Kirkwood, 2020-08-24 This new edition of Strauss's guide helps users to find current information for and about businesses of all kinds both private and public U S based and international related to finance investment industries and entrepreneurship

Strauss's Handbook of Business Information is a resource for finding and understanding business information. It contains explanation and instruction on the key facets of business information and provides detailed descriptions of key resources within both broad and specific categories. It can be used as a guide to further understanding the what, how, and why of business information research. The changing arena of business information requires regular updating and awareness. This new edition has been thoroughly updated with three new chapters: Entrepreneurship, Competitive Intelligence, and Corporate Social Responsibility. Other additions of note include subsections on internet and mobile marketing and tax havens and related issues; coverage of new legislation, e.g., Dodd-Frank; and subsections on index funds, investment communities, regulatory bodies, and laws. Hedge funds, venture capital companies, assessing risks, robo-advisors, and more. The Handbook is for students, faculty, librarians, and information professionals looking to gain a broader and deeper understanding of business information. Anyone needing to gain quick exposure to business information needs and resources for solutions will benefit from the volume as well.

Marketing Communications Management Paul Copley, 2004. Truly comprehensive and international in its scope, this text makes critical reflections on the most important issues in marketing communications.

Creative Strategies for Conflict Management & Community Building Christian Ndubueze Anyanwu, 2009-11. This book, in applying the asset mapping theory of Kretzmann and McKnight (1993), developed a positive communication strategy for minimizing conflicts and building a more collaborative communities in organizations and churches with much emphasis on inclusivity, consensus, and commitment to common vision and ideals. While critically reviewing the traditional conflict theories in their approaches to conflict management, the book uses the new lens provided by the asset mapping theory to recommend for a paradigm shift in the way people look at organizations and conflicts. A new emphasis therefore is on the positive elements in organizations: the assets that lie within individuals and groups as the key to minimizing conflict in organizations. Besides, unlike the traditional conflict theories which see conflict as a problem, this new lens sees conflict within organizations as functional and opportunities for growth. The book equally identifies some of the significant factors that cause ethnic conflicts within organizations such as: Prejudices among Ethnic Groups, Differences of Ethnic Groups, Power Struggle among Ethnic Groups, Discrimination and Injustice against Groups, Lack of Participatory Communication, and Lack of Participatory Leadership. Finally, in reviewing the relevant literatures on Community Building, the book underlines the various variables that make Community Building possible. Such variables include: Discovering and Mobilizing the Assets of Individuals and Groups within Organizations, Building Relationships among Individuals and Groups within Organizations, Building a more Participatory Leadership within Organizations, Building a more Participatory Communication within Organizations, Creating more Awareness on the necessity of Collaborative Initiatives, as well as Promoting the Common Cultural Values and Ideals that holds Individuals and Groups together within Organization.
