friends in newsrooms Matthew Cecil's own prodigious investigation through hundreds of thousands of pages from FBI files reveals the lengths to which Hoover and his lackeys went to use the press to hoodwink the American people Even more sobering is how much help he got from so many in the press Conservative journalists like broadcaster Fulton Lewis Jr and columnist George Sokolsky positioned themselves as objective defenders of Hoover's FBI and were rewarded with access friendship and other favors Some of Hoover's friends even became adjunct FBI agents designated as Special Service Contacts who discreetly gathered information for the Bureau Enemies on the other hand were closely monitored and subjected to operations that disrupted their work or even undermined and ended their careers Noted journalists like I F Stone George Seldes James A Wechsler and many others found themselves the subjects of FBI investigations and occasionally named on the Bureau's custodial detention index targeted for arrest in the case of a national emergency With experience as a political reporter a press secretary and a scholar and professor of journalism and public relations Matthew Cecil is uniquely qualified to conduct us through the maze of political intrigue and influence peddling that mark and often mask the history of the FBI His work serves as a cautionary tale about how manipulative government agents and compliant journalists can undermine the very institutions and ideals they are tasked with protecting
