Global Powers of Horror Francois Debrix, 2016-12-19 Global Powers of Horror examines contemporary regimes of horror into horror's intricacies and into their deployment on and through human bodies and body parts To track horror's work what horror decomposes and perhaps recomposes Debrix goes beyond the idea of the integrality and integrity of the human body and it brings the focus on parts pieces or fragments of bodies and lives Looking at horror's production of bodily fragments both against and beyond humanity the book is also about horror's own attempt at re-forming or re-creating matter from the perspective of post-human non-human and inhuman fragmentation Through several contemporary instances of dismantling of human bodies and pulverization of body parts this book makes several interrelated theoretical contributions It works with contemporary post-geo-political figures of horror faces of concentration camp dwellers body parts of victims of terror attacks the outcome of suicide bombings graphic reports of beheadings re-compositions of melted and mingled remnants of non-human and human matter after 9/11 to challenge regimes of terror and security that seek to forcefully and ideologically reaffirm a biopolitics and thanatopolitics of human life in order to anchor today's often devastating deployments of the metaphysics of substance Critically enabling one to see how security and terror form a geo-political continuum of violent mobilization utilization and often destruction of human and non-human bodies and lives this book will be of interest to graduates and scholars of bio-politics international relations and security studies

Battle for Our Minds Michael Widlanski, 2012-03-06 From political communications expert Dr Michael Widlanski comes a rich and detailed portrayal of how intellectual arrogance and complacency in our government has led to a failure to effectively use counter-terrorism intelligence When 3 000 people were murdered in simultaneous terror attacks on September 11 2001 The New York Times said the attacks came out of the blue Nothing could be further from the truth Arab Islamic terrorists had been attacking the West for a decade in Arabia and Africa but the attacks began to focus on America itself with the World Trade Center strike in 1993 Dr Michael Widlanski describes other attacks and plots that were largely forgiven ignored or botched by academia media and government in this provocative book He paints a chilling portrait of how our top analytical institutions were unaware as terrorists bragged about their plans in mosques in New York and New Jersey while professors the media the FBI the CIA and CNN all dropped the ball Terrorists want to get into our head not into our house Their goal is not seizing territory but rather controlling the mind including manipulating communication and public opinion Combating terror means fighting on the battlefield of the mind Battle for Our Minds confronts this battle and shows how the West has been defeating itself Timely informative and thoroughly researched this is an eye-opening portrayal of the top echelons of our country's counter-terrorism system
