Assessment and Decision Making for Sustainable Transport European Conference of Ministers of Transport, 2004-03-10 This report makes recommendations for good practice bringing the results of economic appraisals and environmental assessments before decision makers in the transport sector on the basis of reviews of recent experience in infrastructure planning and policy development in seven countries Appraisal and Valuation Pierluigi Morano, Alessandra Oppio, Paolo Rosato, Leopoldo Sdino, Francesco Tajani, 2020-08-10 This book features a selection of the best papers presented at two recent conferences organized by the SIEV Italian Society of Appraisal and Valuation Taking into account the current need for evaluative skills in order to make effective and sustainable investments it highlights the multidisciplinary role of valuation which opens the door for interactions with other sectors scientific and professional fields The book collects twenty two papers divided into three parts Territory selecting which decision support models to apply in complex contexts enhancement of public and private assets evaluating the effects produced by territorial investments valuation approaches to properties risk assessment and strategies for monitoring energy consumption and soil sealing OECD Multi-level Governance Studies Making the Most of Public Investment in the Eastern Slovak Republic OECD, 2016-04-01 The Slovak Republic has undergone significant change in the past decade While growth has been impressive compared to OECD countries overall but benefits have not accrued equally across the country This study provides recommendations to make the most of public investment in the Slovak Republic Managing Teacher Appraisal and Performance Carol Cardno, David Middlewood, 2002-11-01 The biggest single issue currently facing school managers is how they should appraise their staff and what the implications of the process are This edited collection brings together the latest thinking on the subject from both the UK and overseas and places it directly in the context of school management Issues discussed include the role of appraisal in school leadership and the role of appraisal in developing teachers The importance of this combined with the lack of published material on the subject make this book an essential purchase for all headteachers heads of department INSET co ordinators and postgraduate educational management students OECD Multi-level Governance Studies Investing Together Working Effectively across Levels of Government OECD, 2013-12-05 Almost two thirds of public investment is undertaken by sub national governments and major projects often involve multiple government levels This report dissects the relationships different government actors form vertically across levels and horizontally across both sectors and jurisdictions Urban Renaissance Berlin: Towards an Integrated Strategy for Social Cohesion and Economic Development OECD, 2003-06-06 This study of Berlin after German unification examines and makes proposals for distressed areas where there is a need for targeted regeneration measures Shaping Regional Futures Valeria Lingua, Verena Balz, 2019-10-22 This book discusses the role of regional design and visioning in the formation of regional territorial governance to offer a better understanding of 1 how a recognition of spatial dynamics and the visualization of spatial futures informs and is informed by planning frameworks and 2 how such design processes inform co operation and collaboration on planning in metropolitan regions It gathers theoretical reflections on these topics and illustrates them by means of practical experiences in several European countries Innovatively associating ideas with knowledge it appeals to anyone with an interest in planning experiments in a post regulative era It aims at an increased understanding of how practices engaged with the imagination of possible futures support the creation of institutional capacity for strategic spatial planning at regional scales Climate Change and Political Strategy Hugh Compston,2013-09-13 Although the science of climate change is well established and there are well known policy instruments that could significantly reduce greenhouse gas GHG emissions without prohibitive economic costs political obstacles to more determined action remain despite heightened concern among mainstream politicians and the public This book analyses the political dynamics of climate policy in affluent democracies from a number of different theoretical angles in order to improve our understanding of which political strategies would be likely to enable national governments to make deep cuts in GHG emissions while avoiding significant political damage The authors argue that different conceptual and logical theories highlight different features of political situations Describing the politics of climate policy in this way will result in different conceptual logical views of this phenomenon And to some extent the inferences drawn from such differing views about the nature of political obstacles to more vigorous action on climate change and the best ways of overcoming them will also be different Singly and together these analyses reveal a more detailed nuanced view of the political options open to activist governments This book was previously published as a special issue of Environmental Politics Sustainability Appraisal Barry Dalal-Clayton,Barry Sadler,2014-03-26 Sustainability Appraisal is a sourcebook of the state of the art of this rapidly emerging and diversifying area It draws on a wealth of international experiences and approaches to illustrate the status and scope of Sustainability Appraisal Assessment SA This comprehensive guide highlights how SA can be used to analyse and integrate the key environmental social and economic pillars of sustainability into decision making at all levels from policy to project to investment by government business and industry or international organizations Distilling both published and unpublished materials and with contributions from a range of leading experts organizations and agencies this book will be of significant value to professionals everywhere who are in need of a solid reference guide to what constitutes SA practice and more importantly how and when it can be applied Employment Policies and Multilevel Governance Roger Blanpain,Brian Langille,2009-04-29 In Europe work has long been a symbol of full citizenship and today work is a fundamental goal of European social policy However although every person has the right to work it is becoming clearer all the time