Strike a Blow and Die George Simeon Mwase, 1967 Study of historical aspects of Malawi comprising an account of political leadership of nationalist John Chilembwe and of political problems of the country as Nyasaland during the period from the 1860s to 1915 covers the role of religion and tradition in tribal peoples government policy the role of Germany the role of UK discrimination the position of Indians in the country etc References and map Biography Chilembwe j Strike a Blow and Die George Simeon Mwase, 1967 Strike a Blow and Die George Siomeon Mwase (ca), 1967 Strike a blow and die George S. Mwase, 1970 Miscegenation, Identity and Status in Colonial Africa Lawrence Mbogoni, 2018-12-07 Throughout the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the colonial administrations in British East Central African colonies considered inter racial sexual liaisons to be a serious and recurrent problem Consequently inter racial sexual liaisons concubinage and marriage and the mixed race progeny that resulted from these liaisons led to protracted discussions and enactment of policies which addressed questions about concubinage marriage racial identity sexual morality and the status of persons of mixed race in British East Central Africa Using archival sources and secondary literature the author highlights how colonial inter racial intimate encounters became intertwined with conceptions of race and what it meant to be European African native and racially mixed Intended for students and scholars interested in the study of race and sexuality in colonial Africa the book will provide an understanding of why inter racial liaisons despite of rigid racial barriers were not easy to legislate against Strike a blow and die: a narrative of race relations in colonial Africa, ed George Simeon Mwase, Robert I. Rotberg, Latin American University Students Arthur Liebman, Kenneth N. Walker, Myron Glazer, 1972 Why does the interaction between Latin American students and the Latin American university typically an archaic socially insulated institution regularly produce a significant number of students opposed to their governments and to the existing social structure To answer this question the authors of this comparative study of student political attitudes and behavior questioned students at eleven universities in six culturally similar but economically and governmentally different Latin American countries Colombia Mexico Panama Paraguay Puerto Rico and Uruguay The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent

History of the Zambia Baptist Association 1905-2005 L.

Frey,2020-11-17 Much good academic work has been done on the mainline churches in many African countries But less so on the smaller missions and the churches that they founded This book describes the history of one of the smaller churches the Zambia Baptist Association with its roots in Malawi 1905 and its missionary connections to England South Africa Sweden Australia and finally to the Liebenzell Mission in Germany It is thus one of the many contributions needed for the writing of a history of the Evangelical churches of Africa

None Like Us Stephen Best,2019-01-10 It passes for an unassailable truth that the slave past provides an explanatory prism for understanding the black political present In None Like Us Stephen Best reappraises what he calls melancholy historicism a kind of crime scene investigation in which the forensic imagination is directed toward the recovery of a we at the point of our violent origin Best argues that there is and can be no we following from such a time and place that black identity is constituted in and through negation taking inspiration from David Walker s prayer that none like us may ever live again until time shall be no more Best draws out the connections between a sense of impossible black sociality and strains of negativity that have operated under the sign of queer In None Like Us the art of El Anatsui and Mark Bradford the literature of Toni Morrison and Gwendolyn Brooks even rumors in the archive evidence an apocalyptic aesthetics or self eclipse which opens the circuits between past and present and thus charts a queer future for black study

Western Women and Imperialism Nupur Chaudhuri,Margaret Strobel,1992-05-22 Western Women and Imperialism provides fascinating insights into interactions and attitudes between western and non western women mainly in the 19th and early 20th centuries It is an important contribution to the field of women s studies and primarily British imperial history in that many of the essays explore problems of cross cultural interaction that have been heretofore ignored Nancy Fix Anderson A challenging anthology in which a multiplicity of authors sheds new light on the waves of missionaries memsahibs nurses and feminists Ms a long overdue engagement with colonial discourse and feminism excellent essays The Year s Work in Critical Cultural Theory

