From organic produce and clothing to socially conscious investing and eco tourism the lifestyles of health and sustainability or LOHAS movement encompasses diverse products and practices intended to contribute to a more sustainable lifestyle for people and the planet In The Gospel of Sustainability Monica M Emerich explores the contemporary spiritual expression of this green cultural shift at the confluence of the media and the market This is the first book to qualitatively study the LOHAS marketplace and the development of a discourse of sustainability of the self and the social and natural worlds Emerich draws on myriad sources related to the notions of mindful consumption found throughout the LOHAS marketplace including not just products and services but marketing materials events lectures regulatory policies and conversations with leaders and consumers These disparate texts she argues universally project a spiritual message about personal and planetary health that is in turn reforming capitalism by making consumers more conscious

In the News Jerry W. Knudson,2000 This book provides rare and candid insights by those who experienced the reality of meeting a deadline and the pressures of space limitations and access to information Knudson has crafted a seamless narrative of journalism in America by tying together his own keen commentary on the evolution of news reporting with brief excerpts from those who actually did the reporting from colonial times through the Monica Lewinsky scandal Students will hear what the following notable journalists had to say about their craft and the coverage of contemporary events Benjamin Franklin s ambivalence about the colonial press extolling the watchdog concept of newspapers while abhorring the rough and tumble personal journalism of his day Frederick Douglass s vivid and literary description of his 1847 interview with John Brown Ida B Wells account of how her small newspaper a beacon for many African Americans was destroyed by an angry mob in 1892 Ida Tarbell s description of her meeting with John D Rockefeller Richard Harding Davis s 1911 Collier s excerpt in which he laments the shift from the resourceful and ingenious traditional correspondent to the thundering mob of reporters who descended on any event of significance Martha Gellhorn s experiences as a journalist who covered World War II for Collier s Ernie Pyle s portrait of what it was like to be a correspondent slogging with the troops through the Italian campaign in World War II David Brinkley recounting what it was like to be a veteran reporter during the JFK assassination and funeral The Washington Post s Vice President and Executive Editor Ben Bradlee discussing the impact of Watergate on news reporting Molly Ivins a Texas journalist whose first collection of columns remained on The New York Times bestseller list for over 12 months writes about media critics Danger in the Ashes William W. Johnstone,2008-08-01 An ex soldier fights the KKK for the fate of post apocalyptic America in the New York Times bestselling author s military sci fi thriller During the years following the nuclear holocaust that decimated the United States soldier and survivalist Ben Raines dedicated his life to rebuilding civilization from the ruins But for America to rise again it needs just laws with harsh penalties And Ben Raines is the only man for the job As the bloody war continues against the hordes of subhuman cannibals infesting the urban wasteland Raines and his rebel forces encounter an even greater threat to their dream of a new America The Ku Klux Klan has reawakened to sow the poisonous seeds of ignorance and prejudice Of all the threats to mankind's survival blind hatred is the deadliest And Ben Raines will stop at nothing to wipe out this hideous scourge Eighth in the long running series Shark Bait Luther Butler,2000-10-04 Through the Eyes of

Leon Jackson Boone Leon Jackson Boone,2014-08-29 As I look back over my life it was a good ride I experienced many potholes along the way I'm not tired yet The last thing I think about is death I am not afraid of it Why should I be I can't do anything about it It's just a sleep I can't move as fast as I once did but I can still dance This may be surprising to some I still have fun with my wife Someone may ask How often I will say to them Stop hating It would be foolish to ignore the bad the good and the ugly in my life Those experiences caused my faith in Christ Jesus to be stronger My faith in Jesus made it possible for me to be here seventy five years as of January 17 2014 I hear what I want to hear see what I want to see and remember what I want to remember I realize that I am only important to myself And to preserve whatever life I have left I must be cooperative with matters of confrontation Exhaustion will kill you before old age I refuse to call myself old I call myself blessed To those people who think that they are too old to enjoy life and that they are walking through one of life's valleys Perhaps you are trusting in your exhaustion not in God And you are thinking this is how you are supposed to feel as years pass you by You don't have to be older than you are When your load gets too heavy to carry don't give up this is an opportunity for God in Christ Jesus's name to take charge of you There is no competition or stereotypes in God just be who you are Refuse to give up your happiness because you are older and instead think about your accomplishments and enjoy all of your abilities The thought of loneliness and bitter disappointments brings self pity and fear When you dwell too long on bad circumstances it will make you feel old and rob you of peace of mind Respond to the love of God you no longer need to speculate upon the quality of your life It is good because God is good Jesus Sound Explosion Mark Curtis

Anderson,2007-09-01 Mention the record album Jesus Sound Explosion to a typical child of the 1970s and that person is likely to picture one of those collections that used to be shown on TV Call now Not available in stores When Mark Curtis Anderson spied a copy in a junk store a few years ago he knew just what he'd found and the memories of growing up in a Baptist minister's family came flooding forth The title of Anderson's memoir is a nod to the live concert album from Explo 72 a kind of evangelical Woodstock emceed by Billy Graham Explo's crowds of 100 000 plus signaled that enterprising evangelicals were discovering how to use rock and roll in the marketplace of conversion Anderson was eleven that year too young to be at Explo but old enough to wish he was Other preachers kids may have gazed out at the wider world and craved its movies clothes or toys but he wanted its music And not just the Jesus rocker fare of Explo's Armageddon Experience or Children of Truth but the real stuff too Jesus Sound Explosion recalls Anderson's quest for worldliness through rock as he came of age under the gaze he often sensed of his father's entire congregation All of the backsliding and revival idealism and disillusionment one would expect is here told with delightfully understated humor and set against the sounds of The Guess Who Yes Lynyrd Skynyrd and Bruce Springsteen Here is a knowing look back on a time when Jesus Christ Superstar climbed the pop charts The Cross and the Switchblade hit the big screen and anxious parents played their kids records backwards in search of hidden messages from Satan

Bubba's Rules for Country Living Joseph R Miller ,2011-06-25 Bubba s Rules for Country Living comes from my own experience at the country Store at Lake Kickapoo in Northern Archer County in North Texas I moved to a small place at the Lake when disability forced me away from medical practice A wonderful life awaited me I was born in Ohio and raised all over the Midwest but had the lasting good fortune to move to Texas and to marry South My mother acted Yankee nearly all her life even when she lived with us at Kickapoo but my father countered her harshness with a Welsh sense of humor that fit in no matter where he was or who was listening His stories had a cadence to them a rhythm that rivaled what I heard at Kickapoo Listening to him when I was a child I learned that art as well Not like my father never that grand But I could tell a story and I could listen without interrupting or looking away or letting my attention wander And those wonderful men at the store at Kickapoo accepted me They invited me to sit at the table labeled Stammtisch and allowed as how if there happened to be a pause that signaled the end of a story and I could jump in fast enough I might could tell a story of my own Just might could mind you Nothing was certain at the table labeled Stammtisch at the store at Kickapoo except Bubba s rules for living Nearly Nero Loren D Estleman, 2017-05-09 A collection of 11 short stories that pay homage to the style and characters of Rex Stout s Nero Wolfe mysteries
