Arthur, 2021-05-19 In T S Arthur's The Good Time Coming readers are welcomed into a richly woven narrative that reflects the socio political landscape of mid 19th century America Through a blend of sentimentalism and moral instruction characteristic of the period Arthur explores themes of hope perseverance and the transformative power of community The novel presents a tapestry of characters facing the trials of poverty and hardship all while nurturing aspirations for a brighter future Arthur's graceful prose and vivid imagery richly embody the optimism of a society on the cusp of major change making the text a significant reflection of its literary context T S Arthur renowned for his moralistic tales was deeply influenced by the reform movements of his time including temperance and abolition His diverse background as a lecturer and publisher allowed him to grasp the nuances of American life thus providing a keen lens through which he examined the human condition Arthur's own experiences with adversity and his commitment to social betterment shaped the compelling narrative of The Good Time Coming as he sought to encourage readers to believe in the possibility of renewal and social progress This book is a must read for those interested in American literature and the moral dilemmas of the 19th century Arthur's nuanced portrayal of human resilience and ethical living speaks to universal themes that resonate with contemporary readers The Good Time Coming not only entertains but also challenges readers to reflect on their shared humanity making it a pertinent addition to any literary collection

Broken Purposes; Or, The Good Time Coming. [With Illustrations.] Lillie Montfort (pseud.), 1878 A Good Time Coming Mrs. Oliphant (Margaret), 1859 The Laughable Song Book. Edited by J. E. Carpenter Joseph Edwards CARPENTER, 1865

Analytical [-sixth] Reader Richard Edwards, John Russell Webb, 1868 The Humorous Song Book Joseph Edwards Carpenter, 1864 Select Specimens of English Poetry ... Fifth edition, greatly enlarged Edward HUGHES (F.R.G.S.), 1856 The Book of English Songs Charles Mackay, 1851 Young America Mark A. Lause, 2005-06-14 The National Reform Association NRA was an antebellum land reform movement inspired by the shared dream of a future shaped by egalitarian homesteads Mark A Lause's Young America argues that it was these working people's interest in equitable access to the country's most obvious asset land that led them to advocate a federal homestead act granting land to the landless state legislation to prohibit the foreclosure of family farms and antimonopolistic limitations on land ownership Rooting the movement in contemporary economic structures and social ideology Young America examines this urban and working class agrarianism demonstrating how the political preoccupations of this movement transformed socialism by drawing its adherents from communitarian preoccupations into political action The alliance of the NRA's land reformers and radical abolitionists led unprecedented numbers to petition Congress and established the foundations of what became the new Republican Party promising Free Soil Free Labor Free Men Childhood's Favorites and Fairy Stories Hamilton Wright Mabie, 2016-08-24 Books are as much a part of the furnishing of a house as tables and chairs and in the making of a home

they belong not with the luxuries but with the necessities A bookless house is not a home for a home affords food and shelter for the mind as well as for the body It is as great an offence against a child to starve his mind as to starve his body and there is as much danger of reducing his vitality and putting him at a disadvantage in his lifework in the one as in the other form of deprivation There was a time when it was felt that shelter clothing food and physical oversight comprised the whole duty of a charitable institution to dependent children to day no community would permit such an institution to exist unless it provided school privileges An acute sense of responsibility toward children is one of the prime characteristics of American society shown in the vast expenditures for public education in all forms in the increasing attention paid to light ventilation and safety in school buildings in the opening of play grounds in large cities in physical supervision of children in schools and the agitation against the employment of children in factories and in other and less obvious ways Children are helpless to protect themselves and secure what they need for health of body and mind they are exceedingly impressionable and the future is always in their hands The first and most imperative duty of parents is to give their children the best attainable preparation for life no matter at what sacrifice to themselves There are hosts of fathers and mothers who recognize this obligation but do not know how to discharge it who are eager to give their children the most wholesome conditions but do not know how to secure them who are especially anxious that their children should start early and start right on that highway of education which is the open road to honorable success
