The Gospel and Islam Don M. McCurry, 1979      American Christians and Islam Thomas S. Kidd, 2018-06-05 In the wake of the September 11 terrorist attacks many of America's Christian evangelicals have denounced Islam as a demonic and inherently violent religion provoking frustration among other Christian conservatives who wish to present a more appealing message to the world's Muslims Yet as Thomas Kidd reveals in this sobering book the conflicted views expressed by today's evangelicals have deep roots in American history Tracing Islam's role in the popular imagination of American Christians from the colonial period to today Kidd demonstrates that Protestant evangelicals have viewed Islam as a global threat while also actively seeking to convert Muslims to the Christian faith since the nation's founding He shows how accounts of Mahometan despotism and lurid stories of European enslavement by Barbary pirates fueled early evangelicals' fears concerning Islam and describes the growing conservatism of American missions to Muslim lands up through the post World War II era Kidd exposes American Christians' anxieties about an internal Islamic threat from groups like the Nation of Islam in the 1960s and America's immigrant Muslim population today and he demonstrates why Islam has become central to evangelical end times narratives Pointing to many evangelicals' unwillingness to acknowledge Islam's theological commonalities with Christianity and their continued portrayal of Islam as an evil and false religion Kidd explains why Christians themselves are ironically to blame for the failure of evangelism in the Muslim world American Christians and Islam is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the causes of the mounting tensions between Christians and Muslims today      Muslim Evangelism Phil Parshall, 2003-08-01 Responding to the relative failure of Christians to evangelize Muslims Phil Parshall poses difficult questions about what is and is not essential to the Christian witness in Islamic contexts      The African Christian and Islam John Azumah, Lamin Sanneh, 2013-06-14 During the summer of 2010 Ghana played host to the first ever conference held within Africa to focus solely on the relationship of the African Christian and Islam The event was led by John Azumah in partnership with the Center of Early African Theology The conference chaired by Archbishop John Olorunfemi Onaiyekan of Abuja welcomed over 50 participants from across 27 African countries and several denominations This book is a collection of the papers presented by 22 of the delegates forming a historical survey and thematic assessment of the African Christian and Islam In addition key information on the introduction, spread and engagement of Islam and Christianity within 9 African countries is presented The book closes with Biblical reflections that opened each day of the conference providing useful examples of Christians reading the Bible in reference to Islam      Toward a Healthier Contextualization among Muslims Wonjoo Hwang, 2019-01-23 Various ministry approaches have been utilized in Muslim nations in the past in order to lead lost souls into God's Kingdom One noticeable trend in recent years in the ministry is an increasing emphasis on contextualization While the evangelical missiological community searches for more effective contextualization models some ad hoc proposals have complicated the issue One representative case is the Insider Movement among Muslims whose advocates contend that Muslim followers of Isa Jesus can remain within their own Islamic socio religious community while continuing in Islamic religious practices What is urgently needed in the contemporary discussion on contextualization is to develop a comprehensive analytical framework based on a sound biblical theological foundation for evaluating any missiological model After reviewing the historical development of Muslim evangelism models this study provides such an analytical framework for developing a healthier contextualization model among Muslims and applies this framework to the Insider Movement by critically evaluating the biblical interpretations and missiological reasonings of the Insider Movement advocates The writer calls for a healthier contextualization model among Muslims that is biblically authentic and culturally relevant The Arabian Mission's Story Lewis R. Scudder,1998 Volume 30 recounts the eighty year long history of the RCA s mission work in the Middle East written by a missionary who has spent decades in the Arabian Gulf Including instructive discussion of missiological themes as well as the narrative of the church s daily work in Arabia this volume is not only of denominational interest but will also provide important insights for mission students and those actively involved in a mission field

Contextualization in World Missions A. Moreau, Contextualization is the art of translating ideas into a particular situation place or culture It is fundamental to communication which makes contextualization essential in missions This textbook pulls together and maps the variety of evangelical approaches to contextualization Introductory classes on contextualization and missionary preparation institutes will appreciate this valuable textbook Contextualization in Missions will guide mission minded Christians to an informed plan for spreading the gospel effectively While written with a theoretical perspective Contextualization in Missions also provides real world examples to provoke both thought and action Miracles : 2 Volumes Craig S. Keener,2011-11-01 Christianity Today 2013 Book Award Winner Winner of The Foundation for Pentecostal Scholarship s 2012 Award of Excellence 2011 Book of the Year Christianbook com s Academic Blog Most modern prejudice against biblical miracle reports depends on David Hume s argument that uniform human experience precluded miracles Yet current research shows that human experience is far from uniform In fact hundreds of millions of people today claim to have experienced miracles New Testament scholar Craig Keener argues that it is time to rethink Hume s argument in light of the contemporary evidence available to us This wide ranging and meticulously researched two volume study presents the most thorough current defense of the credibility of the miracle reports in the Gospels and Acts Drawing on claims from a range of global cultures and taking a multidisciplinary approach to the topic Keener suggests that many miracle accounts throughout history and from contemporary times are best explained as genuine divine acts lending credence to the biblical miracle reports Receptor-Oriented Communication for Hui Muslims in China Enoch Jinsik Kim,2018-04-18 There are many books that highlight the need and importance of mission toward unreached people Unfortunately few of them deal with the importance of understanding the real life of unreached people and how to analyze them This book identifies conceptual issues for the development of receptor oriented communication strategies among young educated urban Hui YEU Hui

Muslims in China's northwestern cities in order to achieve culturally relevant churches in those areas. It is written to help not only those who are interested in the unreached but also those who are interested in Muslim evangelism, urban sociology, biblical exegesis, contextual church planting, communication, and mission strategy. Enoch Jinsik Kim utilizes a new approach: virtual community mission for planting offline churches that integrates the use of local church-driven Internet community, traditional media, and offline task teams from a multi-ethnic local church. While the research focuses on the Chinese Muslim context, the identification of the young urban and educated as a strategic group for mission can be applied in other Muslim and non-Muslim contexts. This research is useful to cross-cultural communicators, church planters, and all those interested in interpersonal relationships.

