The Territorial Imperative Robert Ardrey, 1969 The Territorial Imperative Robert Ardrey, 1973 The Territorial Imperative; A Personal Inquiry Into the Animal Origins of Property and Nations. Drawings by Berdine Robert Ardrey, 1966 Neoliberalism on the Ground Kenny Cupers, Helena Mattsson, Catharina Gabrielsson, 2020-02-25

Architecture and urbanism have contributed to one of the most sweeping transformations of our times Over the past four decades neoliberalism has been not only a dominant paradigm in politics but a process of bricks and mortar in everyday life Rather than to ask what a neoliberal architecture looks like or how architecture represents neoliberalism this volume examines the multivalent role of architecture and urbanism in geographically variable yet interconnected processes of neoliberal transformation across scales from China Turkey South Africa Argentina Mexico the United States Britain Sweden and Czechoslovakia Analyzing how buildings and urban projects in different regions since the 1960s have served in the implementation of concrete policies such as privatization fiscal reform deregulation state restructuring and the expansion of free trade contributors reveal neoliberalism as a process marked by historical contingency Neoliberalism on the Ground fundamentally reframes accepted narratives of both neoliberalism and postmodernism by demonstrating how architecture has articulated changing relationships between state society and economy since the 1960s The Limits of Community Policing Luis Daniel Gascón, Aaron Roussell, 2019-07-23 A critical look at the realities of community policing in South Los Angeles The Limits of Community Policing addresses conflicts between police and communities Luis Daniel Gascón and Aaron Roussell depart from traditional conceptions arguing that community policing popularized for decades as a racial panacea is not the solution it seems to be Tracing this policy back to its origins they focus on the Los Angeles Police Department which first introduced community policing after the high profile Rodney King riots Drawing on over sixty interviews with officers residents and stakeholders in South LA s Lakeside precinct they show how police tactics amplified rather than resolved racial tensions complicating partnership efforts crime response and prevention and accountability Gascón and Roussell shine a new light on the residents of this neighborhood to address the enduring and frequently explosive conflicts between police and communities At a time when these issues have taken center stage this volume offers a critical understanding of how community policing really works Natural Law, Science, and the Social Construction of Reality Bernie Koenig, 2004 Natural Law Science and the Social Construction of Reality looks at changes in knowledge and the relationship to values from the modern era to today Author Bernie Koenig examines Newton s influence on Locke and Kant how Kant influenced Darwin and Freud and the implications of their work for both anthropology and moral theory A Psychoanalytic History of the Jews Avner Falk, 1996 This includes the evolution of the Hebrew religion as a projective response to the inner conflicts produced by the human family the sociopsychological development of the Israelite kingdoms in Canaan the fascinating duality of Jewish life in the Diaspora and the emotional ties of the Jews to their idealized motherland from the Babylonian exile to modern political Zionism New Hollywood Violence Steven Jay Schneider, 2004-11-27 New Hollywood Violence is a groundbreaking collection of essays devoted to an interrogation of various aspects dimensions and depictions of violence in New Hollywood filmmaking New Hollywood refers to the return to genre filmmaking following America's flirtation with European art cinema in the late 1960s and early 1970s and is characterized by vast production budgets and special effects Focusing on the motivations the formal and stylistic qualities and the cultural politics of violence as well as the effects on viewers the collection is divided into four sections Surveys and schemas Spectacle and style Race and gender and Politics to ideology An Afterword by Stephen Prince reflects on the various essays and points the way towards areas of future exploration The Descent of Woman Elaine Morgan, 2011-03-01 One of the key feminist texts Guardian The Descent of Woman is a pioneering work the first to argue for the equal role of women in human evolution On its first publication in 1972 it sparked an international debate and became a rallying point for feminism changing the terminology of anthropologists forever Starting with her demolition of the Biblical myth that woman was an afterthought to the creation of man Elaine Morgan rewrites human history and evolution The Liberation of Life Charles Birch, John B. Cobb, 1985-01-10 This book is about the liberation of the concept of life from the bondage fashioned by the interpreters of life ever since biology began and about the liberation of the life of humans and non humans alike from the bondage of social structures and behaviour which now threatens the fullness of life's possibilities if not survival itself It falls into a tradition of writings about human problems from a perspective informed by biology It rejects the mechanistic model of life dominant in the Western world and develops an alternative ecological model which is applicable to the life of the cell and the life of the human community For the first time it brings together in one work the insights of modern biology with those of a modern holistic philosophy and a liberal theology in a way which challenges conventional approaches to science agriculture sociology politics economics development and liberation movements The Problem of Sociology David Lee, Howard Newby, 2012-06-21 First Published in 1983 Designed for first year graduates this book provides an introduction to key themes and research in sociology Written by two lecturers and based on the long experience of teaching the subject The Problem of Sociology serves as an antidote to the conventional institutional approach to sociology and avoids the artificial fragmentation of major theories and concepts in common to so many introductory texts From this text the student is able to develop a clear understanding of what makes sociology a distinct and rigorous discipline a discipline which has evolved historically through the analysis of certain fundamental issues many of which continue to have a contemporary relevance And while introducing the student to classical theory the authors also show how these theories illuminate present social problems Killer Instinct Nadine Weidman, 2021-10-26 In the 1960s biologists and social scientists engaged in a public debate about human nature The question whether humans are innately aggressive or cooperative eventually receded but the oppositional nature nurture binary created in the course of the debate left a lasting legacy that would underpin subsequent discussions of human behavior The Invention of the Land of Israel Shlomo Sand,2013-09-30 What is a homeland When does it become a national territory Why have so many people been willing to die for such places throughout the twentieth century What is the essence of the Promised Land Following the acclaimed and controversial The Invention of the Jewish People Shlomo Sand examines the mysterious sacred land that has become the site of the longest running national struggle of the twentieth and twenty first centuries The Invention of the Land of Israel deconstructs the age old legends surrounding the Holy Land and the prejudices that continue to suffocate it The invention of the modern concept of the Land of Israel in the nineteenth century he argues not only facilitated the colonization of the Middle East and the establishment of the State of Israel it is also what is threatening Israel s existence today The Last Warrior Andrew F. Krepinevich,Barry D. Watts,2015-01-06 Andrew Marshall is a Pentagon legend For more than four decades he has served as Director of the Office of Net Assessment the Pentagon s internal think tank under twelve defense secretaries and eight administrations Yet Marshall has been on the cutting edge of strategic thinking even longer than that At the RAND Corporation during its golden age in the 1950s and early 1960s Marshall helped formulate bedrock concepts of US nuclear strategy that endure to this day later at the Pentagon he pioneered the development of net assessment a new analytic framework for understanding the long term military competition between the United States and the Soviet Union Following the Cold War Marshall successfully used net assessment to anticipate emerging disruptive shifts in military affairs including the revolution in precision warfare and the rise of China as a major strategic rival of the United States In The Last Warrior Andrew Krepinevich and Barry Watts both former members of Marshall s staff trace Marshall s intellectual development from his upbringing in Detroit during the Great Depression to his decades in Washington as an influential behind the scenes advisor on American defense strategy The result is a unique insider s perspective on the changes in US strategy from the dawn of the Cold War to the present day Covering some of the most pivotal episodes of the last half century and peopled with some of the era s most influential figures The Last Warrior tells Marshall s story for the first time in the process providing an unparalleled history of the evolution of the American defense establishment Property and Freedom Richard Pipes,2007-12-18 A superb book about a topic that should be front and center in the American political debate National Review from the acclaimed Harvard scholar and historian of the Russian Revolution An exploration of a wide range of national and political systems to demonstrate persuasively that private ownership has served over the centuries to limit the power of the state and enable democratic institutions to evolve and thrive in the Western world Beginning with Greece and Rome where the concept of private property as we understand it first developed Richard Pipes then shows us how in the late medieval period the idea matured with the expansion of commerce and the rise of cities He contrasts England a country where property rights and parliamentary government advanced hand in hand with Russia where restrictions on ownership have for centuries consistently abetted authoritarian regimes finally he provides reflections on current and future trends in the United States

