

A photograph of four seals resting on a dark, rocky shore at night. The seals are illuminated by a warm, golden light, possibly from a lantern or a low moon. The water is dark and reflects the light. The seals are of various shades of brown and black, with some showing lighter patches on their heads and chests. They are positioned in a cluster, with one seal in the foreground looking towards the camera, and others behind it. The overall mood is serene and mysterious.

Heidegger's Religious Origins Benjamin D. Crowe, 2006-05-21 In Heidegger's Religious Origins Benjamin D. Crowe explores the meaning and relevance of Heidegger's early theological development especially his intellectual ties with Martin Luther Devoting particular attention to Heidegger's philosophy of religion in the turbulent aftermath of World War I Crowe shows Heidegger tightening his focus and searching his philosophical practice for ideas on how one cultivates an authentic life beyond the destruction of Europe This penetrating work reveals Heidegger wrestling and coming to grips with his religious upbringing his theological education and his religious convictions While developing Heidegger's notion of destruction up to the publication of Being and Time Crowe advances a new way to think about the relationship between destruction and authenticity that confirms the continuing importance of Heidegger's early theological training

Streams of Refreshing from the Fountain of Life Hugh Henry Snell, 2015-04-08 This little volume is about JESUS the Son of God and sets forth God's way of saving sinners It is hoped that the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ will be found the most prominent object in it and that it is calculated not only to arrest the careless and thoughtless but to confirm and comfort weak and troubled saints In the blood of Jesus God speaks peace and love to every sinner that believes and that same precious blood enables the believer to draw near and keep near to God The blood of Christ being the true ground of peace and source of confidence in God gives rest of conscience in God's presence where Jesus now is and fills the heart with praise Many believers however are in great bondage They truly look to Christ for salvation and have eternal life though they are scarcely sensible of it Like Lazarus when he left the tomb they really have life but are unable to walk in liberty to minister for the Lord or happily confess His name because of the grave clothes which envelop them They struggle but they are fettered and need to be loosed Some vainly try to get liberty by looking into their own hearts or are expecting to receive it from some man instead of looking only to Christ and believing His Word It is of the utmost importance that the believer should learn from God's truth his security and standing in Christ that he is already a child of God on the other side of death in the heavenlies in Christ Jesus not yet with but in Christ Jesus This being realized the natural inquiry must be What is my hope We reply The Lord's coming We do not hope to have everlasting life for he that believeth hath everlasting life John 5:24 We do not hope for forgiveness of sins this also we have now In whom we have redemption through His blood the forgiveness of sins Eph 1:7 We do not hope for righteousness this too we have now for Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth Rom 10:4 What then do we look for The inspired reply is We look for the Saviour the Lord Jesus Christ who shall change our vile body that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body Phil 3:20-21
