Reading Beyond the Book Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2013-04-02 Literary culture has become a form of popular culture over the last fifteen years thanks to the success of televised book clubs film adaptations big box book stores online bookselling and face to face and online book groups This volume offers the first critical analysis of mass reading events and the contemporary meanings of reading in the UK USA and Canada based on original interviews and surveys with readers and event organizers The resurgence of book groups has inspired new cultural formations of what the authors call shared reading They interrogate the enduring attraction of an old technology for readers community organizers and government agencies exploring the social practices inspired by the sharing of books in public spaces and revealing the complex ideological investments made by readers cultural workers institutions and the mass media in the meanings of reading

Indian Ocean Islands Christian Bouchard, Shafick Osman, 2018-12-07 Islands are intrinsic parts of the Indian Ocean Region's physical geography and human landscape Historically many have played substantial roles in the regional cultural and economic networks as well as in the regional political developments Today at least three issues bring these islands back to the forefront of the regional and global affairs namely geopolitics and strategic matters environmental conditions and challenges as well as ocean affairs However there has not been yet a lot of research and publications on this phenomenon of islands growing significance in the specific context of the Indian Ocean Region This book provides a rare attempt to cover various issues related to geopolitics international relations history security anthropology and ocean environment of Indian Ocean islands and their societies More specifically it provides case studies on Sri Lanka foreign policy Cocos and Christmas Islands geo strategy Chagos Archipelago history Mauritius Indo Mauritians Mauritius and Seychelles maritime security European Union and the Indian Ocean Islands international relations and Sundarban islands environment and society The chapters were originally published in a special issue of the Journal of the Indian Ocean Region

Island Sustainability II S. Favro, C. A. Brebbia, 2013 Containing the papers presented at the second conference organised on island sustainability by the Wessex Institute of Technology the book addresses the massive scale of seasonal population mobility that has such a profound effect on coastal regions and islands The problems that result from large temporary increases in population are especially serious for islands and archipelagos which have limited resources and possibilities of developing supporting infrastructures Most islands cannot provide all the resources required by a large seasonal tourist population in many cases basic requirements such as water and energy as well as agricultural produce must therefore be imported Authorities need to carefully evaluate the impact of large seasonal population increases on the community and the resulting socio economic factors as well as issues related to transportation and communication all of which should be part of an overall strategy The topics covered include Tourism Impact and Strategies Community Issues Changing Climate and Environment Infrastructure Transport Issues Natural Resources Energy Issues Risk and Safety Waste Management and Island Services

The Pacific Islands Moshe Rapaport, 2013-05-31 The Pacific is the last major world region to be discovered by humans Although small in total land area its numerous islands and archipelagoes with their startlingly diverse habitats and biotas extend across a third of the globe This revised edition of a popular text explores the diverse landforms climates and ecosystems of the Pacific island region Multiple chapters written by leading specialists cover the environment history culture population and economy The work includes new or completely revised chapters on gender music logging development education urbanization health ocean resources and tourism Throughout two key issues are addressed the exceptional environmental challenges and the demographic economic political challenges facing the region Although modern technology and media and waves of continental tourists are fast eroding island cultures the continuing resilience of Pacific island populations is apparent This is the only contemporary text on the Pacific Islands that covers both environment and sociocultural issues and will thus be indispensable for any serious student of the region Unlike other reviews it treats the entirety of Oceania with the exception of Australia and is well illustrated with numerous photos and maps including a regional atlas Contributors David Abbott Dennis A Ahlburg Glenn Banks John Barker Geoffrey Bertram David A Chappell William C Clarke John Connell Ron Crocombe Julie Cupples Derrick Depledge Colin Filer Gerard J Fryer Patricia Fryer Brenden S Holland E Alison Kay David M Kennedy Lamont Lindstrom Rick Lumpkin Harley I Manner Selina Tusitala Marsh Nancy McDowell Hamish A McGowan Frank McShane Simon Milne R John Morrison Dieter Mueller Dombois Stephen G Nelson Patrick D Nunn Michael R Ogden Andrew Pawley Jean Louis Rallu Vina Ram Bidesi Moshe Rapaport Annette Sachs Robertson Richard Scaglione Donovan Storey Andrew P Sturman Lynne D Talley James P Terry Randolph R Thaman Frank R Thomas Caroline Vercoe Terence Wesley Smith Paul Wolfram

The Metabolism of Islands Simron Singh, Marina Fischer-Kowalski, Marian Chertow, 2021 This book makes the case for why we should care about islands and their sustainability Islands are hotspots of biocultural diversity and home to 600 million people that depend on one sixth of the earth's total area including the surrounding oceans for their subsistence Today they are at the frontlines of climate change and face an existential crisis Islands are however potential hubs of innovation that are uniquely positioned to be leaders in sustainability and climate action This volume argues that a full fledged program on island industrial ecology is urgently needed with the aim of offering policy relevant insights and strategies to sustain small islands in an era of global environmental change The nine contributions in this volume cover a wide range of applications of socio metabolic research from flow accounts to stock analysis and their relationship to services in space and time They offer insights into how reconfiguring patterns of resource use will allow island governments to build resilience and adapt to the challenges of climate change
