Testimony After Catastrophe Stevan Weine,2006-08-14 Survivors of political violence give testimonies in families and communities trials and truth commissions religious institutions psychotherapies newspapers documentaries artworks and even in solitude Through spoken written and visual images survivors testimonies tell stories that may change history politics and life itself In this book Stevan Weine a psychiatrist and scholar in the field of mental health and human rights focuses on the testimony of survivors for the hope it might hold hope expressed by survivors again and again that no matter what horrors or humiliations they have endured some good might come of their stories It is through the thinking of Mikhail Bakhtin and his approach to narrative that Weine seeks to read the testimony of survivors of political violence from four different twentieth century historical nightmares and to read them as the stories they are meant to be fully conveying their legitimacy resourcefulness power and finally hope A deeply involving compassionate occasionally confrontational blend of practical hands on experience and dialogic theory emerging from the author s decade long work in Europe and Chicago with survivors of the Balkan wars this book is committed to the proposition that efforts to use testimony to address the consequences of political violence can be strengthened though by no means guaranteed if they are based on a fuller acknowledgment of the personal and ethical elements embodied in the narrative essence of testimony These elements are what Testimony after Catastrophe seeks to reveal Displaced Memories M. Edurne Portela,2009 Displaced Memories analyzes the representation of traumatic memories political imprisonment torture survival and exile in the literary works of Alicia Kozameh Alicia Partnoy and Nora Strejilevich survivors of Argentina s Dirty War 1976 1983 Beginning with an examination of the history of Argentina s last dictatorship the conditions that led the authors to exile and the contexts in which the texts were published Portela provides the theoretical tools for the understanding of narratives of trauma and displacement caused by political violence The author proposes a theory that critiques post structuralist paradigms of trauma which present trauma as an unclaimed experience impossible to apprehend as she argues for an analysis of the symbolic uses of language presenting trauma as a claimed experience that can be brought into representation and therefore create the conditions of possibility for working through American Indian Stories Zitkala-Sa,2019-11-20 In American Indian Stories Zitkala Sa eloquently weaves together a series of poignant narratives that explore the complexities of Native American identity and the cultural dislocation experienced by Indigenous peoples in early 20th century America Written in a lyrical style infused with personal reflection and cultural critique the book offers a rich tapestry of stories that illuminate the struggles and resilience of Native Americans Its literary context is rooted in the broader movement of American realism while also drawing upon traditional storytelling methods thus bridging the gap between oral tradition and written word

Zitkala Sa a prominent figure in the Native American rights movement and an accomplished writer and activist was born in 1876 on the Yankton Sioux Reservation Her own experiences with cultural displacement having attended a white boarding school and subsequently grappling with her dual identity deeply influenced her writing Through American Indian Stories she seeks to give voice to her people's struggles while challenging the dominant narratives imposed by colonial society ultimately advocating for understanding and respect for Indigenous cultures This compelling collection is recommended for readers interested in the intersections of identity culture and social justice Zitkala Sa's insights provide a vital commentary that resonates today making this work not only a historical document but also a call to action for empathy and recognition of Indigenous experiences

Gendered Testimonies of the Holocaust , Petra M. Schweitzer, 2016-04-08 Gendered Testimonies of the Holocaust Writing Life begins with the premise that writing proves virtually synonymous with survival bearing the traces of life and of death carried within those who survived the atrocities of the Nazis In reading specific testimonies by survivor writers Paul Celan Charlotte Delbo Olga Lengyel Gisella Perl and Dan Pagis this text seeks to answer the question How was it possible for these survivors to write about human destruction if death is such an intimate part of the survivors survival This book shows how the works of these survivors arise creatively from a vigorous spark the desire to preserve memory Testimony for each of these writers is a form of relation to oneself but also to others It situates each survivor's anguish in writing as a need to write so as to affirm life Writing as such always bears witness to the life of the one who should be dead by now and thus to the miracle of having survived This book's claim is that the act of writing testimony manifests itself as the most intensive form of life possible More specifically its exploration of writing's affirmation of life and assertion of identity focuses on the gendered dimension of expression and language This book does not engage in the binary structure of gender and the hierarchically constructed roles in terms of privileging the male over the female The criteria that guide its discussion on Gendered Testimonies emerge out of Levinas's concept of maternity

Stories of the Stranger Martin Palmer, Gordon Brown, 2014-10-01 Encompassing scriptural historical folk and newly commissioned tales a collection exploring the centrality of the stranger in every major faith tradition a commonality that could create a more compassionate world Every faith has as a fundamental moment of its formation the experience of exile the experience of losing everything or being thrown out of being dispossessed and of relying on the generosity or not of strangers Furthermore every major faith tradition has popular stories showing how you are more likely to meet the divine in the outcast the reject the beggar than you are in the king the prince or indeed minister priest or nun Faiths are therefore often the first to welcome and help refugees Classic tales on this theme have been retold here from a contemporary perspective with humor and wit Sitting alongside powerful illustrations the tales serve to remind readers of the centrality of the stranger in all traditions thereby creating the potential for a more compassionate world This collection is a resource for reflection ideal for storytelling groups for drama art and poetry and a unique educational tool as well