The Asianization of Christianity Jonathan D. James, 2024. The Asianization of Christianity is a catalyst to change the mission landscape of Asia by making the Gospel more accessible to Hindus, Buddhists, Muslims, Animists, and others. It is hoped that a new generation of mission leaders will use these culturally specific principles to build bridges from the heart of God to the heart of Asian cultures.

The Good News of The Kingdom Charles E. Van Engen, Dean S. Gilliland, 1999-09-17. The Cross in the Shadow of the Crescent Erwin W. Lutzer, 2013-02-01. Islam is on the rise all over the West, including America. In this compelling new book, bestselling author Erwin Lutzer urges Christians to see this as both an opportunity to share the gospel and a reason for concern. We have now reached a tipping point; the spread of Islam is rapidly altering the way we live. These changes are cause for alarm for they endanger our freedoms of speech and religion. At the same time, this opens an incredible door of ministry for Christians. For Muslims normally do not have access to the gospel in their own lands. In The Cross in the Shadow of the Crescent, readers will discover helpful answers to these questions and more: How does Islam's growing influence affect me personally? In what ways are our freedoms of speech and religion in danger? How can I extend Christ's love to Muslims around me? A sensitive, responsible, and highly informative must read.

Understanding Insider Movements Harley Talman, John Jay Travis, 2015-09-01. For the first time in history, large numbers of people from the world's major non-Christian religions are following Jesus as Lord. Surprisingly for many Western Christians, they are choosing to do so within the religious communities of their birth and outside of institutional Christianity. How does this work, and how should we respond to these movements? This long-awaited anthology brings together some of the best writings on the topic of insider movements. Diverse voices explore this phenomenon from the perspectives of Scripture, history, theology, missiology, and the experience and identity of insider believers. Those who are unfamiliar with the subject will find this book a crucial guide to a complex conversation. Students and instructors of mission will find it useful as a reader and reference volume. Field workers and agencies will discover in these chapters welcome starting points for dialogue and clearer communication. The first book to provide a comprehensive survey of the topic of insider movements, Understanding Insider Movements is an indispensable companion for those who want to glimpse the creative, unexpected, boundary-crossing ways God is at work among the peoples of the world in their diverse religious communities.

Contextualization or

Syncretism? Derek Brotherson, 2021-11-11 As Christians seek to follow Paul's example of becoming like all people in order to win them to Christ a key question arises How far is too far Is there a point where appropriate contextualization becomes gospel distorting syncretism With the growing prominence of Insider Movements in the Muslim majority world in recent decades these questions have become especially urgent and hotly debated Based on an in depth biblical theological study of key Bible texts used by Insider Movement proponents and critics this book provides a ground breaking new assessment tool for distinguishing contextualization from syncretism It provides an invaluable resource for those engaged in ministry amongst Muslims for those with questions about Insider Movement practices and for all who seek to grow in their understanding and practice of biblically grounded and authentic contextualization of the gospel The Word Among Us

Siddiqui, 1997-02-19 The book describes the challenge of modernity faced by Muslims and Christians and the issue of religious pluralism It describes Muslims encounters with Christianity in the first half of this century and their participation in organised dialogues initiated by the Churches in the second half It highlights their apprehensions and expectations in dialogue and issues of co existence in the world today The book focuses on six prominent Muslim personalities who represent a wide spectrum of Muslim opinion and three international organizations and their attitude towards dialogue World Christianity in Muslim Encounter

Pate, 2022-04-22 To Every People From Every People trains people to plant reproducing churches in the mainstream of unreached cultures around the world There are over two billion people living in over seven thousand such cultures who will never have an adequate chance to know Christ as Lord and Savior unless someone plants churches in the mainstream of their culture and language group This book teaches clearly and biblically about why that is important More important it teaches you how to do it It focuses on practical subjects like how to learn another language without studying it in a school and how to make an effective strategy It actually walks you through case studies with illustrations so you can get a mental picture of how to plant reproducing churches in the mainstream of any people group An earlier version of this book was originally written specifically for Latin America It was published by Editora Vida Miami Florida in several editions of Spanish and Portuguese It has long been the best selling book of its kind for many years This English edition has been revised and updated for a global English speaking audience Many thousands of people have used this book to plant new churches in other cultures and even in their own cultures The anthropological communications and sociological principles in this book have also helped people understand the Bible better and how to apply its truths anywhere Most of all this book is designed to implant vision and passion for cross cultural ministry in the mind and heart of the reader It creates a mental image of how to do it It is a powerful tool intended for the Holy Spirit to use to thrust forth dedicated and effective laborers into the unreached harvest fields of the world

Appropriate Christianity Charles H. Kraft, 2005 Appropriate Christianity consists of 28 chapters by 18 authors approaching contextualization in three dimensions truth allegiance and spiritual power Over the years there have been quite a number of helpful discussions of the contextualization of theological truth Though we have been helped greatly by them it is high time we began to deal also with allegiance and spiritual power two additional dimensions that Jesus considered of great importance Any adequate and appropriate treatment of the contextualization of biblical Christianity needs to deal with all three of these 2crucial dimensions 3 For allegiance to Christ is the basis for all we do that makes us Christian and Jesus was very much into spiritual power If we are to be truly biblical we must deal also with these areas
