Combining intellectual and social history Teresita Martinez Vergne explores the processes by which people in the Dominican Republic began to hammer out a common sense of purpose and a modern national identity at the end of the nineteenth and beginning of the twentieth centuries Hoping to build a nation of hardworking peaceful voting citizens the Dominican intelligentsia impressed on the rest of society a discourse of modernity based on secular education private property modern agricultural techniques and an open political process Black immigrants bourgeois women and working class men and women in the capital city of Santo Domingo and in the booming sugar town of San Pedro de Macoris however formed their own surprisingly modern notions of citizenship in daily interactions with city officials Martinez Vergne shows just how difficult it was to reconcile the lived realities of people of color women and the working poor with elite notions of citizenship entitlement and identity She concludes that the urban setting rather than defusing the impact of race class and gender within a collective sense of belonging as intellectuals had envisioned instead contributed to keeping these distinctions intact thus limiting what could be considered Dominican Historical Traveler's Guide to Florida Eliot Kleinberg,2015-10-17 From Fort Pickens in the Panhandle to Fort Jefferson in the ocean 40 miles beyond Key West historical travelers will find many adventures waiting for them in Florida In this new updated edition the author presents 74 of his favorites 17 of them are new to this edition and the rest have been completely updated Along the Gulf Coast see Henry Plant s Moorish jewel of a hotel in Tampa John Ringling s home and art and circus museums in Sarasota and the humble homes of Cuban and Italian cigar workers in legendary Ybor City Up in north Florida visit Civil War battlefields stroll the University of Florida campus and see buffalo and wild Spanish horses on Paynes Prairie In central Florida explore Eatonville home of writer Zora Neale Hurston and listen to carillon music as you stroll the gardens around Bok Tower Down in the keys find the 250 year old wreck of the San Pedro a living museum in the sea and the Key West home of famous author Ernest Hemingway Department of the Interior and related agencies appropriations for 2004 United States.
