First Corinthians Bible Commentary - a Bible commentary on First Corinthians, This verse by verse commentary on First Corinthians offers a thorough but very understandable commentary on the entirety of Paul's letter to the Corinthians. Since the First Corinthians letter touches on a number of different subjects, this volume also offers some special studies to more fully explore what the Bible says on additional topics like civil government, the role of women in the church, spiritual gifts, etc. If you want to have a better understanding of First Corinthians, this commentary will help you. Here is a small sample of the text.

Introduction to First Corinthians 13. Some consider 1 Cor 13 the love chapter of the Bible or a parenthetical description of love, but this chapter is actually an integral part of Paul's discussion about spiritual gifts. Since the Corinthians were rude, jealous, and boastful, it was necessary for them to go beyond their present pursuit. To the apostle, the development of the character of the person was superior to the exercise of the gift. His contrasts chap 13 are clear: gifts without love vs gifts with love and the permanence of love vs the temporal nature of gifts. Gromacki p 159. Stated another way, verses 1-3 affirm that spiritual gifts were worthless without love; verses 4-7 affirm that love was superior to the gifts; and verses 8-13 assert that spiritual gifts were temporal but love abides. Although 1 Cor 13 may seem familiar to many, this chapter is often one of the most misunderstood parts of the New Testament. The Corinthians' elevation of spiritual gifts over love is seen in places such as 12:13, 25:14, 27:33, 40. It is also found by contrasting the qualities in 1 Cor 13 with other sections of this epistle. For instance, love suffers long (13:4) but tongue speakers at Corinth were impatient (14:27, 28). Love does not envy (13:4) but the Corinthians envied the gifts of others (chapter 12). Love is not puffed up (13:4) but tongue speakers were proud (compare 13:1). Love causes people to act in a kind and orderly way, but some of the Corinthians' behavior was disorderly (14:23, 40). Love is not unseemly, but the Corinthians were at risk of unseemly behavior in their families (1 Cor 7:36) as well as their Sunday assemblies (1 Cor 11:2, 16:17, 34). Agape love does not seek its own (13:5) but these Christians were seeking their own (see 1 Cor 8) and the discussion about idol meat. Love keeps people from rejoicing in evil (13:6) but the Corinthians rejoiced in evil (1 Cor 5:2, 6). There were various things that provoked these brethren (13:5) and it seems they were keeping a record of evil (1 Cor 13:5). It was time for the members of this congregation to show some spiritual maturity and demonstrate the type of love that bears all things, believes all things, hopes in all things, and endures all things (1 Cor 13:7).

The Gospel of Mark John R. Donahue, Daniel J. Harrington, 2005 In The Gospel of Mark Fathers Donahue and Harrington use an approach that can be expressed by two terms currently used in literary criticism intratextuality and intertextuality This intratextual and intertextual reading of Mark's Gospel helps us to appreciate the literary character its setting in life and its distinctive approaches to the Old Testament Jesus and early Christian theology Intratextuality means we read Mark as Mark and by Mark Such a reading expresses interest in the final form of the Gospel not its source or literary history and in its words and images literary devices literary forms structures characterization and plot Reading Mark by Mark gives particular attention to the distinctive vocabulary and themes that run throughout the Gospel and serve to hold it together as a unified literary production Intertextuality comprises the relation between texts and a textual tradition and also referring to contextual materials not usually classified as texts e g archaeological data Intertextuality is used to note the links of the text of Mark's Gospel to other texts especially the Old Testament and to the life of the Markan community and of the Christian community today

Revelation in the Fourth Gospel: And Eight Johannine Essays Gail R. O'Day, 2021-03-05 About this Book Gail R O Day's Revelation in the Fourth Gospel set the stage for a new literary paradigm in Johannine studies which has carried over into disciplinary advances in gospel criticism overall With the addition of eight key Johannine essays and a state of the art introduction by Alan Culpepper this new publication as Volume 9 in the Johannine Monograph Series advances a fuller appreciation of her important work on John and new literary biblical analyses overall From the Preface What becomes apparent in an overview of Gail O Day's work is her keen analysis of relations and functions of literary themes and features within the Gospel of John as they further its rhetorical thrust elucidating its meaning Whereas diachronic approaches to John have tended to compartmentalize and divide sections and literary forms O Day shows time and again how things worked synchronically within John's story of Jesus challenging misinterpretations and opening doors to understanding more fully its message The present collection highlights the dialectics between narrative and theology time and space and characters and plot in the Fourth Gospel clarifying their tense presentations within this classic narrative

The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark Gregg S Morrison, 2015-02-26 Based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark argues that the twin pericopae of Peter's confession 8:27-38 and the Transfiguration 9:2-13 together function as the turning point of the Gospel and serve in a Janus-like manner enabling the reader to see the author's main focus the identity of Jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples Peter's confession of Jesus as Messiah faces backward toward the Prologue 1 1 13 and functions as a mid course conclusion The declaration by God on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end course conclusion 14 61 62 15 39 Son of God Jesus in response teaches that the Son of Man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8 31 Christologically the images of Messiah Son of Man and Son of God converge and present Jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of God in power 9 1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae When one is confronted with this Jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of God in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8 34 38 is to follow

James, First Peter, Jude, Second Peter Patrick J. Hartin, 2016-12-01 Who would not relish the opportunity to read two thousand year old letters These four of the seven catholic letters are addressed not to any specific church as are Paul's epistles but to the church in general Giving us valuable insights into early Christianity they insist on the need to join good works with faith present Jesus sufferings as the model for enduring persecution and warn against intruders intent on undermining traditional faith and morals Far from being mere exercises in nostalgia for the good ol days the letters offer principles that have not lost their value for the Church of the third millennium Patrick Hartin's clarity and conciseness update the Church's earliest struggles to remain faithful to the spirit of Jesus Christ These are letters for us today too Fr Patrick J Hartin PhD is professor
