How to Hepburn Karen Karbo, 2008-12-12 How to Hepburn Karen Karbo's sleek contemporary reassessment of one of America's greatest icons takes us on a spin through the great Kate's long eventful life with an aim toward seeing what we can glean from the First Lady of Cinema. One part How Proust Can Change Your Life and one part Why Sinatra Matters. How to Hepburn teaches some unexpected lessons from the life of a woman whose freewheeling pants wearing determination redefined the image of the independent woman while eventually endearing her to the world. This witty provocative gem is full of no nonsense Hepburn style commentary on subjects such as making denial work for you, the importance of being brash, facing fear and always having an aviator in your life, learning why and how to lie, the benefits of discretion, making the most of a dysfunctional relationship and the power of forgiving your parents. Thrilling fans of the notoriously independent actress award winner Karen Karbo presents a gusty guidebook to harnessing your inner Hepburn and living life on your own terms.

An Autobiography of Jack London Jack London, 2013-01-01 Jack London has been a bestselling author for over one hundred years. In his short life 1876-1916 he wrote twenty-five novels and dozens of short stories, plays and essays. Today he is recognized as a forerunner of such literary giants as Ernest Hemingway, John Steinbeck and Jack Kerouac. Author of a number of well-known to say nothing of well-loved stories in our literary canon: White Fang, The Call of the Wild and The Sea Wolf to name just three. London also worked as a day laborer, Alaskan gold rush prospector and seaman. He was also an adventurer, journalist, celebrity polemicist and drunk. Illustrated throughout with drawings, facsimile pages from his works and contemporary photographs, many taken by London himself. An Autobiography of Jack London is a revealing portrait of this complicated and fascinating man in his own words and is largely composed of excerpts from his memoirs The Road, John Barleycorn and The Cruise of the Snark. More than a mere biographical summary of a man's life, An Autobiography of Jack London aims to give the reader real insight into the character and personality of this uniquely American literary icon.

Terrible Freedom Amy C. Beal, 2024-04-23 From her childhood in Detroit to her professional career in New York City, American composer Lucia Dlugoszewski (1925-2000) lived a life of relentless creativity as a poet and writer, composer for dance theater and film, and eventually choreographer. Forging her own path after briefly studying with John Cage and Edgard Varèse, Dlugoszewski tackled the musical issues of her time. She expanded sonic resources, invented instruments, brought new focus to timbre and texture, collaborated with artists across disciplines and incorporated spiritual, psychological and philosophical influences into her work. Remembered today almost solely as the musical director for the Erick Hawkins Dance Company, Dlugoszewski's compositional output, writings on aesthetics, creative relationships and graphic poetry deserve careful examination on their own terms within the history of American experimental music.
