consequently, there, the entrepreneur's commitment and responsibility regarding the business does not therefore for entrepreneurship and starting a business is mostly to secure the existence of the business and more than anything the survival of the business is considered as the main objective. Therefore, the main difference between entrepreneurship and business is that,

Information about a company's financial position is also provided by the balance sheet. The balance sheet is a statement of the company's assets, liabilities, and equity at a specific point in time. It is often referred to as the "snapshot" of the company's financial position. The balance sheet is divided into three main sections: assets, liabilities, and equity. Assets are the resources owned by the company, liabilities are the obligations or debts of the company, and equity is the ownership interest in the company. The balance sheet is a key component of the financial statements and is used by investors, creditors, and management to assess the company's financial health and performance.