European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa Albert S. Gérard,1986-01-01 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S G rard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory essay stresses the millennia of writing in Africa side by side with a richly eloquent and artistic set of vernacular oral traditions written and oral traditions have become interwoven in adaptations of imported forms and linguistic innovations that challenge traditional high literary norms G rard uses the mathematical concept of fuzzy sets to explain why the focus on Black Africa has led him to set aside for future analysis the literatures produced in North Africa which fall under the influence of Muslim civilization as well as the diasporic literatures of the New World Over sixty scholars from twenty two countries contribute specialized studies of creative writing by leading authors in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries such as Achebe Mphahlele Ngugi Senghor Soyinka and Tutuola Critical analyses are organized primarily around regions reflecting different colonial languages imposed through schools and other social institutions Some authors trace the adaptation of western genres others identify syncretism with folktales or myths The volumes are attentive to the heterogeneity of national literatures addressed to polyethnic and multilingual populations and they note the instrumental politics of language in newly independent states A closing chapter Tasks Ahead identifies areas for future scholars to explore The Age of Garvey Adam Ewing, 2016-09-13 A groundbreaking exploration of Garveyism's global influence during the interwar years and beyond Jamaican activist Marcus Garvey 1887-1940 organized the Universal Negro Improvement Association in Harlem in 1917 By the early 1920s his program of African liberation and racial uplift had attracted millions of supporters both in the United States and abroad The Age of Garvey presents an expansive global history of the movement that came to be known as Garveyism Offering a groundbreaking new interpretation of global black politics between the First and Second World Wars Adam Ewing charts Garveyism's emergence its remarkable global transmission and its influence in the responses among African descendants to white supremacy and colonial rule in Africa the Caribbean and the United States Delving into the organizing work and political approach of Garvey and his followers Ewing shows that Garveyism emerged from a rich tradition of pan African politics that had established by the First World War lines of communication among black intellectuals on both sides of the Atlantic Garvey's legacy was to reengineer this tradition as a vibrant and multifaceted mass politics Ewing looks at the people who enabled Garveyism's global spread including labor activists in the Caribbean and Central America community organizers in the urban and rural United States millennial religious revivalists in central and southern Africa welfare associations and independent church activists in Malawi and Zambia and an emerging generation of Kikuyu leadership in central Kenya Moving away from the images of quixotic business schemes and repatriation efforts The Age of Garvey demonstrates the consequences of Garveyism's international presence and provides a dynamic and unified framework for understanding the movement during the interwar years and beyond Militarism, Imperialism, and Racial Accommodation Stanford M. Lyman, 1992-01-01 1993 Mid South Sociological Association Book Award Robert E Park has long been recognized as one of the most influential thinkers in early American sociology yet virtually all of his works appearing before 1913 were published in popular magazines and were dismissed as nonsociological muckraking In Militarism Imperialism and Racial Accommodation An Analysis and Interpretation of the Early Writings of Robert E Park Stanford M Lyman examines and reprints many of these little known works including Park's essays on German military organization his exposés of the atrocities committed by Belgium's Leopold II in the Congo State his studies of the black community in Winston

Salem North Carolina and of Booker T Washington's agricultural education program at Tuskegee Alabama Lyman shows clearly that Park's essays written outside the academy formulated a far more complex perspective on modern modes of evil than any proposed by his contemporaries thereby influencing sociological debates for decades to come By writing his essays on topical subjects and by publishing them for a public audience Park dramatized his profound belief that the struggle to achieve racial accommodation and to establish a true and lasting democracy is a concern for all Visions for Racial Equality Harri Englund,2022-02-17 A rich and innovative look at the rise and demise of a unique vision for racial equality in nineteenth century Africa Unreasonable Histories Christopher J. Lee,2015-02-20 In Unreasonable Histories Christopher J Lee unsettles the parameters and content of African studies as currently understood At the book's core are the experiences of multiracial Africans in British Central Africa contemporary Malawi Zimbabwe and Zambia from the 1910s to the 1960s Drawing on a spectrum of evidence including organizational documents court records personal letters commission reports popular periodicals photographs and oral testimony Lee traces the emergence of Anglo African Euro African and Eurafrican subjectivities which constituted a grassroots Afro Britishness that defied colonial categories of native and non native Discriminated against and often impoverished these subaltern communities crafted a genealogical imagination that reconfigured kinship and racial descent to make political claims and generate affective meaning But these critical histories equally confront a postcolonial reason that has occluded these experiences highlighting uneven imperial legacies that still remain Based on research in five countries Unreasonable Histories ultimately revisits foundational questions in the field to argue for the continent's diverse heritage and to redefine the meanings of being African in the past and present and for the future Strike a blow and die.
