School Library Journal, 2010 It's So French! Vanessa R. Schwartz, 2007-12-15 The recent history of cultural exchange between France and the United States would appear to be defined by freedom fries and boycotts against Beaujolais or on the other side of the Atlantic by enraged farmers toppling statues of Ronald McDonald But this dismal state of affairs is a long way from the mutual admiration that followed World War II epitomized in a 1958 cover of Look magazine that declared Brigitte Bardot conquers America It's So French explores the close affinity between the French and American film industries that flourished in the postwar years breaking down myths of American imperialism and French cultural protectionism while illuminating the vital role that cinema has played in the globalization of culture Hollywood was once enamored with everything French and this infatuation blossomed in a wildly popular series of films including An American in Paris Gigi and Funny Face Schwartz here examines the visual appeal of such films and then broadens her analysis to explore their production and distribution probing the profitable influences that Hollywood and Paris exerted on each other This exchange moved beyond individual films with the sensational spectacle of the Cannes Film Festival and the meteoric career of Brigitte Bardot And in turn their success led to a new kind of film that celebrated internationalism and cultural hybridity Ultimately Schwartz uncovers an intriguing paradox that the road to globalization was paved with nationalist clichés and thus films beloved for being so French were in fact the first signs of a nascent cosmopolitan culture Packed with an array of colorful film stills publicity photographs paparazzi shots ads and never before seen archival images It's So French is an incisive account of the fertile collaboration between France and the United States that expanded the geographic horizons of both filmmaking and filmgoing forever changing what the world saw and dreamed of when they went to the movies Junior Libraries, 1956 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1925 Wilson Library Bulletin Stanley Kunitz, Marie Duvernoy Loizeaux, 1956 Quarterly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library Providence Public Library (R.I.), 1922
