The Gospel In Poetry

Kasper Bro Larsen

The Gospel In Poetry:

The Gospel in Poetic Form Edward D. McGinnis, 2006-08-01 Edward Deane McGinnis was inspired by God to write poems portraying Jesus Christ's teachings, miracles, His Suffering, Crucifixion, Death, Burial, and Resurrection, yet there is something else here to all 56 poems: they are written to the Glory of God.

The Gospel in Poems Mother Frances Burton, 2008-06 This book is called The Gospel in Poems because many of the poems contain scripture and/or words taken from a scripture out of the Bible. All of our problems can be answered from a scripture or story in the Bible. The Bible is the oldest book on earth. All scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness. The poem "Always Try" is for someone who thinks they cannot accomplish something. Even if you fail, get up and try again. After all, a quitter never wins, and a winner never quits. "Be Encouraged" is for someone who feels like giving up. Most of the time, the darkest hour is just before day. This book was certainly written with you in my mind and heart. I pray that everyone who reads these poems be strengthened, lifted, and blessed by God.

Preaching the Poetry of the Gospels Elizabeth Michael Boyle, 2003 Can an understanding of the poetics of the Gospels together with a reading of poetry inspired by them make the homily an art form as compelling as a poetry performance? In Preaching the Poetry of the Gospels, Elizabeth Michael Boyle O.P. offers a preaching guide to the Sunday Lectionary using the insights of poets to enliven and elicit more powerful homilies. Preaching the Poetry of the Gospels demonstrates that not only the Fourth Gospel but also the Synoptics can be read with special understanding when they are interpreted as narrative poetry. For each Sunday from the first Sunday in Advent through Trinity Sunday, the author offers a poet's reflection on the literary devices in the liturgical texts and a gathering of poems about the gospel event. Chapters are: Incarnation, Advent to Epiphany, Redemption, Ash Wednesday through Holy Week, Resurrection, The Sundays of Easter, Transformation, Ascension to Trinity Sunday, and Reclaiming the Poetry of Ordinary Time.

The Gospel: According to Poetry T. Cole Jenkins, 2014-03-14 What inspires us? What is the source of our joy, peace, wisdom, and happiness? No matter who we are, where we are, from our religious beliefs, or how we identify ourselves, there is one thing that unites us: our belief and relationship in a Higher Power. What we call this power is as varied as we are. Whether it is God, Jehovah, Allah, Yahweh, and the like, it is our need for a spiritual foundation that connects us. Like a finely woven thread in an elaborate tapestry, we are united purely on that basis, creating a beautiful image of a kind of solidarity. If we take the time to recognize it, in this intimate collection of poems you will see this in action as poets from all walks of life, hailing from both the near and the far, have allowed us to peek inside the deepest parts of themselves. With beautiful prose and rhyme, you will enjoy both the diversity of expression and the connection of our love of the Divine that sustains us all.

The Gospel in Poetry, Episode 1: the First Seven Days Dennis Dawal, 2020-07-11 This picture book presents the Bible's creation narrative in the form of poetry and digital art. The author and his team took time and effort to make sure that everything delivered in rhyme and art is consistent with that the Bible reveals The entire creation narrative can be read in Genesis 1 and 2 which tells us that God created the universe out of nothing In six 24 hour days God made a universe that is majestic and beautiful From the largest heavenly bodies to the smallest creature that has life God's creation was flawless The climax of His creation of course was humankind because both man and woman were created in God's image and likeness After their creation He declared that everything He made in the universe was very good Thus on the seventh day He rested from all His work This picture book is just the First Episode in the larger series of poems titled The Gospel in Poetry which the author who is also the illustrator is still working on with his pen and drawing tablet In God's time the next episodes will be made available for readers as well

Light on the Gospel Edwin an Abbott, 2016-10-17 Excerpt from Light on the Gospel From an Ancient Poet More important still is a third question Has this pseudonymous poet anything of his own to say Is he really a poet or only a quoter of poetry Justin Martyr for example quotes poetry by the yard but is no poet Clement of Rome and Ignatius quote comparatively little but have something of the Passion of poetry Barnabas quotes almost as abundantly as inaccurately and has some original fancies and conceits but no poetry Is this poet like any of these or altogether Unlike Even if he does not quote he must mingle with poets Spin poetry entirely out of their own consciousness without a particle of indebtedness to some predecessors What does this poet imply The Old Testament or the New If the Old then what books most of all If the New what gospels Or what epistles if any If neither Old nor New then what writers Greek or Jewish or both P About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Gospel of John in Poem and Image Samuel Rahberg, 2016-12-11 In the beginning was the Word The Gospel of John opens with rich poetic imagery and unfolds into twenty one chapters full of symbols and signs that point to Jesus Christ as truly human and truly divine This collection of fifty six reader's poems combined with twenty six original pieces of art printed in full color offers an inviting first read to those new to the Gospel and fresh perspective to those long familiar with its themes There is no substitute for reading the Scriptures themselves again and again This resource in fact flows directly from that kind of sustained reading Like artists throughout the centuries siblings Samuel Rahberg and Natalie Rahberg have employed the disciplines of writing and visual art to share with others the fruits of their own prayer May each reader be led back to the Christ revealed in the Gospel of John Samuel Rahberg is a spiritual director and author in Saint Paul MN Natalie Rahberg is a working artist in McKinney TX

