Planet Ocean Sara Holden, 2007 Co published by Greenpeace Through stunning photographs taken on a 16 month Defending Our Oceans expedition Greenpeace reveals wonderful sights that few people have seen and also some that certain people would like us not to see Despite the vastness of the oceans we now know that they are in crisis struggling to absorb the impact of our destructive ways This is the story of our oceans their extraordinary beauty and diversity of life and the equally astounding ways in which they are exploited Photographs by Daniel Beltra Climate Change in the South Pacific: Impacts and Responses in Australia, New Zealand, and Small Island States Alexander Gillespie, William C.G.
Burns, 1999-11-30 ALEXANDER GILLESPIE WILLIAM C G BURNS The idea for this book grew out of the Ecopolitics conference in Canberra Australia in 1996 The conference captured the ferment of the climate change debate in the South Pacific as well as some its potential implications for the region s inhabitants and e systems At that conference one of the editors Gillespie delivered a paper on climate change issues in the region as did Ros Taplin and Mark Diesendorf who are also c tributors to this volume This book focuses on climate change issues in Australia New Zealand and the small island nations in the Pacific as the world struggles to cope with possible the impacts of environmental change and to formulate effective responses While Australia and New Zealand's per capita emissions of greenhouse gases are among the highest in the world their aggregate contributions are small However both nations may exert a disprop tionate influence in the global greenhouse debate because their obstinate positions at recent conferences of the parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on C mate Change FCCC may provide justification for other developed nations as well as developing countries to refuse to make meaningful reductions in their greenhouse gas emissions Biodiversity and Climate Change Adaptation in Tropical Islands Chandrakasan Sivaperuman, A. Velmurugan, Awnindra Kumar Singh, I. Jaisankar, 2018-04-05 Biodiversity and Climate Change Adaptation in Tropical Islands provides comprehensive information on climate change biodiversity possible impacts adaptation measures and policy challenges to help users rehabilitate and preserve the natural resources of tropical islands While biodiversity and climate change of tropical islands has previously received less attention it is ironically one of the most vulnerable regions in this regard The core content of the work derives largely from the ideas and research output from various reputed scientists and experts who have recorded climate change impacts on aquatic and coastal life in tropical regions Contributors have direct working experience with the tribes in some of the tropical islands All of their expertise and information is compiled and presented in the work including coverage related to climate change This work highlights the ever growing need to develop and apply strategies that optimize the use of natural resources both on land and in water and judicious use of biodiversity It functions as a critical resource on tropical island biodiversity for researchers academicians practitioners and policy makers in a variety of related disciplines Covers a huge range of biodiversity documentation conservation measures and strategies that can be applied to various sectors from forests to agriculture Brings together expertise from researchers in the area who have direct experience in the regions described Contains a wealth of field research related to biodiversity conservation and its applications from a variety of tropical islands Make It a Green Peace! Frank Zelko, 2013-05-30 The emergence of Greenpeace in the late 1960s from a loose knit group of anti nuclear and anti whaling activists fundamentally changed the nature of environmentalism its purpose philosophy and tactics around the world And yet there has been no comprehensive objective history of Greenpeace's origins until now Make It a Green Peace draws upon meeting minutes internal correspondence manifestos philosophical writings and interviews with former members to offer the first full account of the origins of what has become the most recognizable environmental non governmental organization in the world Situating Greenpeace within the peace movement and counterculture of the 1960s Frank Zelko provides a much deeper treatment of the group's groundbreaking brand of radical media savvy direct action environmentalism than has been previously attempted Zelko traces the complex intellectual and cultural roots of Greenpeace to the various protest movements of the 1950s and 1960s highlighting the influence of Quakerism with its practice of bearing