that unemployment is not due merely to a lack of encouragement to exercise this right but at least in part to some deeper defects in the implementation of effective employment policies As a contribution to defining the nature of these problems this important collection of essays targets the phenomena of multilevel governance both vertical European national regional local and horizontal administrative institutions trade unions business representatives NGOs showing with detailed analysis and data how coordination or conflict between the various levels advances or fails to advance the goals of employment policy Regarding the EU five EU Member States are examined plus for comparative analysis the parallel Canadian federal model with the authors addressing such concrete issues as the impact of globalisation and Europeanisation on employment policies distribution of tasks in the Open Method of Coordination OMC involvement of private and economic agents the increasing significance of international political agents flexicurity as an employment strategy the difficulty of integrating the excluded coordination with education and fiscal policies social inclusion from the point of view of international human rights and gender mainstreaming as a weakening of the EU guarantee of gender equality The essays originated in a research meeting held at the Instituto Internacional de Sociología Jurídica at Ovato Spain in June of 2007 Some of the contributors all employment law experts discuss problematic aspects of the European Employment Strategy EES and its influence on the decentralization of employment policies and related elements of social protection Other authors concentrate on built in multilevel problems resulting from existing constitutional and administrative structures while a third group focuses on substantive approaches to employment policies within individual member states The Bulletin contains updated versions of all papers In this book the degree of administrative legal political and cultural intricacy involved in a serious engagement with multilevel governance of employment on the European model is put on full view As a deeply informed analysis of how the idea of multilevel governance has played out within the political and administrative reality of Member States the book will prove of enormous value to labour and employment law professionals anywhere as the problems identified here have a global reach

Organizational Evolution and Strategic Management Rodolphe Durand,2006-04-25 I have no doubt this book will be read and used time and again by any scholar working within the evolutionary approach to organizations I believe that it will also be of great interest to strategy scholars Management Rodolphe Durand has a compelling message for the growing community of evolutionary researchers in organization studies Evolutionary researchers need to attend more carefully to historical and contemporary debates in the biological sciences if they are to avoid false tracks and simplistic analogies Durand offers here the foundations of a distinctive and authentic evolutionary theory that takes organizations seriously for what they are Richard Whittington Oxford University This book fills an important gap in the study of organizations and strategy from an evolutionary perspective It offers a synthetic approach to evolutionary analysis with grounded empirical examples that graduate students and seasoned scholars alike will find immensely useful Durand s OES model rooted in a critical examination of philosophical and scientific writings on evolution is particularly promising and provides a valuable guidepost for future research on organizations and strategic management Michael Lounsbury University of Alberta How is economic evolutionary theory in which organisations evolve according to environmental selection reconciled with evidence of strategic management This book is the first of its kind to propose a solution to this theoretical puzzle and engage readers in a balanced understanding of organizational evolution Rodolphe Durand embarks upon a fresh assessment of the literature His discoveries provide the foundation for a new theory of organizational selection and an organizational evolution and strategy model that reconciles economic evolution with strategic intentionality Chapters include an examination of the work by Lamarck Darwin and Spencer a constructive appraisal of evolutionary theory applied to organisations and a summary of how the organizational evolution and strategy model will affect future theory and research OECD Public Governance

Reviews: Peru Integrated Governance for Inclusive Growth OECD,2016-11-30 This OECD Public Governance Review of Peru analyses key areas of public governance in Peru and identifies opportunities for improving the performance of the state in delivering better outcomes for all citizens The State of Food Security and Nutrition in the World 2023 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,International Fund for Agricultural Development,United Nations Children's Fund,World Food Programme,World Health Organization,2023-07-12 This report provides an update on global progress towards the targets of ending hunger SDG Target 2 1 and all forms of malnutrition SDG Target 2 2 and estimates on the number of people who are unable to afford a healthy diet Since its 2017 edition this report has repeatedly highlighted that the intensification and interaction of conflict climate extremes and economic slowdowns and downturns combined with highly unaffordable nutritious foods and growing inequality are pushing us off track to meet the SDG 2 targets However other important megatrends must also be factored into the analysis to fully understand the challenges and opportunities for meeting the SDG 2 targets One such megatrend and the focus of this year s report is urbanization New evidence shows that food purchases in some countries are no longer high only among urban households but also among rural households Consumption of highly processed foods is also increasing in peri urban and rural areas of some countries These changes are affecting people s food security and nutrition in ways that differ depending on where they live across the rural urban continuum This timely and relevant theme is aligned with the United Nations General Assembly endorsed New Urban Agenda and the report provides recommendations on the policies investments and actions needed to address the challenges of agrifood systems transformation under urbanization and to enable opportunities for ensuring access to affordable healthy diets for everyone
