

The Writing Process

Strong writers will use the writing process to help them become stronger writers and improve their writing. Writing is a process. Strong writers need to take time to think, plan, write, reread, and write some more.

Brainstorm

You think about ideas you want to write about and create a plan for your writing.

Write

You start writing. You expand your ideas and start developing your writing piece.

Revise

You make sure the content of your writing is exactly how you want. You might need to add or move ideas around.

Write More

After you revise, you might need to write more to make sure your writing is exactly how you want it for your readers.

Publish

When you publish, you write your piece one final time and try to make it perfect!

Edit

Right before you are ready to publish, you want to read over your writing with a careful eye. Check for any mechanical mistakes.
