Family and Civilization Carle C. Zimmerman, 2014-04-22 Family and Civilization is the magnum opus of Carle Zimmerman a distinguished sociologist who taught for many years at Harvard University In this unjustly forgotten work Zimmerman demonstrates the close and causal connections between the rise and fall of different types of families and the rise and fall of civilizations particularly ancient Greece and Rome medieval and modern Europe and the United States Zimmerman traces the evolution of family structure from tribes and clans to extended and large nuclear families to the small nuclear families and broken families of today And he shows the consequences of each structure for the bearing and rearing of children for religion law and everyday life and for the fate of civilization itself Originally published in 1947 this compelling analysis predicted many of today s cultural and social controversies and trends including youth violence and depression abortion and homosexuality the demographic collapse of Europe and of the West more generally and the displacement of peoples This new edition part of ISI Books Background series has been edited and abridged by cultural commentator James Kurth of Swarthmore College and includes essays on the text by Kurth Allan Carlson and Bryce Christensen Connecting Ideas, Cultures, and Communities Clive Barstow, Holger Briel, 2025-03-03 The proceedings of the Second International Symposium on Humanities and Social Sciences ISHSS 2024 provide a rich repository of scholarly articles that explore the intricate links between ideas cultures and communities This volume captures the essence of interdisciplinary research offering fresh perspectives on the challenges and opportunities within the social sciences Spanning a wide array of topics from historical analysis to contemporary sociological studies the proceedings delve into the main findings of the symposium With a focus on regional development political policies and the impact of technology on education these papers illustrate a commitment to advancing understanding and fostering global dialogue Designed for academics researchers and professionals in the fields of humanities and social sciences this publication is ideal for those seeking to expand their knowledge engage with current research and contribute to the ongoing discourse on the pressing issues of our time Trauma-informed education Helen Elizabeth Stokes, Tom Brunzell, Judith Howard, 2023-09-08 Core Curriculum for Holistic Nursing Barbara Montgomery Dossey, American Holistic Nurses' Association, 1997 Nurses are increasingly aware of the need to blend technology mind and spirit in creating optimal circumstances for healing The American Holistic Nurses Association with Barbara Dossey a pioneer and leader in the field has created a core curriculum that will provide a blueprint for what it means to be a holistic nurse This text can also serve as a study guide for the AHNCC exam Core Curriculum for Holistic Nursing has a broad appeal to nurses new to holistic concepts as well as those who are already experts Family Health Care Nursing Melissa Robinson, Deborah Padgett Coehlo, Paul S. Smith, 2022-01-26 The 7th Edition of a multiple AJN Book of the Year Award Winner Prepare for the real world of family nursing care Explore family nursing the way it s practiced today in the United States and Canada with a theory guided evidence based approach to care throughout the family life cycle that responds to the needs of families and adapts to the changing dynamics of the health care system From health promotion to end of life a streamlined organization delivers the clinical guidance you need to care for today s families Access more online Redeem the code inside new printed texts to gain access to the answers to the NCLEX style questions in the book plus reference resources and The Friedman Family Assessment Model short form Updated Revised Expanded Incorporating the science and evidence based knowledge that reflects the changes in families family health health policy and the environment which affect the health of families today New Practice and reflection questions for every case study to help nursing students develop their ability to reflect on their practice of working with families which can challenge their own assumptions beliefs and biases New Chapter Environmental Health and Families Revised Relational Nursing and Family Nursing in Canada now appearing in the text rather than online New NCLEX style questions in the Appendix to develop critical thinking and clinical judgment skills related to family nursing A comprehensive overview of family nursing linking family theory and research to clinical implementation An evidence based clinical focus emphasizing today s families Case studies with family genograms and ecomaps Three family nursing theories Family Systems Theory Developmental and Family Life Cycle Theory and Bioecological Theory are threaded throughout the book and are applied in many of the chapter case studies Canadian specific content throughout Coverage of families dealing with end of life issues Immigrant and Refugee Students in Canada Courtney Anne Brewer,Michael McCabe,2014-06-30 Recent immigrants and refugees both children and their families often struggle to adapt to Canadian education systems For their part educators also face challenges when developing effective strategies to help these students make smooth transitions to their new country In Immigrant and Refugee Students in Canada researchers join educators and social workers to provide a thorough and wide ranging analysis of the issues at the preschool elementary secondary and post secondary levels By understanding these issues within the unique Canadian context educators can work more effectively with newcomers trying to find their way This book pursues three lines of inquiry What are the main challenges that immigrant and refugee children and families face in the Canadian education system What are the common aspects of successful intervention What can we learn from the narratives of researchers educators social workers and other frontline workers who work with immigrant and refugee families Resources in Education ,1996

Handbook of Evidence-Based Therapies for Children and Adolescents Ric G. Steele,Michael C. Roberts,2020-09-26 The comprehensive coverage in this hugely important and timely handbook makes it invaluable to clinical child school and counseling psychologists clinical social workers and child psychiatrists As a textbook for advanced clinical and counseling psychology programs and a solid reference for the researcher in child adolescent mental health its emphasis on flexibility and attention to emerging issues will help readers meet ongoing challenges as well as advance the field Its relevance cannot be overstated as growing numbers of young people have mental health problems requiring intervention and current policy initiatives identify evidence based therapies as the most effective and relevant forms of treatment Monthly Catalog of
