Integration in Multicultural England Jörg Friedrichs,2025-07-24 Positive relations between Muslims and non Muslims are important for the future in Britain and beyond By studying community relations this book takes an innovative approach that moves beyond mapping British Muslims or British Islam Instead J rg Friedrichs discusses the actual ways Muslims and non Muslims relate or fail to relate where it matters most namely in diverse inner cities Is Britain a multicultural country is it moving towards greater integration or is this a false dichotomy Given their unique everyday experience inner city residents prove to be experts when it comes to community relations To give them a voice and learn from their experience the book takes us on a tour of diverse English inner cities Reassuringly the grassroots perspective of residents is consistent with a vision of integration in multicultural England Residents are concerned not so much about hot button issues like extremism or terrorism Instead their minds are set on practical matters how to coexist peacefully in stressful urban environments and how to find love and raise families when norms diverge Caught between grievance and aspiration inner city residents from any background express disappointment at Muslim and non Muslim parents sending their children to different schools They also discuss whether governance should be community blind or community based and if Britain is ready for a Muslim Prime Minister In all of this Muslim and non Muslim residents acknowledge that we live in a multicultural society For most however it does not follow that we should adopt multiculturalism as an ideology Instead most people crave and support a move towards greater integration
