Presentations of the 2010 Upstate Steampunk Extravaganza and Meetup Gypsey Elaine Teague,2011-05-25 In November 2010 a small but growing group of Victorian Alternate Historians often referred to as Steampunk met for the first conference of its kind There was music fashion merchants and all the other trappings of the Victorian time period set in a venue of what if What set this conference apart was the academic nature of the presentations Utilizing the internet and scholarly publications a call for papers was sent out and the response was impressive Faculty graduate students specialists and general interest writers wrote prepared and presented on a wide array of subject matters This publication is the culmination of those presentations Before during and after the conference Steampunk became a much debated and discussed subject on our list servers and emails While some had no idea what Steampunk was and others had an idea that they thought was correct there was no one size fits all definition to this new genre It was at that point that a number of us that had been at the conference sat down and tried to describe the phenomenon This is what we came up with Steampunk is a juxtaposition of science fiction fantasy and Victorian alternate history Its roots are in the literature and architecture of the late 19th century while having its branches reach into the future It is The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen the music of Abney Park the engineering of Nikola Tesla and the aviation of helium and hot air In the 1980s a subculture of science fiction found a foothold in literature and science fiction conventions These paths not taken alternative histories gave the cyberpunk and Goth followers at the conventions a new path to follow There were the works of H G Wells the undersea submersible of Captain Nemo in Verne s 20 000 Leagues Under the Sea and the Victorian work of Mary Shelley s Frankenstein to start with Add to that the architecture of the Victorian age as a gentrification in many of the inner cities of America and England and you have a breeding ground for something not quite realized but possibly attainable Supreme Court Advanced Decisions ,

Baptism by Toilet Water James F. Winter, 2010-11-30 Baptism by Toilet Water is Jim Winter s bittersweet memoir documenting the hardship his family endured while ironically Jim s grandparents who exemplified Christian living were right next door Our home life was the furthest thing from a Christian home yet our grandparents were the spiritual paragons we so desperately needed Unfortunately as long as our father remained in the picture there was little hope Our grandparents home served as a sanctuary but we were still trapped We could see paradise from our fence but at best we could only visit from time to time Throughout their tumultuous childhood the Winter children grappled with this stark contradiction of moral values between their father and grandparents leading them to ultimately learn that good can come from bad After high school Jim leaves his home believing the worst is behind him Unfortunately nothing could be further from the truth As illness and death ravage the family Jim becomes stricken with grief Convinced God had forsaken him Jim becomes tormented by guilt from his past When it seems like all hope is lost a series of remarkable events begins to unfold in what can only be described as divine intervention Through Jim s Baptism by Toilet Water he comes to realize that Jesus Christ is illuminating the way through it all

The Day I Pounded Upon God's Door Mar'eh, 2012-04-17 Just as suddenly as the chaotic and terrifying ordeal had all started it seemed as though all movement ceased in a split second There was blood sprayed in every direction inside and out and on the ground I had blood coming out of my mouth nose and ears The pounding of my heart was mammoth I could feel it pounding almost at the top of my head I was stoic as a statue expressionless motionless The sound of the cold breeze whistled around me like a cruel joke My jaws were locked my body began to shiver and then it shook uncontrollably My teeth began to chatter I had never before experienced such grief in all my life My mind was just racing like a fanatic my heart pounding out of control No one could have imagined the depth of my grief at that moment in time Helpless and immobile as I stood there watching my husband leave his body I felt that I would lose my mind I screamed yet there was not a sound that would come out of my mouth In one long uninterrupted silent scream I screamed at Peter not to die I screamed at the other driver who caused this nightmare I screamed at my pathetic legs for not being able to walk I screamed for God I screamed to Him for help My God my God please do not abandon me I begged Him Then from the depths of my soul came a gut wrenching primal scream that had been involuntarily released right out of my throat and from the pit of my stomach a scream so agonizing that one of the men who was standing at the scene immediately covered his ears with both hands and sobbed like a child his face contorted in obvious torture his hands tightly squeezing the volatile sounds of my shrieks out of his ears It was a scream that was no longer my own but that of a sadness that came from deep within the uncharted and dormant corners of my heart It was a scream that awakened in me a state of reverence and dread of unmatched proportions I fell to my knees and came pounding upon God's door that day The speckles of broken glass reflected light like a thousand stars in a fallen sky I watched in disbelief how we really have no control of our own lives how with one blink of an eye your whole life can change forever     The Soul of Elizabeth Seton Joseph I.