The Scots worthies: their lives and testimonies John Howie (of Lochgoin.), 1876 The Camp Colman Hogan, Marta Marin-Dòmine, 2021-02-03 The camp is nothing if not diverse in kind scope and particularity in sociological and juridical configuration in texture iconography and political import Adjectives of camp specificity embrace a spectrum from extermination and concentration to detention migration deportation and refugee camps And while the geographic range covered by contributors is hardly global it is broad Chile Rwanda Canada the US Central Europe Morocco Algeria South Africa France and Spain And yet is to so characterize the camp to run the risk of diffusing what in origin is a concentration into a paratactical series of identity particularisms While The Camp does not seek to antithetically promulgate a universalist vision it does aim to explore the imbrication of the particular and the universal to analyze the structure of a camp or camps and to call attention the role of the listener in the construction of the testimony For by naming what cannot be said is not every narrative of internment and exclusion a potential site of agency articulating the inner splitting of language that Giorgio Agamben defines as the locus of testimony to bear witness is to place oneself in one's own language in the position of those who have lost it to establish oneself in a living language as if it were dead or in a dead language as if it were living

Some African Voices of Our Time Ivor Agyeman-Duah, 1995 Situated Testimonies Laurie J. Sears, 2013-06-30 The Indonesian writer Pramoedya Ananta Toer made a distinction between a downstream literary reality and an upstream historical reality Pramoedya suggested that literature has an effect on the upstream flow of history and that it can in fact change history In Situated Testimonies Laurie Sears illuminates this process by considering a selection of Dutch Indies and Indonesian literary works that span the twentieth century and beyond and by showing how authors like Louis Couperus and Maria Dermo t help retell and remodel history Sears sees certain literary works as situated testimonies bringing ineffable experiences of trauma into narrative form and preserving something of the dread and enchantment that animated the past These literary works offer a method of reading the emotional traces that historians may fail to witness or record traces that elude archival constructions where political factors or colonial conditions have influenced processes of what is preserved and how it is shaped Sears use of Donna Haraway's notion of situatedness reiterates the idea that all of us speak from somewhere Testimony especially eyewitness testimony is a gold standard in historical methodology and the authors of literary works are eyewitnesses of their time But the works of authors like Tirta Adhi Soerjo and Soewarsih Djojopoespito are first of all written as literature and literary or stylistic devices cannot be ignored Sears finds substantial evidence of the movement of psychoanalytic theories between Europe and the Indies Indonesia throughout the twentieth century She concludes that far from being only a Jewish or European discourse psychoanalysis is a transnational discourse of desire that has influenced Indies and Indonesian writers for more than a century Psychoanalytic ideas and the suggestion by French psychoanalyst Jean Laplanche and Indonesian author Ayu Utami that memories like literature can move us back and forth in time have inspired Sears thinking about historical archives literature and trauma Soekarno's words haunt this book as he haunts Indonesia's past Situated Testimonies rewrites portions of the literary and social history of Indonesia over a sweep of many decades Historians scholars of literary theory and Indonesianists will all be interested in the book's insights on how colonial and postcolonial novels of the Indies and Indonesia illuminate nationalist narratives and imperial histories

A Global History of Convicts and Penal Colonies Clare Anderson, 2018-05-17 Between 1415 when the Portuguese first used convicts for colonization purposes in the North African enclave of Ceuta to the 1960s and the dissolution of Stalin's gulags global powers including the Spanish Dutch Portuguese British Russians Chinese and Japanese transported millions of convicts to forts penal settlements and penal colonies all over the world A Global History of Convicts and Penal Colonies builds on specific regional archives and literatures to write the first global history of penal transportation The essays explore the idea of penal transportation as an engine of global change in which political repression and forced labour combined to produce long term impacts on economy society and identity They investigate the varied and interconnected routes convicts took to penal sites across the world and the relationship of these convict flows to other forms of punishment unfree labour military service and indigenous incarceration They also explore the lived worlds of convicts including work culture religion and intimacy and convict experience and agency

Testimony/Bearing Witness Sybille Krämer, Sigrid Weigel, 2017-08-23 What is the epistemological value of testimony What role does language images and memory play in its construction What is the relationship between the person who attests and those who listen Is bearing witness a concept that is exclusively based in interpersonal relations Or are there other modes of communicating or mediating to constitute a constellation of testimony Testimony Bearing Witness establishes a dialogue between the different approaches to testimony in epistemology historiography law art media studies and psychiatry With examples including the Holocaust the Khmer Rouge Killing Fields and the Armenian genocide the volume discusses the chances and limits of communicating epistemological and ethical philosophical and cultural historical past and present perspectives on the phenomenon and concept of bearing witness to colonial and decolonial violence between colonizers and the native population through to the political violence we have seen in the postmodern period marked by dictatorship guerrilla warfare neoliberalism as well as representations of violence caused by drug trafficking and migration The volume provides readers with literary examples from across the centuries showing not only how widespread the violence has been but crucially how it has shaped the region and evolved over time

A Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels: Aaron-Knowledge James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, John Chisholm

Lambert, 1906 Left in Transformation Vania Markarian, 2013-09-13 This book takes an innovative look at international relations Focusing on the worldwide campaign against abuses by the right wing authoritarian regime in Uruguay 1973 1984 it explores how norms and ideas interact with political interests both global and domestic It examines joint actions by differently motivated actors such as the leftist activists who had to flee Uruguay in these years the Organization of American States The United Nations Amnesty International and the United States It traces language and procedures for making their claims The chief goal however is to peruse the specific reasons that led these actors to endorse the central core of liberal rights that gave foundation to this system A close examination of the available documents shows that even as they joined efforts to protest abuses they were still pursuing their individual agendas which is often overlooked in the existing scholarship on human rights transnational activism The book pays special attention to the Uruguayan exiles analyzing why and how leftist activists and leaders adopted the human rights language which had so far been used to attack communism in the context of the Cold War