Gospel Poems Jeff Eyde, 2021-03-16 Over the past twenty years I have penned many different poems This book is a small collection of Gospel

poems All of them were inspired by the Holy Spirit so that whoever reads them may know the true author is Christ In doing so you will give glory and honor unto God our Heavenly Father Some of them are short and to the point Others I am sure will leave you questioning your own faith My hope and prayer is they will challenge and inspire you to read your Bible There are only twenty five poems in this little book If you are blessed to own one please read them slowly with an open heart allowing God s grace to fill you with his love joy and peace that surpasses all understanding through his revelation The Gospel as Poetry Kealoha Wells,2005-08 The Gospel written down as rhyme along with the books of Acts James Jude and Revelation Kids love it and so do the grown ups Click on the book to read a preview and see what others have had to say Oh and most importantly have a great day Whatever Happened to Delight? J. Barrie Shepherd,2006-01-01 Preaching is an art J Barrie Shepherd argues and the sermon is an art form an exercise in creativity and imagination But all too often preaching suffers from a lack of imagination and a loss of the joy and wonder that attracted the crowds to Jesus words two thousand years ago In this book based on his 2003 Beecher Lectures at Yale Divinity School Shepherd hopes to encourage the preacher toward a more creative vision for the sermon His approach is spontaneous eclectic intuitive and daring Shepherd s purpose is to encourage the preacher to think of life as filled with God s presence to search for the presence and to use images and words to unveil that presence The end result is a sermon that is full of astonishment and delight The Gospel Tragedy Thomas Brockway,1795 The Gospel Poetry Juanita Simmons,2013-09-03 Jesus I love you so very much I wish I could take you out to lunch Im not trying to pull no punch But we can always stay in touch The Gospel of Matthew T. E. Clontz,J. Clontz,2017-06-04 The Gospel of Matthew contains poems by Jesus John the Baptist the Angel of the Lord as well as other individuals in the Gospel Jesus creates several poems in the Gospel of Matthew Chief among these poems is the Lord s Prayer The Lord s Prayer incorporates an amazing series of rhymes based on the Hebrew word for Forgive The verses immediately before and after the Lord s Prayer contain a series of rhymes based on the Hebrew word for Reward The entire poetic structure is composed of three stanzas The first and last stanzas utilize a rhyming wordplay for Reward that brackets the rhyming wordplay in the middle stanza for Forgive The transitions in rhyme match the transitions in conceptualization in the passage Jesus also creates a poem using performance art in the passage concerning the fig tree in Matthew 21 19 The Hebrew word for fig tree is spelled the same as the Hebrew word used in Judges 14 4 for occasion ground of quarrel Jesus uses performance art to create an implied wordplay involving the double entendre for fig tree occasion ground of quarrel Jesus actions obviously depict a quarrel with the fig tree yet the word Quarrel never appears in the verse On a literary and media basis this is the highest form of literary connection possible where the poet creates portions of the poem through their actions and not only by their words This passage is one of the oldest historical examples of performance poetry John the Baptist creates a poem during his dialogue with the Pharisees in Matthew 3 7 9 His poem is comprised of three rhyming couplets that form an AABCBC rhyme scheme The first rhyming couplet is based on the Hebrew word for Pharisee and the Hebrew term for Bearing Fruit This rhyming couplet also appears in several passages in the Gospel of Matthew as part of Jesus dialogue with the Pharisees The second couplet utilizes wordplay between Hebraic terms for God and Raise Up This particular wordplay reappears near the end of the Gospel of Matthew as part of the narrative for the resurrection Thus this rhyming couplet from John the Baptist s dialogue with the Pharisees foreshadows Jesus resurrection The third couplet employs a wordplay between the Hebrew words for Son and Stone This is the most prevalent wordplay in the Gospel of Matthew and appears in many passages including The Temptation The Sermon on the Mount The Confession of Peter The Olivet Discourse and The Passion The Angel of the Lord creates a portion of a poem concerning The Nativity in Matthew 1 18 25 The angel contributes three rhyming couplets The first couplet is a wordplay on the Hebrew words for Conceived and Holy Spirit The second couplet is the well known Hebrew rhyme between Jesus and Save This couplet reappears during the crucifixion where the rhyme adds dramatic tension to the events at the cross The third couplet is between the Hebrew words for People and Sins This particular rhyme is notable since it expands the rhyme from the Old Testament passage from Isaiah that is quoted immediately afterwards which includes the words Virgin Immanuel and God With Us

The Gospel of John as Genre Mosaic Kasper Bro Larsen, 2015-10-28 In recent decades New Testament scholarship has developed an increasing interest in how the Gospel of John interacts with literary conventions of genre and form in the ancient Jewish and Greco Roman context The present volume brings together leading scholars in the field in order to discuss the status quaestionis and to identify new exegetical frontiers In the Fourth Gospel genres and forms serve as vehicles of ideological and theological meaning The contributions to this volume aim at demonstrating how awareness of ancient and modern genre theories and practices advances our understanding of the Fourth Gospel both in terms of the text as a whole gospel ancient biography drama romance etc and in terms of the various literary tiles that contribute to the Gospel s genre mosaic
