Operation Leprechaun United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means. Subcommittee on Oversight, 1976     Strategic Power and National Security J. I. Coffey, 2010-11-23 In this closely reasoned and lucid analysis an important thinker on American strategy surveys weapons technology and its military and political implications for the 1970s J I Coffey refutes the argument that American national security requires superior strategic offensive forces or extensive air and missile defenses In so doing he assesses in simple terms the various factors involved in this complex and difficult subject While many books on strategy deal only with a single area or a particular weapons system this work synthesizes technical and non technical considerations across the whole range of national security issues affected by strategic power war fighting deterrence Communist behavior alliance relationships nuclear proliferation and arms control Its orderly and authoritative marshaling of tabulated data its citations from Department of Defense documents and congressional hearings and its classifications of the alternative options which strategy makers can now pursue are all invaluable to both the student of national security and the professional strategist     Naval Nuclear Propulsion Program, 1977 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services. Intelligence and Military Application of Nuclear Energy Subcommittee, 1977     Foreign Assistance and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1975 United States. Congress. House.
