The Great Exhibition Tobin Andrews Sparling,1982-01-01      The Great Exhibition Tobin Andrews Sparling,1982

The Objects and Textures of Everyday Life in Imperial Britain Janet C. Myers,Deirdre H. McMahon,2017-05-15

Focusing on everyday life in nineteenth century Britain and its imperial possessions from preparing tea to cleaning the kitchen from packing for imperial adventures to arranging home decor the essays in this collection share a common focus on materiality the nitty gritty elements that helped give shape and meaning to British self definition during the period Each essay demonstrates how preoccupations with common household goods and habits fueled contemporary debates about cultural institutions ranging from personal matters of marriage and family to more overtly political issues of empire building While existing scholarship on material culture in the nineteenth century has centered on artifacts in museums and galleries this collection brings together disparate fields history of design landscape history childhood studies and feminist and postcolonial literary studies to focus on ordinary objects and practices with specific attention to how Britons of all classes established the tenets of domesticity as central to individual happiness national security and imperial hegemony

The Great Exhibition Tobin Andrews Sparling,1982      Record of the Great Exhibition 1862 Weltausstellung (1862, London),1862      The Great Exhibition of the World's Industry Held in London in 1851: Described and Illustrated by ... Engravings, from Daguerrotypes by Beard, Mayall, Etc William Gaspey,1852      The Great Exhibition of 1851 Jeffrey A. Auerbach,1999-01-01 The book challenges the common view that the Exhibition symbolized peace progress prosperity and the emergence of an industrial middle class Auerbach suggests instead that the Great Exhibition became a cultural battlefield on which proponents of different visions of industrialization modernization and internationalism fought for ascendancy in the struggle for a new national identity

BOOK JACKET      Reconstructing Architecture for the Twenty-first Century Anthony Jackson,1995-01-01 Jackson exposes the inadequacies of old conceptions of architecture as embodying metaphysical properties and of architects as the sole keepers of this esoteric knowledge He challenges architects to acknowledge and celebrate building as an expression of the ideals and values of the broader based classless communities to which they now belong

Varieties of Victorianism Gary Day,1998-11-12 The essays collected here all take issue with the claim that the Victorian period is the antithesis of our own They show how characteristic postmodern anxieties and celebrations concerning truth certainty and identity informed Victorian culture at all levels Covering everything from attitudes to drink to the poetry of Browning from the Great Exhibition to the Elephant Man this volume shows not only how the Victorians coped with these challenges but also what lessons they have for us today

Architectural Ornament Brent C. Broolin,2000 Embellishment is a basic human need Why was it banished from modern architecture      The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp,2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students

Journal of the Society of Arts, 1896      The Illustrated Catalogue of the Universal Exhibition Published with the Art Journal Art Journal (London), 1868      The Significance of Fabrics in the Writings of Elizabeth Gaskell Amanda Ford, 2022-12-30 Elizabeth Gaskell's writings abound in references to a cultural materiality encompassing different types of fabric stuffs calicoes chintzes and fine point lace These are not merely the motifs of the Realist genre but reveal a complex polysemy Utilizing a metonymic examination of these tropes this volume exposes the dramatic structural and socio economic upheaval generated by industrialization urbanization and the widening sphere of empire The material evidence testifies to the technological and production innovations evolving diachronically for the period and the evolution of Manchester as the industrial Cottonopolis that clothed the world by the 1840s This volume analyses Gaskell's manipulation of the materiality arguing its firm roots lie in the quotidian of women's domestic and provincial life within the growing ranks of the middle classes Exploring Gaskell's tactile imagination an embodied relationship with fabrics and sewing a function of her daily life from an early age this volume provides insight into the sensory aspects of cloth and its ability to stir affective responses emotions and memories whereby worn fabrics and even the absence of previous textile treasures is poignant recreating layers of recollection This book aims to restore the pulsating dynamic context of ordinary women's dressed lives and presents innovative interpretations of Gaskell's texts Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce, 1860 Artbibliographies Modern, 1984 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1856 The London Review of Politics, Society, Literature, Art, & Science, 1865 Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1855 The Architect, 1876
