Task Force on Organized Crime, 1976 Standards designed for adoption at the state and local levels for the purpose of preventing and reducing organized crime in America are presented in this comprehensive report. The standards recommended in this report were formulated to assist all sectors of the community as well as the agencies of state and local governments. As a unit these standards constitute a comprehensive plan for the prevention and control of organized criminal activity in this country. Following the introductory remarks a brief history of organized criminal activity in the United States a description of the general characteristics of organized crime and the results of a study of the various ways state and local governments have dealt with the problem are presented. Part 3 of this report presents standards to guide state and local governments officials of the criminal justice system and private citizens in the design and implementation of programs to combat organized criminal operations. These standards are based on successful models operating in the states or on concepts that the task force and the national advisory committee considered necessary for effective prevention and control of organized crime. Proposals for state and local administrative and regulatory agencies to participate in organized crime control programs to the fullest extent of their statutory authority are contained in chapter 4. The standards in chapters 5 through 8 recommend specific policies law enforcement mechanisms prosecutorial tools and legal procedures for adoption by the criminal justice system. The standards in chapter 9 recommend that appropriate training programs in organized crime control be instituted for all levels of the criminal justice system. General educational programs for the private sector are also recommended Annual Report of the Attorney General of the United States United States. Congress, 1968 Fast And Furious: A Comprehensive Collection Of U.S. Government Documents To 2017, 2018-12-11 Over 26 000 total pages Background The Fast and Furious operation was responsible for allowing approximately 2 000 firearms to illegally flow into the hands of criminals including Mexican drug cartel associates. On December 14 2010 Customs and Border Patrol Agent Brian Terry a United States Marine was killed while on patrol just miles from the Mexican border. The firearms found at the scene were semi automatic rifles that were allowed to walk as part of Operation Fast and Furious. Congressional Republicans have investigated Fast and Furious since January 2011. Over the course of the investigation the Justice Department has provided false information stonewalled document requests produced scores of blacked out pages and duplicate documents and refused to comply with two congressional subpoenas. In August 2012 the U S House of Representatives Office of General Counsel filed suit against the Justice Department.
