Testament Of Israel Potter:

The Testament of Israel Potter William Doreski, 1976      Life and Remarkable Adventures of Israel R. Potter Israel Potter, 1824      Race, Transnationalism, and Nineteenth-Century American Literary Studies Robert S. Levine, 2018 This book offers new perspectives on race and transnationalism in nineteenth century American literary studies and ranges widely in developing new approaches to canonical and non canonical authors It will appeal to graduates and scholars working on nineteenth century American literature transnationalism and African American literary studies      Herman Melville Maurice S. Lee, 2025 Herman Melville A Very Short Introduction tells the story of Melville's exciting and tragic life provides overviews of his minor and major works outlines critical questions arising from his writings and offers ways to interpret and enjoy his books A variety of readers will find value in this accessible introduction to Herman Melville      The Divine Election of Israel Seock-Tae Sohn, 2001-09-11 The Divine Election of Israel offers a comprehensive examination of Yahweh's election of Old Testament Israel By means of a detailed incisive and fruitful philological semantic analysis of the Bible's Hebrew text Seock Tae Sohn explores the connection between election and other major themes such as covenant rejection remnant and restoration Sohn traces the historical development of the idea of election and delineates the New Testament reflections of Old Testament election imagery His discerning study not only expands our understanding of election in the Scriptures but also powerfully demonstrates the linguistic richness and organic unity of the biblical text      Herman Melville and the American Calling William V. Spanos, 2009-07-01 Argues that Herman Melville's later work anticipates the resurgence of an American exceptionalist ethos underpinning the U S led global war on terror      (Re)Visions of History in Language and Fiction Dorota Gutfeld, Monika Linke, Agnieszka Sowińska, 2013-02-21 In imagining history one must inevitably rely on its textual representations whether fictitious or supposedly objective yet always subject to the constraints and conventions of textuality Still it is precisely by exploiting and consciously relying on the textual in the presentation of the past that contemporary authors including politicians and makers of history strive to provide it with current significance emotional impact and universal meaning The study of such attempts benefits from a variety of perspectives encompassing not only classical but also popular texts and media An interdisciplinary collection of papers devoted to the issues of retelling rewriting and representation of the past in fiction and various text types this volume juxtaposes modern and post modern understanding of collective versus personal history The contributors are scholars specializing in literary studies e g postcolonialism and popular fiction linguistics e g critical discourse analysis and cultural studies e g media studies bringing a wide spectrum of theoretical insights into the field The collection opens with papers on the general changes in viewing history that have occurred since the 19th century Further papers discuss postcolonial feminist and gender related perspectives on history reflected in postmodern fiction revealing the power struggle around the depiction of the past The next part of the volume is devoted to the presentation of historical breakthroughs in political and media discourse Finally the collection draws attention to some unorthodox visions of history involving alternative worlds and fantastic elements encountered in the genre of speculative fiction      All the Parables of the Bible Herbert Lockyer, 1963 A study and analysis of the more than 250 parables in Scripture      Melville and Aesthetics G. Sanborn, S. Otter, 2011-09-26 In an original and provocative series of readings that range across Melville's career the contributors consider not only the sources and implications of Melville's aesthetics but the relationship between aesthetic criticism historical analysis and contemporary theory      Form and Fable in American Fiction Daniel Hoffman, 1994 Combining the disciplines of folklore and literary criticism in his perceptive readings of works by Irving Hawthorne Melville and Mark Twain Daniel Hoffman demonstrates how these authors transformed materials from both high and popular culture from their European past and their American present in works that helped to form our national consciousness In his new preface Hoffman describes the evolution of his critical method and suggests the book's value for contemporary readers      History, Abolition, and the Ever-Present Now in Antebellum American Writing Jeffrey Insko, 2018-12-06 The Ever Present Now examines the meaning and possibilities of the present and its relationship to history and historicity in a number of literary texts specifically the writings of several figures in antebellum US literary history some but not all of whom associated with the period's romantic movement Focusing on nineteenth century writers who were impatient for social change like those advocating for the immediate emancipation of slaves as opposed to those planning for a gradual end to slavery the book recovers some of the political force of romanticism Through close readings of texts by Washington Irving John Neal Catharine Sedgwick Frederick Douglass Ralph Waldo Emerson and Herman Melville Insko argues that these writers practiced forms of literary historiography that treat the past as neither a reflection of present interests nor as an irretrievably distant other but as a complex and open ended interaction between the two In place of a fixed and linear past these writers imagine history as an experience rooted in a fluid dynamic and ever changing present The political philosophical and aesthetic disposition Insko calls romantic presentism insists upon the present as the fundamental sphere of human action and experience and hence of ethics and democratic possibility

The Holy Bible Translated from the Latin Vulgate.... The Old Testament, First Published by the English College at Douay,... And the New Testament First Published by the English College at Rheims,... With Annotations, References, and an Historical and Chronological Index,... , 1820      Herman Melville Harold Bloom, 2008 Presents a collection of criticism devoted to the work of American author Herman Melville      Fictions of the Past Alide Cagidemetro, 1993 This work explores the relationship between history and fiction in the works of Nathaniel Hawthorne and Herman Melville As Alide Cagidemetro shows both writers were preoccupied with a past a preoccupation whose antecedents could be traced to the novels of Walter Scott Yet they departed from established tradition in significant ways Unlike their literary predecessors who sought historical authenticity in the representation of past events Hawthorne and Melville upheld a new idea of history one based on the relevance of past to present and by extension of present to future Cagidemetro grounds her analysis in the cultural context in which Hawthorne and Melville wrote an era of unprecedented change when signs of the past were disappearing at an ever quickening pace Focusing on Hawthorne s Legends of the Province House and his unfinished romances and on Melville s much neglected Israel Potter she demonstrates how both writers consciously experimented in writing the past anew Together their historical fictions reflect the rise of a modern historical consciousness as Henry James calls it as well as an effort to give form to the chaotic flux of change over time The Confidence-Man and Billy Budd, Sailor Herman Melville,2012-05-31 With an essay by Daniel G Hoffmann Life is a pic nic en costume one must take a part assume a character stand ready in a sensible way to play the fool In The Confidence Man Melville s unnerving and hallucinatory satire on the American dream a slippery trickster and master of disguise comes to swindle his fellow passengers who themselves may also be con men aboard a Mississippi steamboat Billy Budd Sailor published after Melville s death in 1891 is a gripping allegory of good and evil as an innocent man pressed into service on a British man of war is falsely accused of mutiny Both these late works are animated with the dark genius of the greatest of American writers The Penguin English Library 100 editions of the best fiction in English from the eighteenth century and the very first novels to the beginning of the First World War
