The tremendous 25-year success of Colt's Browning-designed Model of 1911, .45 caliber pistol was the result of fifteen years of steady design refinement. Colt's skill in manufacturing and marketing to the government and John M. Browning's inventive genius were complemented by a highly professional U.S. Army Ordnance Department. Together they formed a technological juggernaut which simply overran the competition in the quest for adoption of the Model of 1911 as the nation's Government Model Pistol.

This book tells the story of the exciting development process in carefully
