development of the material world has led to the emergence of psyche or soul which you are experiencing right now as a stream of thoughts and images that don't exist in space and aren't made of matter. We are not insignificant specks in a vast purposeless cosmos. We are significant participants in the magnificent and meaningful story of soul. The universe is coming to know itself through each one of us and this process doesn't end at death because the evolution of soul has also been the evolution of immortality.

The Boston Glee Book, 1839 Psychology of Body, Soul, and Spirit Rudolf Steiner, 1999

12 lectures Berlin Oct 23 1909 Dec 16 1911 CW 115

This series of lectures provides the basis for an entirely new psychology. The first four lectures give a precise dynamic understanding of the human soul in relation to the activity of the senses and to the subtle processes that make up the human being on Earth. The next four lectures focus on what we can know of the human soul based on direct observation alone. No theorizing takes place. To show what we can know of soul life through the immediacy of engaged observation of oneself and others, Rudolf Steiner refrains from using his own higher capacities of clairvoyance to form a picture of our soul life. The concluding lectures portray the relationship of soul life to spirit life, showing us how to awaken individual spirit life and how to distinguish between illusory and genuine spiritual experiences.

Presented more than a century ago, we might be tempted to think that insofar as psychology is concerned, the content of these lectures are outdated. It is also tempting to think that because Steiner is not usually associated with the founders of modern psychology, his efforts must be considered at best an interesting aside. On the contrary, these lectures are actually a wellspring for the true stream of psychology as the term itself means soul study. A Psychology of Body, Soul, and Spirit should be read by anyone interested in psychology as well as by those interested in inner development. Whether we are involved in education, medicine, art, drama, economics, or business, the perspectives contained in this book have the potential to restore the frequently missing element of soul in psychology today.

Robert Sardello's in-depth introduction places Steiner's lectures in the context of modern life and psychology and provides insights into how to read and use this text for inner development and a deeper understanding of spiritual science.

Contents: Introduction by Robert Sardello

Part 1 Anthroposophy: The Human being and the Senses; Supersensible Processes in the Human Senses; The Higher Senses; inner Forces and Creative Principles in the Human Organism; Supersensible Currents; Group Soul and the I in Human Beings and Animals

Part 2 Psychosophy: Aspects of Soul Life; The Activities of Human Soul; Forces; The Senses; Feeling and Aesthetic Judging; Consciousness and Soul Life

Part 3 Pneumatosophy: Franz Brentano and Aristotle's Doctrine of the Spirit; Truth and Error in Light of the Spiritual World; Imagination; Inspiration; Self-Fulfillment; Intuition; Conscience; Nature; the Evolution of Consciousness and Reincarnation

Steiner does not talk about soul; he speaks from soul. That is the entire method. There is however an entrance fee for doing psychology. The fee is that you need to leave behind your well-known to you self-identity. You must suffer the experience of leaving behind not only what you know but also what you think you know of yourself. This requirement qualifies psychology as integral to the work of initiation.

Robert Sardello from his introduction: A previous translation of these lectures

Calendar of the Soul Rudolf Steiner, 2020-12-18 Rudolf Steiner's beautiful meditative verses for the yearly cycle have been used by countless people over the years. Their purpose is to awaken a feeling of unity with nature and at the same time to stimulate a discovery of self. In listening to the changing language of the year and awakening a profound sympathy for it, we can in turn discover our own individual nature. Steiner's original and unique meditations facilitate this process, leading to a healthy feeling of being at one with the natural world. This edition features Anne Stockton's 52 celebrated and evocative paintings, which are a wonderful complement to Steiner's text. Steiner's words are newly translated for this edition by John Thomson.

Philoponus: On Aristotle On the Soul 2.7-12 Philoponus, 2014-04-22 In this one of the most original ancient texts on sense perception, Philoponus, the sixth-century AD commentator on Aristotle, considers how far perceptual processes are incorporeal. Colour affects us in the same way as light, which passing through a stained glass window affects the air, but colours only the masonry beyond. Sounds and smells are somewhat more physical, travelling most of the way to us with a moving block of air, but not quite all the way. Only the organ of touch takes on the tangible qualities perceived, because reception of sensible qualities in perception is cognitive, not physical. Neither light nor the action of colour involves the travel of bodies. Our capacities for psychological activity do not follow nor result from the chemistry of our bodies, but merely supervene on that. On the other hand, Philoponus shows knowledge of the sensory nerves, and he believes that thought and anger both warm us. This argument is used elsewhere to show how we can tell someone else's state of mind.

The Seat of the Soul Yvan Rioux, 2019-03-25 There is one temple in the Universe, and it is the body of Man. Novalis: How are the internal and external forms of the human organism shaped? How does human consciousness emerge? These are questions to which conventional science has no answers. In The Seat of the Soul, Yvan Rioux invites us to consider new concepts that can explain these phenomena. His exposition is based on the existence of external formative forces or morphic fields, which he argues create the human body or organism in conjunction with forces that resonate within us from the living solar system. The psyche or soul emerges progressively as an inner world of faculties that in time learns to apprehend and understand the outer world. In his previous book The Mystery of Emerging Form, Rioux explored the formative forces of the twelve zodiacal constellations. In this absorbing sequel, he investigates how such activity from the planetary spheres works within us as life stages or metabolic processes. Through seven chapters, he explores the impact of each of these planetary spheres on our complex organic make-up and psychic activity. The link between organs and tissues, he says, produces five specific inner landscapes in relation to the external rhythmic environment. Rioux also gives a description of Rudolf Steiner's seven planetary seals from a biological perspective. According to Steiner, these seals are occult scripts, meaning that as hidden signatures, they show their ongoing etheric impacts on the seven stages of our metabolism. Between Steiner's indications concerning human physiology and the ancient Chinese view on the subject, there is a convergence of ideas, as synthesized here, that breaks through the boundaries of modern reductionist science, offering exciting perspectives for understanding the human being The seat of the soul is where the inner world and the outer world meet Where they overlap it is in every point of the overlap Novalis

The Pillar of Celestial Fire Robert Cox,1997-11-01 In this well documented book compelling evidence is presented that during the previous Golden Age a universal sacred science was shared by enlightened Seers of the Biblical Egyptian Vedic Taoist and Native American traditions The mysterious and powerful knowledge possessed by these ancient Seers is relevant today for it holds the keys to spiritual enlightenment perfect health and physical immortality Although this knowledge was lost long ago according to the cycles of time mapped out by the ancient Seers themselves we are now about to enter into a new Golden Age a time when the lost sacred science is destined to be revived and miraculous new technologies will arise The author presents the spiritual historical and scientific background of this imminent revival with remarkable insight offering a message of great hope for the entire human race
