested in technology research methods and contemporary culture

Research Issues ,1974 The Social Value of Drug Addicts Merrill Singer,J Bryan Page,2016-06-16 In a wide ranging analysis covering popular culture policy and underlying social structures this book shows how drug addicts are socially constructed as useless burdens on society and who benefits from that portrayal American Studies Jack Salzman,1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies An Annotated Bibliography of Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982 Seeking to provide foreign nationals with a comprehensive and authoritative list of sources of information concerning America it focuses on books that have an important cultural framework and does not include those which are primarily theoretical or methodological It is organized in 11 sections anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science technology medicine and sociology Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph length non evaluative annotations Includes author title and subject indexes ISBN 0 521 32555 2 set 150 00 The SAGE Handbook of Applied Social Research Methods Leonard Bickman,Debra J. Rog,2009 This Handbook addresses the methodology of social science research and the appropriate use of different methods Ethical Concerns in Research on Human Trafficking Dina Siegel,Roos de Wildt,2015-12-08 This book presents a vivid description of the solutions that researchers have discovered for ethical dilemmas that pose themselves at studying disadvantaged vulnerable and victimized populations Ethical codes prescribe that the scholar should in all circumstances avoid potential harm that informed consent is necessary and that the limits of confidentiality should always be respected However in the practice of research among women involved in prostitution illegal immigrant workers enslaved children people who sell their organs and all the traffickers thereof the ethical rules cannot always be followed This book shows that there is a surprising variety of arguable possibilities in dealing with ethical dilemmas in the field Authors reflect on concrete experiences from their own fieldwork in a wide variety of settings such as the USA Singapore Kosovo and The Netherlands Some choose to work on the basis of conscientious partiality others negotiate the rules with their informants and still others purposely break the rules in order to disclose and damage the exploiters Researchers may find themselves in a vulnerable position Their experiences as presented in this volume will help field workers university administrators representatives of vulnerable groups philosophers of ethics and most of all students to go into the field well prepared This is a book that every researcher planning to do fieldwork in the difficult field of hidden illicit and victimized people should read in advance Dr Frank Bovenkerk Professor Emeritus Willem Pompe Institute for Criminal Law and Criminology Universiteit Utrecht The Netherlands This book allows a peek in the kitchen of empirical fieldwork going into not only best practices but mistakes made in a frank courageous and honest way Dr Brenda C Oude Breuil Willem Pompe Institute for Criminal Law and Criminology Universiteit Utrecht The Netherlands