Property and Freedom is a brilliant contribution to political thought and an essential work on a subject of vital importance

The Oxford Handbook of the History of International Law Bardo Fassbender, Anne Peters, Simone Peter, Daniel Högger, 2012-11-01 The Oxford Handbook of the History of International Law provides an authoritative and original overview of the origins concepts and core issues of international law The first comprehensive Handbook on the history of international law it is a truly unique contribution to the literature of international law and relations Pursuing both a global and an interdisciplinary approach the Handbook brings together some sixty eminent scholars of international law legal history and global history from all parts of the world Covering international legal developments from the 15th century until the end of World War II the Handbook consists of over sixty individual chapters which are arranged in six parts The book opens with an analysis of the principal actors in the history of international law namely states peoples and nations international organisations and courts and civil society actors Part Two is devoted to a number of key themes of the history of international law such as peace and war the sovereignty of states hegemony religion and the protection of the individual person Part Three addresses the history of international law in the different regions of the world Africa and Arabia Asia the Americas and the Caribbean Europe as well as encounters between non European legal cultures like those of China Japan and India and Europe which had a lasting impact on the body of international law Part Four examines certain forms of interaction or imposition in international law such as diplomacy as an example of interaction or colonization and domination as an example of imposition of law The classical juxtaposition of the civilized and the uncivilized is also critically studied Part Five is concerned with problems of the method and theory of history writing in international law for instance the periodisation of international law or Eurocentrism in the traditional historiography of international law The Handbook concludes with a Part Six entitled People in Portrait which explores the life and work of twenty prominent scholars and thinkers of international law ranging from Muhammad al Shaybani to Sir Hersch Lauterpacht The Handbook will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of international law It provides historians with new perspectives on international law and increases the historical and cultural awareness of scholars of international law It is the standard reference work for the global history of international law

Hierarchy in the Forest Christopher Boehm, 2001-11-02 The political flexibility of our species is formidable we can be quite egalitarian we can be quite despotic This book traces the roots of these contradictory traits in chimpanzee bonobo gorilla and early human societies Boehm postulates that egalitarianism is in effect a hierarchy in which the weak combine forces to dominate the strong

Photography and American Coloniality Raoul J. Granqvist, 2017-04-01 This book is the first to question both why and how the colonialist mythologies represented by the work of photographer Eliot Elisofon persist It documents and discusses a heterogeneous practice of American coloniality of power as it explores Elisofon's career as war photographer correspondent and staff photographer for LIFE filmmaker author artist and collector of primitive art and sculpture It focuses on three areas Elisofon's narcissism voyeurism and sexism his involvement in the homogenizing of Western social orders and colonial legacies and his enthused mission of sending home a mass of still life photographs annexed African artifacts and assumed vintage knowledge The book does not challenge his artistic merit or his fascinating personality what it does question is his production and imagining of difference As the text travels from World War II to colonialism postcolonialism and the Cold War from Casablanca to Leopoldville Kinshasa it proves to be a necessarily strenuous and provocative trip
