Bleakridge on the hill between Bursley and Hanbridge Mrs Carpole was the second Mrs Carpole and her husband was dead She had a stepson Horace and a son of her own Sidney Horace is the hero or the villain of the history On the day when the unfortunate affair began he was nineteen years old and a model youth Not only was he getting on in business not only did he give half his evenings to the study of the chemistry of pottery and the other half to various secretaryships in connection with the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel and Sunday school not only did he save money not only was he a comfort to his stepmother and a sort of uncle to Sidney not only was he an early riser a total abstainer a non smoker and a good listener but in addition to the practice of these manifold and rare virtues he found time even at that tender age to pay his tailor s bill promptly and to fold his trousers in the same crease every night so that he always looked neat and dignified Strange to say he made no friends Perhaps he was just a thought too perfect for a district like the Five Towns a sin or so might have endeared him to the entire neighbourhood Perhaps his loneliness was due to his imperfect sense of humour or perhaps to the dull unsmiling heaviness of his somewhat flat features

Arnold Bennett,1964 Tales of the Five Towns Arnold Bennett (Schriftsteller, Grossbritannien),1964 The Grim Smile of the Five Towns Arnold Bennett,2013-02-17 People were talking to each other as they groped about in the road and either making jokes at the expense of the new Electricity Department or frankly cursing it with true Five Towns directness of speech And as Mr Blackshaw went down the hill into the town his heart was as black as the street itself with rage and disappointment He had made his child cry The Grim Smile of the Five Towns Arnold Bennett,1907 The grim smile of the Five Towns Sandrine Target,1995 The Grim Smile of the Five Towns Arnold Bennett,2021-01-21 In the Five Towns the following history is related by those who know it as something sidesplittingly funny as one of the best jokes that ever occurred in a district devoted to jokes And I too have hitherto regarded it as such But upon my soul now that I come to write it down it strikes me as being after all a pretty grim tragedy However you shall judge and laugh or cry as you please It began in the little house of Mrs Carpole up at Bleakridge on the hill between Bursley and Hanbridge Mrs Carpole was the second Mrs Carpole and her husband was dead She had a stepson Horace and a son of her own Sidney Horace is the hero or the villain of the history On the day when the unfortunate affair began he was nineteen years old and a model youth Not only was he getting on in business not only did he give half his evenings to the study of the chemistry of pottery and the other half to various secretaryships in connection with the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel and Sunday school not only did he save money not only was he a comfort to his stepmother and a sort of uncle to Sidney not only was he an early riser a total abstainer a non smoker and a good listener but in addition to the practice of these manifold and rare virtues he found time even at that tender age to pay his tailor s bill promptly and to fold his trousers in the same crease every night so that he always looked neat and dignified Strange to say he made no friends Perhaps he was just a thought too perfect for a district like the Five Towns a sin or so might have endeared him to the entire neighbourhood Perhaps his loneliness was due to his imperfect sense of humour or perhaps to the dull unsmiling heaviness of his somewhat flat features Sidney was quite a different story Sidney to use his mother's phrase was a little jockey His years were then eight Fair haired and blue eyed as most little jockeys are he had a smile and a scowl that were equally effective in tyrannizing over both his mother and Horace and he was beloved by everybody Women turned to look at him in the street Unhappily his health was not good He was afflicted by a slight deafness which however the doctor said he would grow out of the doctor predicted for him a lusty manhood In the meantime he caught every disease that happened to be about and nearly died of each one His latest acquisition had been scarlet fever Now one afternoon after he had peeled and his room had been disinfected and he was beginning to walk again Horace came home and decided that Sidney should be brought downstairs for tea as a treat to celebrate his convalescence and that he Horace would carry him downstairs Mrs Carpole was delighted with the idea and Sidney also except that Sidney did not want to be carried downstairs he wanted to walk down
