

Dallas Building Trades Urged to Sponsor Civil Engineer Award

All members of the building trades have been urged by the Dallas Chapter of the Associated General Contractors, of America, Inc., whose members comprise the nation's "Skill, Responsibility and Integrity," to join their friends here of a wide spread of 1958 to two high school students who are qualified to make civil engineers for work in the construction industry.

Francis E. Beckman, chairman of the education committee of the Contractors' Association, has announced this to be better to all local unions in the Dallas Building and Construction Trades Council. The two awards are made annually.

The Community Guidance Service of Dallas will prepare a list of students from which the two boys will be selected.

Any one learning a young student interested in engineering for the construction industry may call Mr. Julius Obermeyer, Jr., managing director of the AGC at 812 2-8202 for further information.

Young men desiring a civil engineering career, looking to work in the construction field should ask themselves the question: "Do I want to create things?" "Do I have a practical mind?" "Am I naturally good at mathematics?" "Do I want work that is not only challenging, but brings much the sense of all people?" "Would I rather design or build on blueprint structures than do a simple operation, or apply a rule in a Court of Law or be a machanic?"

Many young men are needed the same who which make them construction in the past few years, the young doctors and others in the professional field of service.

All unions are requested to make these boys as members in the Contractors' Association for, so that the committee can pass it on to their sons or young friends will be high school who might really be the achievability.

The Edwards camp everywhere in the country with the exception of Dallas county. All of the labor leaders tried like the camp to get through camp and they did get a large majority of them out.

Florida McCann, Democratic precinct chairman, cannot get enough labor for the work that they did in his precinct. He had more people to vote than he did in the last election, but he was also the same way in my precinct.

Brande Rutherford is still off sick. Brande underwent an operation in his leg, he is getting along fine.

I visited some of the shops this week to see what the machine workers was in the election. A large majority of them felt just like I did. They were very sick.

The Dallas Typographical Union party has been postponed for six weeks.

George Hayden, Puggott precinct, is still off sick. George recently had a minor operation, he is getting along fine.

Edna Richards, Ward precinct, is at home and getting along pretty good. Edna underwent a minor operation recently.

All of our members who held the general election had the privilege of knowing that they had voted for Brando. The downtown precinct went for Brando.

I understand that everyone in the State is catching a cold now. Some of the boys who had an idea are not catching a cold now in the State.

Wesley H. Dwyer Wright is starting his apprenticeship on the State.

Bill Brown is appointing special representatives all over the country. He is definitely going to start an executive organization. I am very glad to see that he is giving some young men a chance to prove their worth.

The committee responsible for investigating the feasibility of a new building-up machine in our office is an failure. Albert Franklin, chairman, W. B. Wilson, secretary, McVay and W. L. Smith. Three of these men have worked in this machine and they are all in the Mr. Warner has said building-up machine and knows what they can

Carpenter's Ladies Auxiliary No. 3

By Mrs. Esther Henderson

A lovely member of the same has turned out for our meeting last Monday night. Especially we were glad to see Mrs. Henderson and Alice Lee Griffin, who are attending the National Convention in St. Louis at this time.

The Auxiliary voted to donate twenty-five dollars to the General Union, Springs Foundation. This amount will be for our organization a new member, Mrs. Edna (Henderson) W. Dwyer, who was glad to see Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Lee Griffin, who are attending the National Convention in St. Louis at this time.

The Educational Committee made all members to try to attend the second-day dinner at 1:30 p.m., November 15, in Room 101 of the Lott Hotel. Every member is asked to bring a personal note card and a card of a vegetable.

Also, their own dining table. The committee will also add drinks, coffee and everything else. Also, please remember to bring donations and help make it a great time.

MEMBERSHIP NOVEMBER 15: This is our fourth anniversary. Let's make it a day to be proud of. Let's try to be as good as we can be. Let's try to be as good as we can be.

Do. You will certainly get an excellent report from these men. I have been president of the union for six months. We have had some problems, but they have been solved. We have got a new member. This is one of the most important matters. We have made the workers better for the membership. A local and they have been placed on the defense line. This will not be fought.

There is a lot of work to be done. We have got to make sure of a permanent organization. Our membership has increased more to 10000 than they have ever done. I am just hoping that the next six months will be just as successful as the first six months.

I really hope that I will continue to get the members on-operation as I have in the past.

Meany Endorses Campaign Code

Washington—JULIUS ROSS, President Meany has endorsed the election code of the Fair Campaign Practices Committee and called for all political candidates to subscribe to its standards.

His statement said:

"There is nothing more destructive of America's democratic traditions than the use of the money, the influence, the city hall, the back seat, of course, the outlying is. If our political campaigns are not so dependent on money, they will be more honest and more effective. Candidates for public office and their supporters must adhere to the standards and spirit of this code."

"I therefore call upon all United States citizens to support the Fair Campaign Practices Committee in its efforts to secure clean election campaigns."

"I also urge that all congressional and gubernatorial candidates sign and observe the committee's Code of Fair Campaign Practices so that America can build up the moral power in the knowledge that the men in office will be men of honor and not through manipulation."
